KAPONO: Thank You, Lord. Thank you, that we can be in this place, Lord. We thank You that You have allowed us this time whether in online or in person that we can come, Lord, and dig into Your word, Lord, because it's through Your word, Lord, that changes our hearts and our lives, Lord. And we want to be changed, Lord. But in order to do that, we need to give up our control.

So would You clear our minds, Lord, clear anything that is weighing heavy on our shoulders this morning? We give it all to You this morning, Lord.

Would you guide us? Would you speak to us? Would you translate, if need be, Your word so that we can understand, Lord, and internalize, and take it home with us and be the light amongst those around us, Lord? We ask this in the mighty name of Jesus ,we say, amen.

PASTOR JD: Amen and amen. Good morning! You can be seated. So glad that you're here! Welcome! I want to welcome those of you that are joining us online as well. So glad that you are.

Real quick before we get started, I want to mention that this upcoming Tuesday 7:00 p.m. here in the sanctuary is our prayer meeting, really hope that you'll be able to come out and join with us and pray with us.

We have two services on Sunday mornings, of course. The first of which is the weekly Bible Prophecy Update that we've been doing a number of years now.

And then Second Service, which will be at 11:15 a.m. Hawaii time for those of you online, that's the sermon, a verse-by-verse study through the Bible.

And today, we're going to address the very popular topic that everyone loves to hear about, talk about. You are supposed to wait before you start laughing, but you already see it there.

Yeah, it's a real comfortable, warm, fuzzy topic about judgment is coming. So I hope you'll stay, for those of you that are here. You kind of have to now because we'll know if you don't.

For those of you watching by way of YouTube or Facebook, we would encourage you to go directly to the website at JDFarag.org for the uninterrupted and uncensored entirety of today's Update. And with that let's get to it.

Today, I want to borrow the idiom, "waiting for the other shoe to drop." You've heard this, right, this saying? Well, I want to talk about this as it relates to where the world is at now, and here's why.

The meaning of the idiom is that of waiting for an expected and inevitable event to occur, often seen as something negative or catastrophic. And the reason it's expected is because the first shoe already dropped, and now it's just a matter of time before the other shoe drops.

What's interesting about the origin of this saying, this idiom, is that it actually came from the late 19th century in New York City when construction at that time was not like it is today.

And so in these apartment complexes, you would have your bedroom right underneath the other person's bedroom in the floor above you. They would come home from work, take off their shoes. You would hear that first shoe drop, and then you would just wait because you knew — how am I doing with this, by the way?

[Laughter]

I got you looking up going, "Yeah." That is what Jesus said to do. "Look up." Wait for that other - because it's going to drop. It's just a matter of time because there's two shoes, right?

Are we good? Yeah, so the first one drops. Okay.

[♪ Singing "Jeopardy" tune ♪]

♪ When's the other one going to drop? ♪

That was pretty good. Good jingle. You'll never forget that, by the way.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

So that's where it originated. And it's uncanny because so too is this true with Bible prophecy, such that the first shoe has already dropped, and now it's just a matter of time before the other shoe also drops.

Question: When did the first one drop? And perhaps more importantly, what was it prophetically that dropped?

Answer: Well, let's answer the "when" first.

The first shoe dropped three years ago in the year 2020. And the answer to "what" is the powerful deception that dropped on the entire world, the entire world.

Now the question becomes one of: What's the last shoe to drop in terms of prophecy, and again, perhaps more importantly, when. Well, let's answer this twofold question.

First, when? It absolutely has to drop at any time now. And this by virtue of what the other shoe represents.

What does the other shoe represent?

Sudden destruction coming down and the sudden rapture of the church when we're caught up. That's the other shoe that's about to drop.

In other words, the other shoe is the rapture, pre-tribulation rapture of the church, then the Antichrist's revelation, then the commencement of the 7-year tribulation. May I invite you to join me in 1st Thessalonians Chapter 4? I will never tire of reading this well-known passage concerning the rapture.

The Apostle Paul - let me just kinda give you a quick back-story so you know the "why" behind the "what" of this first letter to this church. The Apostle Paul spent at the very most, some believe, three months when he started this church in Thessalonica. And if you can imagine, the Apostle Paul had the audacity to teach them Bible prophecy.

