DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Sunday, April 14th

"Let Go & Let God"

(2 Chron. 20:9-19)

Contribute to the discussion if you feel led to share! Use of Scripture is encouraged!

- 1) How could our lives look different if we live in a constant state of prayer instead of using prayer as a last resort? (Or share specific examples from how your life has been different because of this shift).
- 2) What does it look like for us to participate in the battles, but ultimately let God fight our battles?
- 3) Do you have a person in your life who is always willing to lovingly speak the truth to you?
 - If so, how has that person impacted your life?
 - If not, who is someone in your life that you could seek out for this type of relationship?
- 4) Who is at least one person in your life to whom you can be a spiritual mentor? (Someone you can regularly mentor and guide in life by lovingly speaking the truth in his or her life?)

Take Home/Challenge Question:

David pointed out that we need to position ourselves in the right spot to be used by the Lord most effectively. Are you in the spot the Lord wants you? Are you in a place where your gifts are being used for God's glory? (In your relationships, your family, your roles in the church, your job, etc.)?
