Pastor JD Farag

KAPONO: Would you join me as we pray? Heavenly Father, loving Father, merciful, patient, kind Father, we thank You so much, Lord, for this time. Lord, we pray that You would lift up this family here, our church family.

Continue to protect us, Lord, and protect this place. This is Your church, Lord. We thank You so much for allowing us to be here this morning, Lord. Now, would You please lead us as we get into Bible Prophecy Update?

So many things sometimes in our hearts that we fight with, but Lord, would You draw us to Your Word for clarification in the truth that is in Your Word, Lord. So bless this time, Lord, continue to hold up Pastor JD, Lord, give him the strength, courage, boldness, Lord, to preach Your Word. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

PASTOR JD: Amen and amen. And good morning and welcome. And you can be seated. So glad you're here. So glad you're joining with us and those of you online as well. We're going to get right to it. This is First Service, which is devoted to the weekly Bible Prophecy Updates.

Second Service, though, is the sermon, and it's a verse-by-verse teaching through the Bible, as I'm sure many of you know by now. But for those of you online, it's livestreamed at 11:15 a.m. That's the teaching part. If you go to our website, the worship starts at 10:45 a.m. and that's Hawaii standard time.

And for those of you here, Second Service starts at 10:45 a.m. Of course, now that presupposes that the pastor at First Service doesn't keep talking into Second Service. See, I'd never do that, but I've heard that, about that. But now there's something you need to know about today.

We're going to pick it up in Chapter 3, verse 20 and, Lord willing, make it through to verse 30. I've titled the sermon, Second Service, 'I'll Continually Be Falsely Accused.' And it's not odd. It's God. Because there's no way I could have ever timed, because we go verse-by-verse.

Now topically, yeah, I can make it work somehow. Just pick the topic that fits. But when you're teaching God's word verse-by-verse, chapter-by-chapter, book by book, you kind of

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy

have a track you have to stay on. And you can't avoid the tough passages either. I've tried, trust me; it didn't work out well, didn't end well. I have the scars to prove it.

So I always try to read ahead to stay ahead, obviously. But I didn't, in my wildest imaginations, I never thought that, in fact, I can almost say this: I don't think that this has ever happened in the almost 30 years that I've been in the pastorate, where a passage of Scripture perfectly, and I mean perfectly fit with where we were at, and especially specifically today, where we're at and what we're talking about in our Prophecy Updates.

This is maybe a little bit of a spoiler alert, but right out of the chute, Jesus is going to be — basically His family is convinced He has lost His mind and is mentally ill. And then the teachers of the law are going to be right behind them, accusing Jesus of being, not just demon possessed, but — maybe we should just do Second Service right now.

I mean, it just works and fits. And so, but they accuse Him not only of being possessed by a demon, but the prince of demons, Beelzebub. Now we're going to — we're going to work our way through that by God's grace and the Holy Spirit of God, because it is exactly what we're seeing now in this last hour, which is the prophesied intensity and increased frequency of satanic attacks on the mind vis-à-vis Satan's MO, modus operandi, mode of operation, as the accuser of the brethren. That's Second Service.

But it, as only God can, ties perfectly into what we're going to talk about for today's Prophecy Update. But just by way of a reminder for those of you on YouTube or Facebook, we'd encourage you to maybe go to the website now or one of the many other apps that we have, so that you can view uninterrupted the entirety of today's Update. So with that, we're going to get started.

And the title, I think, says it all: 'The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy.' More specifically, why, and even how the enemy attacks the battleground of the mind using the highly advanced brain technology of directed energy weapons on targeted individuals. Was that too soon, too much too soon? Okay. We're going to hit the ground running, so buckle up.

As I mentioned last week, this week is a follow-up in what is going to be a series, which by the looks of it is probably going to extend further as the Lord permits and directs, especially after the overwhelming response after last week. I have to confess; I knew there would be an uptick in the responses, but I didn't anticipate it would be that much from people who — think about it — are — to great threat to themselves — willing to even send in an email or post a comment.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy

And it seems a nerve was hit and a cord was struck, if I could borrow those idioms, because — you know why — we covered the untouchable topic and sensitive subject of mind control. And today in the context of Bible prophecy, and we did connect that last week, but this week we're going to go a little bit further into it, deeper into it, more of a deep dive, but I want us to first dive right into the Word.