They're new believers!

I know! The best kind!

And he not only teaches them Bible prophecy, he teaches them about the pre-tribulation rapture.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

One more thing on this. This is the first letter that the Apostle Paul would ever write. His second letter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, was 2 Thessalonians. I know that's deeply profound because - and by the way, we're going to be in 2 Thessalonians today as well.

So I want to draw your attention to Chapter 4, beginning in Verse 16, and we're actually going to go on through to Chapter 5:3.

And the reason is, is that - I hope you know this: There were no chapter and verse breaks in the original manuscripts. It read as a contiguous letter. So they were added, and I'm so glad they did.

Could you imagine trying to get you to turn to - towards the end of this letter, and I couldn't cite chapter and verse? So those were added, but I don't want us to sever the continuing narrative that Paul is writing to them about.

So let's begin in Verse 16, 1 Thessalonians 4. “For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God.”

That's significant. There's two kinds of trumpets. There's the trumpet of angels for Israel. The trumpet of God for the church. There's the first trumpet, the last trumpet. Please make that distinction and delineation.

So with the trumpet of God, “And the dead and Christ will rise first.” This is our bodily resurrection. “Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up.” “harpazo” in the Greek, “rapturous” in the Latin. This is the rapture.

“We who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, comfort one another with these words.”

Now he continues. “But [Verse 1, Chapter 5] concerning the times and [Pardon me] the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, “Peace and safety!” [Some of your translations render that word “security”]

[It's the Greek word “asfáleia” translated security, safety, stability]

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

When they're saying those two words, “then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they shall not escape.”

Now, why do I emphasize that?

Because notice Paul says, “we,” and then he says, “they.” We are the “we.” We are not the “they.” I hope you got that because that's the best I got.

(Chuckling)

We escape. They don't. We are caught up. They are not. Sudden destruction.

Here's the thing about sudden destruction, again, I know deeply profound. You know I stay up at night thinking about these profound things. You know what sudden destruction is? It's sudden, the destruction. I told you I stay up at night thinking about these things.

Keyword “sudden.” It comes suddenly, unexpectedly upon them, not us. We escape. They shall not escape. And so what Paul is saying here is we're going to be caught up, raptured up at a time when they are saying two specific words: “peace and security,” “peace and stability.”

Let's go to 2 Thessalonians Chapter 2. I want to begin reading in Verse 1, and I'm actually going to read from the 1599 Geneva Bible. This predates the 1611 King James Bible.

Verse 1, “Now we beseech you, [We beg you please] brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [And I want you to notice this] and by our assembling unto Him.” [Did you catch that?]

The coming of our Lord Jesus Christ is the Second Coming. Our assembling unto Him is the rapture.

That ye [Verse 2, here's that word again,] be not suddenly moved from your mind, nor troubled, neither by Spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from us, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

Let no man deceive you by any means: [Verse 3] for that day shall not come, except there come a [Departure] departing [Rapture] first.”

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

That's the rapture. It has to happen first.

“And that the man of sin be disclosed, even the son of perdition. Which is an adversary, and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped so that he doth sit as God in the Temple of God showing himself that he is God.

Remember ye not [Verse 5] that when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth, [Or restraineth] that He might be revealed in His time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only He which now withholdeth, [Restrains] shall let till He be taken out of the way.

And then [Ho!] [Because Geneva 1599 was local - Ho!] And then shall that wicked man be revealed [Not before] whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of His mouth and shall abolish with the brightness of His coming.”

Daniel 9:27, please don't get whiplash on me. But this comports with this 2 Thessalonians 2 prophecy. It also comports with what we've affectionately referred to as the Olivet Discourse when Jesus himself in Matthew 24 quotes Daniel 9:27.

Daniel writes, “He will confirm [That's an interesting word in the original language of the Hebrew Old Testament]

It just so happens to be the same word in my native tongue of Arabic. It is the word, “higbir.” Higbir means to make stronger, greater, spectacular, superior.

