

FCABC LIFE GROUP DQS

1) Job experienced suffering because of his obedience, not disobedience. How does this reframe the way you personally interpret difficult seasons in your own life?

2) Job mourned openly by tearing his robe and shaving his head, and the sermon affirms that mourning is not a sin. What does it look like in your own life to bring grief and doubt honestly before God rather than running away from God?

3) Paul pleaded three times for God to remove his thorn in the flesh, and God's answer was no. How do you navigate the tension between praying boldly for God to change your circumstances and surrendering to His answer when it differs from what you asked?

4) The sermon states that suffering can either push us away from God or press us closer to Him. What determines which direction a person moves when they experience suffering?

5) 2nd Corinthians 1 teaches that God comforts us in our affliction so that we can comfort others with that same comfort. How have you experienced this in your own life, either as someone who received comfort from another who had suffered or as someone who offered it?