And I would like for us to examine a few of the many Scriptures. There are many. Even this morning in my time with the Lord, before going through my update and sermon, just... the Lord is so faithful. He's got me in His word, in specific places in His word. I'm going, oh my goodness, I've got to add that too. And no, you can't, JD. Just wait till next week, part 2, well, actually part 3 because if you try to fit that in, you're going to keep these poor people there till the rapture. So just save it. So I did. I didn't want to, but I did because I'm obedient to the commands of the Lord. Okay. Why do you look at me like that?

But there are so many Scriptures that speak directly to the paramount importance of the human mind in spiritual warfare, in worship. Because we're created in the image of God, body, soul, mind, triune in nature. And you know what? Can we pray, please? Would you join with me?

Father, we're humbling ourselves before You, posturing ourselves as Your servants, who desperately need You, by the Holy Spirit, to open up these passages we're about to read and examine. Open them up to us, Lord. For some of us who know these passages well, open them up to us in a new and fresh way, so much so that it powerfully and personally applies to our lives today. Will You do that for us, Lord? We're asking You for this in Jesus' name. Amen.

I want to begin with the Savior himself. That's always a good place to start. Yeah? Matthew's Gospel, Chapter 22, verse 37. You know it well. Jesus is actually responding in the context of which this was inspired and written by Matthew. “Jesus said to him, ‘Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.”

[Mind.]

Isaiah 26, verses 3 and 4. This was earlier this week, a place where the Lord had me in His word that was just wow. You know it well. I've selected this version for a reason. “The steadfast of mind [Mind] You will keep in perfect peace [Shalom-shalom] because he trusts in You. [Now verse 4, it's like turning a corner because it's almost an exhortation, if you will.] Trust in the Lord forever. For in God the Lord we have an everlasting Rock.”

There's so much in those two verses. I found myself asking the Lord if He would just let me spend more time in these two verses. And what's He going to say? No? He said yes. In fact, I'm going to take you to class. And He did. And I'm so glad I asked.

So this class was a study both in the original Hebrew and even my native tongue of the Arabic language. And when I was done with that class (Chuckling) — do you like my illustrations? Because I do. Okay. Man, it just added so much more flavor, so much more color to this well-known passage that many of us have memorized, read a jillion times.

So what I did was I paraphrased it and reformatted it into a prayer, which is what I do. You know, because praying the Word is powerful. You know that, right? Especially with the Psalms. I mean, those are prayers, those are songs, those are cries. And so I pray the Word. And such was the case with Isaiah 26, verses 3 and 4. And I want to share with you what I ended up entering into my prayer journal so that it can be rightly understood, correctly read, and even fervently prayed.

Lord, my state of mind and my frame of mind , steadied by You, readied for You, trusting in You, reliant upon You, leaning against You, looking to You, fixed on You, and humbled before You, for mercy from You is perpetually, perfectly, and infinitely comforted, calmed, supported, protected, secured, sustained, uninterrupted, rested, and controlled because of You, in Your eternal shalom-shalom, Your unwavering, unfailing, unending, and transcending peace by Your watching over me, guarding for me, and keeping of me.

And that's the understanding of those two verses in the original language of the Hebrew Old Testament, in concert with my native language of Arabic. Boy, some of you are looking at me like, I'll settle for the English. Thank you very much.

[Laughter]

Let's go to Romans 8. You know about this chapter, don't you? One of the most encouraging, settling chapters in all of the pages of Holy Writ, especially if you're doubting God's love for you, or you're being crushed under the weight of Satan's guilt heaped upon you.

Romans 8. I want to draw your attention to verses 5 through 8. “Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set [Mindset.] [They set their minds like you set your clock.] [That's what a mindset is.] [It's a set mind] on what that nature desires. But those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their mindset on what the Spirit desires. The mind [Verse 6] of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled [Wait. Stop.] [Mind control.] mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace.”

I'm going to pause before we get to verse 7 and 8, if you don't mind, because, mind, pun intended, because the question before each and every one of us today, myself included, is this. What's on your mind? Better asked, who's on your mind? Who occupies your mind? Who slash what, really who, is your mind set on? Christ.

Who — I'm going to take it further, and this might make some uncomfortable, but that's okay, because when I'm uncomfortable, I want you to be uncomfortable too. Under whose mind control are you in, or under? Because we've got two verses to go, but already, right out of the gate, we've got only two choices on the table, right? We're either mind controlled by the sin nature, or we're mind controlled by the Spirit nature. Did you get that? Connect that? It's one or the other.

And we're going to see that right now because in verse 7, he goes on, “The sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. [Verse 8] Those controlled [Mind controlled, if you please] by the sinful nature cannot please God.”