“He will make [Higbir] confirm a covenant with many for one seven. [That's the 7-year tribulation] In the middle of the 'seven' [The three-and-a-half-year mark] he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And at the temple he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.”

Daniel Chapter 8 - this is all going to fit beautifully together in a moment. Verses 24 and 25, we're told that the Antichrist will “destroy wonderfully.”

I know that's a paradox, an oxymoron. Destroy wonderfully? What does that mean?

Well, it carries with it the idea of extraordinary annihilation. It's spectacular, again. And notice this word “prosper.”

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

He will prosper at this extraordinary annihilation and destruction. He will be met with success, prosperity, and through his policy, also he shall cause deceit to prosper. “Deceit to prosper in his hand, and he shall magnify himself in his heart, [And this is interesting] by peace shall destroy many.”

By peace?

Yeah.

Not war?

No.

Peace?

Yeah. “By peace he will destroy many.”

Can we go back to 2 Thessalonians 2? You okay so far?

Verse 9, “The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie, and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

For this reason [Verse 11] God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not [This is important] who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.”

In other words, they've already rejected the truth. Who is the truth? Jesus is the truth. “Jesus is THE way, THE truth, and THE life.”

And they have rejected Jesus, THE truth, and so God just says, okay, I'm not going to force you. You've made up your mind. You've hardened your heart, and you've sealed your fate. So I'm going to give you over to this powerful delusion to believe this lie.

Now these prophecies and the others along with them provide us with a gauge of sorts for their final fulfillment from front to finish.

Let me explain. Once they begin to come to pass, they set in motion the inevitable progression towards their ultimate and final fulfillment.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

I've oftentimes referenced Bible prophecy as having a shelf life, an expiration date, a striking while the iron is hot because once something is in motion, you just have got a window of time with which to complete that which has begun. And I see Bible prophecy this way.

This is why I see all that is happened and is happening as being the end because it has already started. That first shoe has already dropped.

Now the other one has to drop. You've already set it in motion. It's inevitable. And as such, it's now just a matter of time in the sense that this other prophetic shoe, as it were, must subsequently and ultimately drop.

If you'll kindly allow me to, I'll specifically address the significance of these prophecies that were set in motion back in 2020 when the first shoe dropped. And we're going to start with the first month of the year 2020, January and what has been dubbed "The Deal of the Century," which was to bring peace to the Middle East.

The sole goal of said peace plan was for both Jews and so-called Palestinians to live side-by-side together in peace and security. It should be noted that this peace plan is titled, "Peace to Prosperity."

Does that sound like the prophecy we just read in Daniel? That's because that's what the prophecy is that we just read in Daniel.

So it comports with Daniel's prophecy and the specificity of Daniel's prophecy concerning [Key word, again, deceit] deceit prospering, the prosperity of this deception and peace will be the catalyst for the destruction. This peace plan is not about peace with Israel. It's about the destruction of Israel.

You know many years ago Yasser Arafat - remember him? "We want peace."

No, you don't. He would say that when he was in the US, but then he would go back to Ramallah and in Arabic say, "Peace for us means the destruction of Israel." And he would say it just like that, too, with all the enunciation. Actually, he said that in Arabic.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

Now it's important to understand that this is Islam, and it started with Mohammed and then Saladin after him. You make peace with your enemy then you destroy your enemy. This is their playbook. This is what they're doing.

You think they want to live side-by-side in peace and security with the Jews? No, they want to kill the Jews!

That was a really harsh, the way I just said that, but it's true! It's true. They hate the Jews. They want to kill the Jews. They want to destroy the Jews.

Well, how are they going to do it?

Hey, come on. We make peace deal. Have I got a deal for you.

(Chuckling)

We make peace with you.

Yeah, okay, peace, peace.

There's no peace. "And by peace, many will be destroyed."

This destroying of Israel by peace comes vis-à-vis Israel relinquishing any and all claims, as seen here in section 21 on page 38 of this "Peace to Prosperity" plan. It's under the heading of "End Of Claims / End Of Conflict."

I have to say that this is written in a very insidious way so as to imply that Israel must comply with the agreement and end their claims in order to end the conflict.

In other words, Israel, you want peace? You want an end to the conflict?

