“Timing is relative. And everybody has a sense of ‘this is the right time but not this.’ God’s sense of timing will confound ours, no matter what culture we’re from. His grace rarely operates according to our schedule.” —Tim Keller, Jesus The King: Understanding the Life and Death of the Son of God

Community Group Discussion Questions:

1. Why do you think that so much of the Bible is written as a story?
2. When you are desperate Jesus' timing can seem off. Why do you think God does not work on our own time schedule?
3. If you put yourself in the shoes of either the hemorrhaging woman or Jairus, the father of the dying 12-year-old daughter, what would Jesus' actions teach you about who He was?
4. How do Jesus' actions today teach us to trust Him? How can you grow in your trust in Him when He heals and helps or when He seems not to?