Let's slide into 2 Corinthians, Chapter 3, verse 14. It's going to maybe fill in a blank or two here. Paul, writing to the church in Corinth, says, “Their minds were not able to understand. Even to this day when the Law is read, there is a [Watch this, rendering] covering over their minds.”

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Like a shield, like a coating. I'm going to just say a Faraday shield, for those of you who know what that is. A tinfoil shield. I probably shouldn't have took it that far, but too late. Because that blocks out, keeps out what's trying to get in, good or evil. In this case, good. In this case, God, the word of God, the God of the Word.

And he says, “They do not see that Christ is the only one who can take the covering away.” In other words, we've got — we're being covered and controlled, and only Jesus can remove the cover and free us from the control.

Let's go to Ephesians 6, 10 through 20. This is big. We did talk about this some while back, but I want to take you through this, and not so much emphasize what we affectionately refer to as the spiritual armor. But I want to point out some very important truths that are tightly tucked into this text.

[Paul writing] “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, [Put it on.] [I don't want to put that on.] [No, put it all on.] [Why?] that you may be able to [Let's count them.] stand against the wiles of the devil. [Strategies, tactics, warfare tactics, maneuvers, operations, programs.] For [And verse 12 is important.] we do not wrestle [That's a full-contact sport as we know it.] ...we do not wrestle against flesh and blood [People.] [People are not the enemy.] [The enemy is the enemy.] [People are only the agents doing the bidding of the enemy.] [So we don't wrestle against people] but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.”

You see what just happened there? Paul, by the Holy Spirit, has just delineated between four differing entities with differing rulings and rankings in the spiritual realm. Some have more power. Some rule over more than the others. Some are hosts. Some are rulers. Some are powers. Some are principalities.

“Therefore, [Verse 13] take up the whole armor of God [There it is again.] [Notice the detail.] that you may be able to withstand [Are you counting? Two.] [Stand, withstand.] in the evil day. [Oh, by the way, the evil day, that's today.] And having done all, to stand. [Three: stand, withstand, stand.] Therefore, [Verse 14] stand...”

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Do you get the impression that we're to stand? Stand firm, take our stand, don't give up ground.

[We're armored up, we're standing up] "...having girded your waist with truth, [That's the belt.] having put on the breastplate of righteousness, [That protects the heart.] and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; [Oh, how beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news.] [That's how they would send messengers in that day, with the message, the good news.] [They'd use runners.] above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the fiery [Weapons that are aimed at you as the target.]

I'm, of course, paraphrasing a little bit so that you can understand that the enemy is the enemy. Know who your enemy is. The technology is the weapon in the hands of your enemy. And you're the target. Have a nice afternoon. You're the high-value target, depending on how much of a threat you pose to the kingdom of darkness. You get the bullseye right on you.

And the shield of faith, trusting in that which you have the evidence for, but not — you haven't seen it yet. It's a done deal. It just hasn't happened yet. So that's analogized as faith. And they would take the shields, wood and metal, dip them in water, and they would take them above all of their comrades to the left and to the right and to the front and in the back, and lock them tongue and groove, creating an impenetrable fortress.

Above all, that's why if you get out from the "all," you're a dead duck, with a capital dead and a capital duck.

And Satan waits. That's why he roars and stalks you as a lion, waiting for you to just kind of get far enough away from the assembling of yourselves together with the brethren, because he's got you, isolated. And when they lock the tongue and groove, the weapons — see the — arrows — what does that imply? You're going to shoot an arrow at what? A target. And you want to hit the target. So that's a given, isn't it?

And so how are we going to extinguish — and they would — the arrows — they would literally light them on fire and fire them.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Hey, that might be why they call it that. I don't know. Fired an arrow because it was an arrow of fire. Sorry. I just realized that. That's really deeply profound for me. So just I'm having a moment right now.

So it would get extinguished immediately. In other words, you're the target. That's the enemy. And that's the weapon. That's the who, the what, and the target. Where? Where's the target? So we've got who, what, where.

Now watch this. You're going to be able to quench, extinguish. "No weapon [No fiery arrow, no directed energy.] [Oh, it's too early for that.] [You know what I mean.] [No dew, you know, like Mountain Dew] forged against you [Aimed at you] will ever prevail." [Or prosper, unless you let it.]

Now verse 17 is what I really want to focus in on. "And take the helmet of salvation..."