Yes.

Well, then you need to end your claims, your legitimate claims to the land and namely Jerusalem. This is wrong on every level for a number of reasons, not the least of which is that it's their land given to Israel by God himself. And that's an Arab telling you that, by the way, just so you know.

It does not belong to the Arabs. The reason I say so-called Palestinians is because there's no such thing as a Palestinian. The Palestinian name comes literally transliterated from

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

Philistine. Well, the Philistines are gone. They've been extinct. David actually eliminated all of the Philistines.

So where did we get the name Palestine and Philistine and Palestinian?

Well, when Jerusalem was destroyed, as Jesus prophesied, Rome named it after the arch enemy of Israel.

Who was the arch enemy of Israel?

The Philistines. Actually, they started off with Syria, Aelia Capitolina, which doesn't fit on a card very well, so they shortened it to just Philistia. Philistia translated Palestine. Not because the Palestinians but because of the enemy of the Israelites. The land belongs to Israel.

I just want to say this parenthetically. I don't want to get too far into it because my blood pressure will go up, but I do take issue with anyone who will - even some of your Bibles - don't look right now - but they'll say, you know, "map of Palestine when Jesus was here."

Excuse me? Excuse me? It wasn't Palestine. It was Israel.

Bible commentators: Yeah, back in Palestine...

Stop calling it that. Well, yeah, but it was named after 2000 years.

I know, but it is Israel. It is the land belonging to Israel. Any claim is illegitimate from anyone other than the Jew. God gave it to them.

Yeah, but Pastor, it's Abraham that God made a covenant with.

Yes, He did. That's in Genesis. In fact, you have the real estate transaction of this property where the property lines are of the Promised Land that God gave to Israel. But I want to start with Deuteronomy Chapter 34:4. And I think you will see why here in a moment.

Now we're told that, "The Lord said to him [Speaking of Moses] 'This is the land of which I swore to give Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' [Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob]

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

I have caused you [Moses] to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.”

And we know why from the account.

Joshua 21:43, “So the Lord gave to Israel all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it.”

It gets better, Isaiah 14:1. “For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob.” [Stop right there]

You know who Jacob was? This is the Jacob that wrestled with the Lord all night, and God broke him and changed his name from Yacob, Jacob, to Israel.

“So I'm going to have mercy on Jacob [slash Israel] and will still choose Israel and settle them in their own land. [Now this is interesting] The strangers will be joined with them [I think He's talking about my people] and they will cling to the house of Jacob.”

They can cling, and they are, but it's not their land. It's the land that was given to Israel.

Jeremiah 30:3, “For behold, the days are coming,” says the Lord, “that I will bring back from captivity My people Israel and Judah,” [That's even more specific, Southern Judah, Jerusalem] says the Lord, and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.”

Ezekiel 37:12 - we know this as the dead bones prophecy, and Ezekiel is just baffled.

How can these dead bones come to life? And I know this is a loose paraphrase, but it's like God's like, watch Me now. Watch Me now.

“Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: “Behold, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up from your graves and bring you into the land of Israel.”

It belongs to Israel only.

Question: Why is this delineation and distinction of such paramount importance?

Because if you stop at Genesis with Abraham only, then one can deceptively lay claim to the land under the banner of it belonging to all the descendants of Abraham.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

Enter the “Abraham Accords Peace Agreement.” This was part of the aforementioned first shoe to drop in September of 2020, along with the “Peace to Prosperity” plan in January of 2020.

Here's a couple of quotes; they're very telling, from page 1, quote, “Determined to ensure lasting peace, stability, security, and prosperity.”

Oh, my goodness! They have to know. Peace, security, prosperity, stability?

“For both their states and to develop and enhance their dynamic and innovative economies.”

Aww! Still quoting. And I want you to watch this.

“Recognizing that the Arab and Jewish peoples are descendants of a common ancestor, Abraham, [That's true] and inspired, in that spirit, to foster in the Middle East a reality in which Muslims, Jews, Christians, and peoples of all faiths, denominations, beliefs, and nationalities live in, and are committed to, a spirit of coexistence, mutual understanding and mutual respect.”

