No desperdices tu campo

El Necio Desperdicia
lo que Dios le Confía

30 He pasado junto al campo del perezoso Y junto a la viña del hombre falto de entendimiento, 31 Y vi que todo estaba lleno de cardos, Su superficie cubierta de ortigas, Y su cerca de piedras, derribada. 32 Cuando lo vi, reflexioné sobre ello; Miré, y recibí instrucción. 33 «Un poco de dormir, otro poco de dormitar, Otro poco de cruzar las manos para descansar», 34 Y llegará tu pobreza como ladrón, Y tu necesidad como hombre armado.

El Sabio Trabaja
lo que Dios le Confía

6 Ve, mira la hormiga, perezoso, Observa sus caminos, y sé sabio. 7 La cual sin tener jefe, Ni oficial ni señor, 8 Prepara en el verano su alimento Y recoge en la cosecha su sustento. 9 ¿Hasta cuándo, perezoso, estarás acostado? ¿Cuándo te levantarás de tu sueño? 10 «Un poco de dormir, un poco de dormitar, Un poco de cruzar las manos para descansar», 11 Y vendrá tu pobreza como vagabundo, Y tu necesidad como un hombre armado.