Stop. Why, pray tell, would the Holy Spirit inspire Paul to liken the helmet to salvation? Oh, because the helmet protects the mind, because that's where Satan is aiming. And he wants to get in your mind, in your head, and plant a seed of doubt about your salvation. Better keep that helmet on.

I was just — we were just talking in our pastor's meeting this morning about what they call shell shock. And that's where you're just — your brain literally goes into shock from when you're under fire, and the shells, and the noise. And true story, after — during World War II, one soldier in the trenches was in shell shock, so shocked was he, that he stood up and took off his helmet, (Clapped hands) and a bullet was shot into his head and killed him instantly, in that split second.

Think about that in the spiritual context. I thought about wearing a helmet today, but I thought maybe that would be too much. But I ain't ever taking it off now, spiritually, the helmet of salvation protecting my mind. And the only offensive weapon is "...the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God."

We're going to see this more because it's going to intersect and connect with our study in the Gospel of Mark. But the only offensive weapon is the word of God. And notice, conspicuously absent is any mention of any armor for the back.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Translated: Don't run. Don't run. I — just stand. No, but those arrows are coming at me. I know. I've given you everything you need to not only defend yourself against them, but to actually offensively use the sword of the Spirit to defeat it. Now this is where we get the “why.” So we got the who the enemy is, the what the weapon is, where the target is. Why?

[Ah, verse 18] “...praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints and for me, that utterance [Words] may be given to me.” [Like Jeremiah, I'm going to put My word in your mouth, and you're going to speak My word with your mouth.] [And Paul says] “...that utterance may be given to me that I may open my mouth boldly.”

Oh, that's why Paul is a public enemy or kingdom of darkness enemy number one. Talk about high-value target. He was causing a lot of damage. He was posing a formidable threat to the kingdom of darkness. We've got to get him incarcerated or institutionalized or hospitalized or something-ized to silence him, because he's speaking boldly the truth, and it's killing us. I could just picture — this is the way my brain thinks.

Speaking of brains, pray for me. I just picture Satan calling an emergency demon meeting. What are we going to do with this Paul guy? Demons were like coming up with, you know, suggestions, ideas. Sit around there with a fiery conference table. Is that too picturesque? Is that too dramatic? Anyway, you know, and flames.

And by the way, just so you know, the devil is not wearing red tights. Just wanted to clarify that. And he doesn't have a pitchfork. And he doesn't have horns, actually. He's actually quite stunning in his appearance, masquerading as an angel of light. So we've got to do something about this guy. Guys, demons, what are we going to do? Well, if we can get him in chains, chained to a Roman soldier.

Ah, no. In retrospect, Paul will take that Roman soldier that he's chained to, handcuffed to, all day, every day, all night, every night. I'm not getting a good night's sleep if that's me. But what does Paul do?

Well, the Holy Spirit inspires him and says, hey, you see that shield on that Roman guard? You see the sword? You see the helmet? You see the belt? You see the shoes? I think we've got a sermon here. And he took that and he said, you know, this is exactly what it's like in spiritual warfare. Hey, there's one time where Paul says, "I'm in chains, but the word of God is not in chains."

The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy

They're trying to silence me. But here's the thing. In your trying to silence me, my voice is getting louder. Ha! Oh, you're going to — you think you can chain the word of God? You think you — you can chain me. Fine, you could chain me physically. But thank you very much, because many of the prison epistles, as we affectionately refer to them, have over the last, well-nigh, 2000 years been an anchor for many a brother and sister in Christ.

And he goes on to say, listen, they're trying to silence me because I'm exposing them, the deeds of darkness, the unspeakable evil. And how am I exposing the darkness? The light. How am I defeating the false? Second Service. This is the Second Service's sermon. That's all you're getting out of me for Second Service.

How do you — how do you have victory over the false? The truth. The truth. Ha! Is that too simple? Why are you yelling? Because Paul was yelling. He had to, so they could hear the voice that they were trying to silence of the apostle Paul, who boldly preached the Gospel and preached the Word of truth.

And he says as much. "...that I may open my mouth [Open my big mouth.] [I'm talking about myself, not Paul.] boldly [Why?] to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador [Representative] in chains; that in it [In the chains, incarcerated] I may speak boldly as I ought to speak."

I'm just going to say parenthetically, and we'll keep it moving in as much as your pastor is able. I'll just speak for myself personally, that what God, as only He can, has been doing in my life, in this regard, is that the more the enemy tries to silence me — first of all, it — when I get concerned is when the enemy leaves me alone. Or worse, he sends you a thank you card and a gift card and says, "Thank you. Keep up the good work for the kingdom of darkness. You pose absolutely no threat whatsoever. Thank you."