“The Parties shall attach profound importance to mutual understanding, cooperation, and coordination between them in the spheres of peace and stability.”

I'm not looking up for that other shoe to drop. I'm looking up for Jesus to come and get us out of here because this is exactly what we're told would be happening when He comes to catch us up.

And by the way, they, they, they, not we. It's sudden destruction when they, page 2, peace and security, sudden destruction is going to come upon them.

Pictured here is a publication from Arabian Business this last Wednesday actually about the most interesting timing of the opening of the “Abrahamic Family House.”

Five days ago. This is Sunday? Wednesday they opened it, grand opening!

For “Christian, Jewish, and Muslim worshippers.”

What's wrong with that?

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

Everything! No! No!

A quick quote from the Post. I probably shouldn't, but why not?

The Abrahamic — I'm sorry about the added emphasis. I have to or else I would yell and scream and cry, and that wouldn't be good.

“The Abrahamic Family House, a unified complex located in Saadiyat Island, Abu Dhabi featuring a mosque, a church, and a synagogue was inaugurated on February 16.

The Abrahamic Family House is now officially open to the public starting Wednesday, March 1. [Last Wednesday]

The complex will act as “a cultural and architectural beacon of peaceful human coexistence that represents each of the Abrahamic faiths, according to a statement by the Abu Dhabi Media Office.”

That's why it is, by the way, and please don't be ignorant. I'm just quoting the Apostle Paul. Don't get mad at me. Don't be ignorant. Okay? Don't let them, they, do that.

Oh, yeah, we're all children of Father Abraham.

Yeah?

So we want to live together, coexist in peace and security. What's your problem?

My problem is, is that God gave that land to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob's descendants, not you, not my people. Let my people go back to where they came from. This is not their land!

[Arabic tongue trilling sound]

[Laughter]

Again emphasis added. You know Arabs are very passionate people. That's my story and I'm sticking with it.

I remember as a kid growing up, my mom and dad spoke Arabic in the home. And oh, my goodness, I always thought - this is before I learned the language, which I did later on, but I was always thought man, mom and dad are yelling at each other, so angry with each other all the time.

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

So I asked my mom about it one time. I said, "Mom, why are you and dad always angry with each other? She said, "Oh, no, Habebi, this is how we talk."

You know Arabic is really a rough language, yeah? I'm going to give you the word for "welcome" or "greetings" in Arabic. You ready for it? Wait for it. MarHaba.

Oh, you've got to get the - you got to clear your throat and spit on the person, MarHaba.

What did you call me?

I just said "welcome."

[Laughter]

You know my dad was a French teacher. We need a little bit of levity right now. Is that okay?

My dad taught foreign language in high school. He knew six languages, by the way. He taught French.

Of particular interest because isn't it true that whenever you are with somebody and they are using very colorful language, and they find out you are a Christian, and they will always say, "Excuse my French."

To which I always say, "I'm sorry that's not French. I just want you to know that is not French."

But I tell you something about French. What a - oh, it's such a smooth language. Voulez-Vous, avoir, you know? (Chuckling)

It's kind of like, oh, thank you. I just cursed you to your face.

[Laughter]

I could bless you in Arabic, and you think it is a curse. I could curse you in French, and you think it is a blessing.

Anyway, I'm trying to argue my case here for being so [Arabic tongue trilling sound]
(Chuckling)

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop
J.D. Farag

Don't let them do that. Don't let them get away with that. Because see, they're going to stop at Abraham because that is the only way they can get anywhere close to anything that resembles a legitimate claim to the land that God gave to Jacob/Israel.

And it's Isaac, not Ishmael. See, they try to go back to Ishmael. And there is even a passage that says, hey, you know, Hagar, I'm going to bless you and your descendants. That's Ishmael.

And you remember the whole Ishmael thing, right? And then you've got Isaac, and then they have twin boys in the womb, Esau and Jacob.

And you know what the name, because the name is the nature, you know what the name "Jacob" means? It means heel-snatcher, conniver.

And God, when He changed his name, you will no longer be a heel-snatcher. Your name will be "Israel," which means "governed by God."

Oh, I like that. I'll take it. I never liked my name to begin with, which is why I changed my name from Wahid to JD.

