Questions for Discussion:

1. Do you ask God to speak to you? Are you willing to listen and obey?
2. How often do you look forward to Christ healing and restoring all things?
3. In what ways do you keep the means of how Christ's Kingdom advances as front and center in your life so you don't drift into worldly means and metrics?
4. Do you aspire for greatness? This isn't a bad thing. Just ask God to help you truly listen to how you can be great.
5. Are you more comfortable building walls or bridges? Ask God to help you be more generous to those who are not a part of your community.
6. The J-Curve life, suffering precedes glory, is God's economy for living the Christian life. Is this a reality you consider and commit to?
7. How do you respond to Jesus's three statements regarding the cost of following Jesus? Count the cost and don't waste your life.