No, if the enemy is targeting me, trying to, in his silencing of me, I got to him. Ha! (Grrr!) Oh, you're trying to silence me. You're trying to institutionalize me. You're trying to incarcerate me, bind me, shut me up. Go ahead.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

In my life, by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, it has accomplished the opposite. It has made my resolve stronger, my boldness louder, as you can tell, and my heart — this might seem like a paradox — softer. How so? God's given me a heart after His own heart for people who don't know Him, and if they die, they will spend eternity in hell. And that's the truth. And that changes the way I see people.

I don't see people as Democrat or Republican or Left or Right or liberal or conservative, or none of that. Stop that, please. You're either saved, or you're lost. Period. And when you understand that and see that, I tell you; it changes everything. That person in the checkout line? That's the mission field. I tell you; when God gives you a heart for the lost, He's got your heart because that's His heart.

[2 Corinthians 10, 3 through 6] “For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power [I love this.] to demolish strongholds.” [Destroy, disintegrate them.]

What's a stronghold? Something that has a strong hold. Let me try that again. A demonic hold that is very strong over you, your life, and in your life. It gets better.

[Verse 5] “We demolish [I like this word “demolish.”] [I looked it up in the original.] [I won't expound on it, but it's a cool word.] [Demolish, I mean completely smash] arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against [Exalts itself up against] the knowledge of God, [Watch this.] and we take captive [We're not taken captive and controlled.] [No, we take captive.] every thought [That is trying to get into my mind to take me captive.] and [What do we do once we catch it and take captivity of it?] [We] make it obedient to Christ.”*

Is it compatible with the words of Christ? You know, I was thinking about this on the drive here this morning, and I've said this before, so please don't hate on me if I say it again. You know, we're — I'm including myself — we give no thought to what we'll put into our bodies. And — I got that mixed up.

We put a lot of thought into what we allow into our bodies, but we put no thought into what we allow into our minds. Because I'm like, I'm not going to eat that. That's unhealthy. Oh, but you'll let that thought just kind of walk, waltz right in the front door of your brain, your mind, take up residence in your life, when it's exalting itself against everything that Jesus is, and says? It gets better.

The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy

If you have — if you're like me — if you're anything like me, which I hope you're not because you need prayer if you are, this verse 6 is the best part. “And we will be ready to punish [Man, we're going to punish, torture, beat you mercilessly.] [Is that too much?] every act of disobedience [Because see, this is not obedient to the word of God, the command of God.] once your obedience is complete.”

Let me see if I can sum this up real quick. We are to take captive anything that is trying to take us captive by allowing it into our minds, where the battleground is.

[2 Timothy 2, verses 25 and 26] “Those who oppose him, he must gently instruct, [Now this is a gnarly verse, a couple verses.] [This is a dealing with a situation that Timothy was dealing with as a pastor of the church.] [And Paul writing to him says] in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth, [These are born-again believers.] and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, [What?] who has taken them captive to do his will.”

These are Christians. They have the Holy Spirit. We're going to talk about this more, Second Service, the difference between being demon possessed and demon oppressed. This is an exhortation to Timothy, an encouragement to Timothy to pray that God would just grant them the grace to repent. Come back to your senses. Come back to your senses? Escape from the trap of the devil? Oh, you got captured? Yeah. And you're not only captive, but you're being used as an agent to do the devil's bidding.

[Philippians 4:8] “Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable — if anything is excellent or praiseworthy, think about such things.”

And this comports with Proverbs 23, the first part of verse 7. “For as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.”

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Check this out. You and I are what we think, not what we eat. I know that's a thing, but we are what we think. As one said it, you've got stinking thinking. You need a checkup from the neck up.

Romans 12:1 and 2, powerful two verses. “Therefore I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God. This is your spiritual act of worship. Do not [Verse 2] conform any longer to the pattern of this world but be transformed [How?] by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is, His good, pleasing, and perfect will.”

Notice the contrast: transforming, conforming, renewing. Hmm.

2 Timothy 1:7. You know this one, but I'm going to — I'm going to use this version and then expound on it for what I think would be deemed good reasons. “For God hath not given to us the Spirit, [Capitalized, Holy Spirit] of fear.”

