

FCABC LIFE GROUP DQS

1) When Peter finally recognized who Jesus was, he immediately fell to his knees in repentance, declaring himself a sinful man. Why do you think a knowing God deeper produces a greater awareness of our own sinfulness?

2) Jesus told Peter 'I will make you fishers of men,' placing the responsibility of transformation entirely on Himself rather than on Peter's own effort. How does this change the way you think about your role in sharing your faith with others?

3) The sermon notes that the Sanhedrin recognized that Peter and John had been with Jesus simply by observing their boldness. What qualities or characteristics in your daily life might cause the people around you to draw the same conclusion?

4) The sermon suggests that going deeper requires a genuine hunger and desire, citing Matthew 5:6 on hungering and thirsting after righteousness. If you find that desire lacking in your own life, what does it mean to honestly bring that absence before God and ask him to change it?

TAKE HOME / CHALLENGE QUESTIONS

1) Peter's reluctance was rooted in professional expertise and exhaustion, arguing that he knew better than Jesus about where the fish would be. In what areas of your life are you most tempted to trust your own experience or knowledge over God's direction?
