Within God's economy, suffering is _____.

"There are no _____ in the universe."

Psalm 131

Questions for Discussion:

1. Reflect on storms you've navigated in the past and God's faithfulness.
2. How have you grown in your faith through those storms?
3. Do you feel sometimes that God doesn't care amidst the storms of life?
4. Cry out to God and ask God to help you see Jesus in the storms.
5. How does seeing Christ the Hero as both Man and God bring you comfort?
6. Do you truly see the storms of life as providential?
7. Read Philippians 3:7-11 and reflect on your desire to know Christ and your willingness to share in his sufferings.
8. Read Psalm 131 and pray it over one another, that we would learn to trust God and have a quiet soul when things aren't going the way we want them to.