The Holy Spirit never gives us fear. In fact, you could be assured with an absolute certainty that if you're experiencing even a hint of fear, it's not the Holy Spirit. It's an evil spirit. And oh, another thing, parenthetically, maybe this is for somebody here today. The enemy is infinitely more terrified of us than we should ever be of him. He knows he's a defeated foe. He wants — he doesn't want you to know. If you do know, he wants you to forget about it.

What are you doing? Your head was crushed when Jesus rose from the dead. Genesis 3:15, the Protoevangelium. Ha! You got — you're doing pretty good for a crushed-head guy. Oh, you bruised His heel, crucifixion. But He crushed your head, man, resurrection. But this is where it gets really interesting because it's first what the Holy Spirit has not given to us, fear. And then it's what the Holy Spirit has given to us. You ready? Power, love, and a sound mind, sober mind, strong mind.

Actually, in the original, better understood this way, a disciplined mind. Stay with me. We discipline our children. Our minds are undisciplined. I think sometimes our minds need a good spanking. We need to discipline them. They're just running wild. A disciplined mind is a controlled mind. That's Holy Spirit mind control. That's the mind of Christ under the mind control of the Holy Spirit.

Prophecy Update

The common denominator with these Scriptures, and again, there are many others like them, is this. They're all a warning concerning the battlefield being in the mind for control of the mind, hence mind control.

My wife used to always say, both when I was in business — I had my own business — and then in ministry, when I started my first church many years ago — she always said — she always had — boy, what a help meet — her intuitive spiritual discernment of spirits. It was a gift that God gave her because God felt sorry for me and said, get down there right now and give Kellie, because that dude, he needs all the help he can get. And she's his help meet.

Pray for her. Feel sorry for her. I think, you know, it's almost like God said, you know, she's been married to this dude for 37 years, and they've been together for almost 40 years. She's had enough. Get her home. Get her home. Bring her up here. Man. Okay. Never mind.

But she used to always say to me, “Honey” — and I can hear it like it was just yesterday — “it's always about control. I don't care what the situation is, secular or sacred, business or ministry, marriage or family, you peel back all the layers and what you're going to find is, it's all about control. Who's in control?” And she was right. Remember now, she was Mrs. Always Right, and I was merely Mr. Always Done Right. I let her have that one, because it was right. She was always right.

I think that it's incumbent upon all of us, again, myself included always, to focus the undivided attention, so we're not distracted, divided. Our minds are on something else. You know, like when you're in a conversation with somebody and you know, you're not — you don't listen to a word they're hearing. (saying) So you have to fake it like you are. So you insert a few “huh,” or “is that rights” in the conversation. But you're thinking about lunch, and not with them, apparently. Am I right?

I mean, that's why the seven letters of the seven churches is replete throughout Scripture, “those who have ears to hear.” That's rhetorical. I've got ears. In fact, I've got two. My wife used to say, “You've got two ears and one mouth. Do the math.” Okay. You're right, honey. Yes, dear. Yes, dear. Listen twice as much as you speak.

And by the way, you can close your mouth. You can't close your ears. But yes, you can. You can close your eyes. You got eyelids. You don't have ear lids. I know that's weird, but it works, right? In other words, always hearing, but never coming to the truth. Undivided attention. James talks about being double-minded. Got a lot of things on your mind. Well, there's only one thing that needs to be on your mind, in your mind, occupying your mind, and holding your attention without competition with anything else that would divide it. The undivided attention of our mind on God's word about our mind.

And I hope and I pray that what follows will provide much-needed understanding, wisdom, knowledge, discernment. The Proverbs: Seek wisdom like you would hidden, buried treasure that's invaluable. And if you get it, keep it and hold on to it and don't ever let it go. Discernment, prudence, understanding, wisdom.

Because when we find it and we obtain it and God gives it and we do it, then we're going to discern it, spiritual discernment and test it, test the spirits that are seeking control of our mind, which is the battleground of war.

Listen, especially in this day, right now, right here, like never before, and I've been walking with the Lord for over 44 years, I have never seen spiritual warfare as I have in my entire life. It's the likes of which I have never experienced before.

And here's the problem. I don't mean to beat or bash or anything like that. This is spoken in love because of love. Christians think that we're playing church in a playground, when in fact we're fighting for our lives spiritually in a battleground.

I'm going to start with this one-hour-and seven-minute video. I actually archived this, downloaded it a number of years ago. Then we had an online member email it to our office, and I had already watched it. But I thought maybe this was the Lord's way of saying, I needed to quote it. You know, when one man calls you a donkey, pay no attention. But when two men call you a donkey, get a saddle. You should see my saddle collection. It's quite impressive.

