Community Group Discussion Questions:

1. Read all Titus 2. Discuss how the whole chapter fits together. How do verses 10-11 connect and why is this connection so important?
2. Why does Paul emphasize "self-control" (1:8-10; 2:2, 5-6, 12) and doing "what is good" (2:3, 7, 14)?
3. How does the passage challenge or encourage you? Any fresh insight?
4. Grace is powerful and teaches us to renounce certain ways of living and teaches us how to live a godly life. When you think of grace do you think of a person or an idea? As a concept or the Christ?
5. How has grace worked in your life? What are some specific ways you have seen God's grace at work in your life and in other people's lives around you?
