

Healthy Living & Healthy Giving — PART 4: Younger Men

Titus 2:1-8

March 20-21, 2021 – Daniel Fender

- Ministry Paradigms

One Focus Connected To Everything

- Self-Mastery is Possible, even for Young Men ... But How?
- Encouragement is a Key Means to Strengthen Self-Control
- Encouragement Must Be Accompanied by a Consistent Concrete Model

How To Give What You Live

1. Young Men Need A Concrete Model
2. Be a Model in Works
3. Be a Model in Words
4. Be a Model of Care for Others
5. Be a Model for the Conscience of Opponents

How The Gospel Empowers & Enables

Community Group Discussion Questions:

1. How has the Spirit spoken to you through this section of God's word?
2. In Titus 2:6 Paul especially urges younger man to have self control in everything. Why is self-control so important?
3. Read Titus 2:6-8. Can you share an example of a younger man that exemplifies or exemplified the characteristics of Titus 2:6-8? How did he impact your life?
4. What can you do to encourage younger men? How can we encourage them in the important role they play in the church?
5. Consider the need we have for Revival. Read 2 Chronicles 7:14. Discuss the need to live this. Be sure to get an 'If 7:14' book and let's pray for revival.
6. A Question for Men: Re-read Titus 2:6-8. Are there any specific changes you want to make to your lifestyle so you can continue to grow in these areas as a man? How does the gospel guide and empower these changes?