[Laughter]

Okay, enough of my problems.

So this shoe dropped in 2020, January 2020, and then September 2020, and now it's just a man it's just a matter of time before the other shoe drops. Well, this brings us to the third specific prophecy that was set in motion in 2020. This was at the end of 2020. And it's actually been referred to as "the final solution," quote-unquote.

So let's go ahead and end the live stream now before it is too late. So you know where I'm going, right, with this? And by the way, it was one Bill Gates who said, quote, of the vaccine so-called it will be the "final solution."

This in 2020 was known as "Operation Warp Speed." That was part of the first shoe to drop also in 2020.

Pictured here is a screenshot of a PDF file from the US Department of Health and Human Services and the US Department of Defense [Hmm] titled, "Explaining Operation Warp

Prophecy Update
Waiting for the Other Shoe to Drop

Speed.” Here is a quick quote. “Operation Warp Speed aims to begin delivery of 300 million doses of a safe, effective vaccine for COVID-19 by January 2021.” So this shoe dropped at the end of 2020 and the beginning of 2021.

Now fast-forward in “warp speed,” pun intended, to the beginning of 2023. This supposed safe and effective vaccine so-called, has been injected into what some believe to be several billion [With a B] people all over the world.

And it's for this reason that the other shoe will absolutely drop at any time now, such that, it will go from a needle in and on the arm to a mark in and on the forehead or forehead.

We've gone in-depth into this over the last three years, the technology that's already in place. It's actually been in place for many, many years, and it is evidenced by this video that was posted nine years ago now on the Ted Talks YouTube channel. It's titled, “Mark Kendall: Demo: A Needle-Free Vaccine Patch That's Safer And Way Cheaper.”

So here's an excerpt from the very end of the video, and I want you to listen very carefully, now quoting.

“...Standing here today in front of you at the birthplace of the needle and syringe, a device that's 160 years old, I'm presenting to you an alternative approach that could really help make that happen, and it's the Nanopatch with its attributes of being needle-free, pain-free.”

It's just something that you put on the skin, and pictured here is a screenshot from the YouTube video. You can see it penetrating into the skin and the bloodstream.

Now again, we talked about this in-depth over the last three years. But this is very specific when it comes to that very well-known prophecy in Revelation Chapter 13.

So it will just be a stamp, tattoo, mark, and they use those words in describing this nano patch technology, and it delivers this into the human body.

One more thing on this, and it's once again from this Dr. Albert Bourla. He's the president and CEO of Pfizer. And he was interviewed recently by the Economic Club of Chicago, and I want to share with you what he said, quoting, "Covid was like a rehearsal for me, a general rehearsal."

Translated: That wasn't the main event. No, that was just the first shoe. That was just the rehearsal. Now just wait for the other shoe to drop.

I may have said this before, and I want to be careful in how I say it because I know people get weird and think I'm weird, which I am, but I have the gift of weird. So it's a gift. I know it's not a biblical gift, but I still have it.

This man, this Bourla, he's demon possessed at best. He is demon possessed at best. If you've watched him talk, you don't have to be that spiritually discerning of the spirits. He's at best demon possessed.

At worst, I would question whether or not he's actually still fully human. He may already be transhuman, which is where everything is going right now.

And if that sounds far-fetched, then you need to, in your own research, understand what this whole fourth Industrial Revolution is about with Klaus Schwab and all of those with him, by the way.

And you look at these guys, and the reason I even bring it up is because if they're still fully human and not yet transhumans, and by transhuman, I mean their human DNA has been altered.

Klaus Schwab has described transhumanism as merging men with machine. So they have computerized chips in them operating them as an operating system so they are not fully human. They're computerized transhumans.

And I will just list a couple of names here: Elon Musk, Mark Zuckerberg; I'm going to put Jeff Bezos in there. I'd mentioned a couple of other names, but I'm not going to. I should, but I won't. Right? I'm not supposed to.

Okay, good I'm not going to then.

But I only do that because I want you to, when you see these guys talk like this, I want you to discern what spirit they are of. This is satanic. This is satanic. This is demonic.