It's from — get this — (Chuckling) I'm sorry I'm chuckling — the Modern War Institute. You know what the title of the video is? 'The Brain Is The Battlefield Of The Future.' It's a lecture to cadets and faculty of — of all places, West Point. West Point. And get this, six years ago almost, October 29, 2018 by Dr. James Giordano. Who's he?

I'll tell you. The Chief of the Neuroethics Studies Program and Scholar-in-Residence in the Pellegrino Center for Clinical Bioethics (Gasping) at Georgetown University. That's who he is. Okay. That's who he is. What's this about? Oh, how advancements in neuroscience and neurotechnology will impact the future of war. Huh? Okay.

For the sake of brevity — I know you like to hear me say those words just if anything, just to give you hope — I've condensed this so I can quote this verbatim. Please listen carefully.

[Quote] “Neurocognitive science has been weaponized. The brain is the battlescape for weapons of mass destruction, disruption, and influence, accessing and affecting your brain, targeting individuals (Gasping) directly or covertly, like with MKUltra Mind Control or DARPA programs for psyops [Psychological operations] to [Listen] alter cognitive emotions and behavior.”

Not just alter but control the mind and the behavior by extension. I was actually surprised that they hadn't taken this down. And there's no guarantees that the link we provide to these references are going to still be up by the time you check them out.

A couple weeks ago, our office was sent an audio book to my attention titled, ‘Occupied, How the Human Mind is Overtaken Without Resistance.’ It comes from longtime online members, Mark and Jennifer Groener, who I was privileged to speak with on the phone. And I'm looking forward to them coming and visiting later this month and having you meet them and love on them, as you always do, people who visit.

If you'll kindly allow me to, I want to share with you just a few excerpts from their book. I've read it twice. First, I listened to it by way of the audio version, then I read the published version. [Quote]

Something has shifted inside a growing number of people. They do not feel like themselves anymore. They function; they work, speak, scroll, socialize, and sleep. From the outside, nothing appears broken. And yet beneath the surface is a persistent sense of foreignness, a feeling that something else has taken up residence in their mind.

Not every voice in the mind belongs to the person hearing it. The shift is felt long before it's understood. Something other than self is exerting influence over action. One of the most confusing aspects of occupation is how unevenly it is experienced. Some people know immediately that something's wrong. They feel it before they can explain it. Others live for years without that recognition. They adapt, cope, and explain things away. They do not feel right, but they also do not feel overtly invaded."

[Towards the end of the book, they masterfully and biblically provide the only way out, Jesus.] [Quote]

Jesus does not negotiate with opposition. He does not integrate it, analyze it, or coexist with it. He commands it. And what resists the human will recognize that command immediately. This is critical. People assume the effectiveness of Jesus depends on belief intensity. It does not. Authority is not generated by the believer. It is inherent. [Meaning already indwelling in the believer.]

Jesus [I can't say that name enough.] Jesus is not presented here as a belief system. He is presented as the authority that opposition recognizes." [We see it all through the Gospels, the demonic entities.] [They recognized who Jesus was before the people, the multitudes who were there even recognized who He was.]

Jesus is not a tool to be used. He is an authority to be aligned with. Jesus does not erase who you are. He restores who you are meant to be by removing what never belonged. Jesus does not enter this story as a philosophy, a lifestyle, or belief system. He enters as a rescuer, not working with the occupied will, but replacing the authority that displaced it. [Did you get that?]

Jesus is not one solution among many. He's the only one not operating from inside the occupied system. And that is why He alone can set you free. Jesus is not presented here as a concept, a philosophy, or a religious system. He is the Creator God — the One who made you, who understands the human will, because He designed it, and whose authority is higher than anything that opposes it. He does not negotiate with what destroys you. He does not coexist with it. He commands it. And what resists you recognizes His authority."

Boom, mic drop. "Whom the Son has set free is free indeed."

Pictured here are screenshots, not of a book, but a letter. And not from online members, but local members, Cory and Joelyn Arthur, who I also had the privilege of speaking with on the phone, actually a couple times, and then more recently I had the privilege of meeting with them.

And for reasons I think you'll understand when I share with you their daughter Chevelle's story, which they granted me permission to do — I do need to, before I read from portions of the letter, warn you that this is intensely emotional. It comes from a father and mother whose hearts are broken, and spirits are crushed by the sudden death of their 16-year-old Jesus-following and Jesus-loving daughter, recently, right here in Kaneohe. So I'll try to get through it. Bear with me if you wouldn't mind.

