2. Do you live each day as if there's a battle raging for the souls of men?
3. How are you guarding your heart, life, and family from the schemes of the evil one?
4. Try to consider the transformation of this demonized man. What would it have been like to live in such utter terror and chaos, and now be a free man, with a quiet, peaceful soul? How would you have responded to Jesus?
5. Consider your own walk with Jesus. Are you truly free and is your life filled with gratitude to God for all he's delivered you from?
6. Take time to thank God for healing you and saving you. Trust that God's grace is mighty to save. He who began a good work in you will be faithful to complete it. Philippians 1:6
7. Pray for one another to resist the works, plans, and effects of the evil one. James 4:7
8. Consider the two ordinary means shared whereby we resist and overcome the devil. Are you submitted to the teaching of your shepherds and are you sacrificially sharing your testimony of all that God has done for you? 2 Tim. 2:24-26, Revelation 12:11
9. Thank Jesus for being sovereign, compassionate, and patient. Pray the Lord's Prayer together, longing for God's kingdom to come on earth as it is in heaven. Matthew 6:9-13