And for this guy to say this? This was just the test run? This was just the first shoe. This was just a rehearsal. You should see what is about to drop next.

Well, I'm going to end the way I began and simply say that we're not going to have to wait too much longer for this other shoe to drop with how fast everything is now moving at warp speed, again, pun intended. And when it does, the rapture will happen.

By the way, spoiler alert: The rapture is still happening contrary to what people are saying. It is absolutely going to happen.

And let me add to that, that we are not in the 7-year tribulation yet. We cannot be in the 7-year tribulation yet.

Oh, Pastor, you are always so dogmatic.

Okay, okay. I'm going to get a little bit snarky here. Can you imagine if scripturally it was left ambiguous? Yeah, you know it could be, maybe, yeah possibly when it comes to eschatology.

How about salvation? Can you imagine?

Let's talk about Jesus for just a moment. Imagine that, talk about Jesus?

What if Jesus said you know I am "a way." You know, let's not be so dogmatic and narrow minded here. You know, I'm "a way, a truth, a life."

No, I am pretty dogmatic. I'm THE Way. There's no other way. I am the only way to the Father. No one gets to the Father except through Me.

Yeah, that is dogmatic, isn't it? Oh, you're so narrow minded. You're so black and white.

I mean, it is pretty black and white here. Can you imagine, and we're going to go through the ABC's of Salvation and the "Romans Road," as it's affectionately referred to.

Could you imagine if it said, Romans 10:13, "All who call on the name of the Lord have a very good chance of being saved"? Let's not be dogmatic.

No, will! Will! It will happen! The rapture will happen!

Man, it could be, you know, mid, post.

No! (Deep sigh) It has to happen before the 7-year tribulation. The rapture will happen. Then the Antichrist is revealed, 2 Thessalonians 2.

Then the 7-year peace covenant will be confirmed and enforced, hibir, Daniel 9:27, and this enforcing of the 7-year peace agreement is what starts the 7-year tribulation, which, again, cannot happen until after the rapture of the church, 2 Thessalonians 2.

After the Holy Spirit, the Restrainer is taken out on the way and the church is taken up, then, [then, keyword]. Can I just do that one more time? It felt really good. Then! That's when! Then! Yeah!

[Applause]

And one more thing — have I said, “one more thing” yet? No? So this is the “one more thing.”

Paul, at the end of 1st Thessalonians Chapter 4, he goes, we're going to be caught up, and then, and then, and therefore encourage one another with these words.

Could you imagine if the rapture was not before the 7-year tribulation, how cruel would that be? You're going to be beheaded, go through the wrath of God, and prove yourself because, of course, you're not saved by grace. You're saved by grace “if.”

No!

You're going to be beheaded, you're going to stand firm, you're going to be martyred. That's the tribulation saints, not the church.

No, you're going to be caught up, taken up. You're going to escape. They won't. You will. Be encouraged!

I'm not encouraged if I'm going into the Tribulation. I'm terrified, and I'm hunkering down. If I'm not going up, I'm hunkering down.

No, no, no, don't hunker down. You're going up. Don't bother. No worries. You're not going to be here. Be encouraged. I am.

Okay, this will be one, one more, last “one more thing.”

You know, it used to really get to me. I think I'm doing a little bit better by the grace of God on this.

But when people would say something like, You pre-tribbers: You just want to escape.

I'm like, yeah, actually, I do. You don't? Okay, well...

They will not escape. That means "they" are going to be some who do escape. We.

Be a "We."

[Applause]

I'm a "We." That's a shirt or a hat, isn't it? Be a "We." Okay, I feel much better now. I don't know if you do.

Okay, so stay with me here, okay?

So rapture, then the Antichrist is revealed. Then the peace agreement, seven years, is confirmed. Then the temple is rebuilt. Then at the three-and-a-half-year mark, the Antichrist will commit the abomination that causes desolation. And the mark of the beast will be enforced when the other shoe drops in order for anyone to do anything, chiefly as it relates to buying and selling, and this, of course, again is the prophecy in Revelation 13.

So the first shoe dropped. Notice, this 160-year-old technology, the syringe and the needle. But we have new technology now. So the first shoe is the outdated, obsolete antiquated needle.

So the next shoe that's going to drop is going to be this new technology, a mark, a stamp, a tattoo, a patch. It looks like a Band-Aid, by the way. It's going to drop at any time.

You know every Sunday I end with the Gospel and the ABCs of Salvation because I truly believe this with all of my heart, and the Lord knows my heart. It could be the last time I do this. That's how soon I believe the rapture is and could be.

So what is the Gospel? It's the good news that Jesus was crucified, buried, and rose again on the third day, and He is coming back for us one day, soon and very soon. That's the good news.

What are the ABC's?

It's just a childlike simple explanation of salvation. The A is for admit or acknowledge that you have sinned because think about it. If you're not a sinner, why would you need a Savior?

It's when you acknowledge that you've sinned. Romans 3:10 says, “There is no one righteous, not even one.” And Romans 3:23 tells us why. It's because, “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” We've all missed the mark.

Romans 6:23 says there is a penalty for that. “The wages of sin is death but [Here's the good news] the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

That is the A; here's the B, very central, believe in your heart. “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever would believe would not perish but have everlasting life.”

Romans 10:9-10 says, “If you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, you will [Keyword] be saved.” Will. The jury's not out. The verdict is in. It's not ambiguous.

And lastly, the C is for call upon the name of the Lord. Or as Romans 10:9-10 also says, “If you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved [And here's why]. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.”

And lastly, we just referenced it, Romans 10:13, “All who called upon the name of the Lord will be saved.” It seals the deal.

Is that simple? Childlike simple? Too simple maybe? That's the Gospel.

Well, I want to end with today's “But God Testimony.” It's kind of a special one. It comes from Kaydin Birdsey who writes, “Hello, Pastor JD, my name is Kaydin Birdsey ,and I'm 14 years old. And I wanted to share my testimony with you hoping it would help other kids my age. I wrote it out in a poem because I fear it would be too long otherwise.

[So I'm going to read the poem, and I hope I do it justice]

The name is "Who Am I?"

I'm Kaydin Birdsey, and I'm from many places.

I'm like the wind: I don't stay but I go.

I'm from a small town but many homes.

I'm from gas station to gas station.

I'm from muddy water that is only clear for some.

I'm from big families, latch keys and night shifts, absent fathers, and single mothers.

I'm from child services, and EBT food stamps.

I'm from hit-and-runs in broad day.

I'm from libraries a block away.

I'm from the foot my mom lost from her surgery.

I'm from the finger my grandpa lost from a saw.

I'm from the cancer that took my grandma's life.

I'm from you.

Better be in this house before the streetlights come on.

I am from women who have kids too early.

I am from framed obituaries.

I'm from screen doors to no doors.

I'm from a small legacy.

I'm from sleepless nights.

I'm from a war that is still not over.

I'm from many places.

[Then she goes on to write]

I moved in with my Nana at the age of 13 and started learning about our Lord Jesus Christ. I am now a member of His family starting June 9th, 2021. You have become my pastor, and I'm now a proud member of our church.”

14 years old.

[Applause]

Kapono, come on up. Why don't you go ahead and stand? We'll close in prayer and song. And as always I appreciate your patience with me.

Father in Heaven, how do I, how do we even begin to adequately express to You our gratitude, our thanksgiving? Oh, Lord thank You for the gift of eternal life that You paid for, for us instead of us. You died, Your blood shed in our stead so that we could live forever with You.

Thank You, Lord, for the blessed hope of the pre-tribulation rapture because that's our only hope, that soon and very soon that trumpet's going to sound, and the dead in Christ are going to rise first, and we, Lord, who remain and are alive are going to be caught up, and we're going to see our loved ones again with their new bodies, and then we're going to get our new bodies. and we're going to meet You in the air and forever be with You.

Oh, Lord! Too high for our understanding, but what hope that gives us!

Lord, I pray for anyone that might be here in this church service or watching online that has never come to You, surrendered to You, called upon You, put their trust in You, believed in You, Lord, I pray that today right here and right now, that they would not delay the most important decision of their life for eternal life.

Please Lord let today be the day of their salvation, we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