“On April 17, 2026, my husband, Cory, and myself spoke to you over the phone after I had emailed your office in need of spiritual guidance. My precious 16-year-old Jesus-loving daughter had died on Sunday, April 12, 2026, due to what we were certain of was a spiritual warfare attack on her. It came with no warning. A few days earlier you actually spoke on this spiritual warfare. I believe it was April 9th.

Our daughter not only loved Jesus, she lived her life daily, always living as Jesus did. We were just about to open letters she had left for my husband and myself, as well as her older brother, Chase, when the phone rang and you were on the other end. You were so kind to give your time and love through the immense grief and shock we were experiencing, even as you yourself are in great pain over the loss of your wife. I'm so grateful for you making that call to us. The timing was all God.

My daughter's story is one you should hear and proves beyond doubt how EXTREMELY CLOSE [All in caps] we are within a minute of Jesus' return. I believe my daughter's death at this time is being used to open many people's eyes and bring them to Jesus. And it's all due to who she was and how she lived her life daily. What happened to her left many in complete disbelief and confusion. They were forced to really think about what just happened.

As you are very aware, many people, as well as Christians, still have no idea what is going on around us and still live with their heads buried in the sand. The day my daughter died many people's eyes were opened and ears were opened. When my daughter died, we knew instantly something was very off. Not just because of the marks on her stomach that I know were not there the day before, even though medical personnel insisted they had to have been there for a long time.

Also, she did not check off any of the long list of boxes they would have liked to put her in as a reason for why she died the way she did. There was no drug problem, no alcohol problem, no bully problem, no school problem, no friend problem, no boyfriend, no eating disorder, no medication problem, no social media problem. She had no phone at age 16 of her own volition.

No medical issue, no sleeping disorder, no head injury from sports, no depression, no anxiety, not under any prescription medication. I could go on and on, but absolutely nothing. Not only did she not fit any of the boxes, she was very much the complete opposite of each box. Everyone who knew her, family, friends, teachers, school, faculty, and neighbors would all say the same thing. Everyone was left in complete disbelief and confusion.

When I found out she left letters, I knew she was going to tell us exactly what happened to her, because I know my daughter. That's exactly what she did. She went into great detail of what she described as a sudden attack that occurred out of the blue, then began to repeat nightly between the hours of 10 p.m. and 12:30 a.m.

She told us she did not know how or why this was happening to her. She described getting images and voices in her head [Voices in her head] that were very bad. She actually drew pictures of these images and left them for us to see.

[They were gracious enough to show me those pictures, those drawings that Chevelle drew.]
[Because I knew; I've seen them before.] [To say that they're demonic would be an understatement of understatements.]

She described going to bed nightly and being woken up by very bad, disturbing dreams that made no sense. She also woke up at times to something at the edge of her bed where her feet were. This would leave her paralyzed, scared, and just frozen in fear.

Prophecy Update

Pastor JD Farag

She would wake up many nights and could not determine if she was in a dream or if she was really awake. Our daughter never watched any scary movies, bad movies. She never watched TV, neither did she listen to the radio, and we only have specific Christian music. Based on her logs, we believe the initial attack started sometime in December 2025.

This was also the same time frame that she insisted on moving her big piano into her room. Her piano had always been in the living room, but suddenly she seemed very determined to fit it into her room, even though her room was quite small. Later in our letters we would understand why. She was trying to play her piano at night when these attacks occurred to block out the voices. That was her first attempt at trying to handle this on her own.

Chevelle was known for doing things on her own. She excelled at everything. She was probably thinking, if God hasn't helped me, what could my parents possibly do? She told her brother, Chase, in his letter, she did not want to tell him because she did not want to scare him. He already had struggles with his faith, and she didn't want to discourage him any further.

She told us how much she loved us, how grateful she was to us, how we were fantastic parents, we did nothing wrong, that God loved us, was very proud of us. She said she had a great life and loved her life, but she could not explain it. She just felt a strong feeling of hopelessness that night. She also said [Listen very carefully.] she felt like she was a disappointment to God. [Doubt.] And she was tired of dealing with what she was going through. You could hear the confusion [Who's the author of confusion?] [We'll talk about that Second Service.] and frustration in her, still stating that she doesn't know what's happening to her.

None of the letters she left sounded like someone who wanted to die. In fact, right up to the day prior, Chevelle was living life. Our family was very close. Chevelle was attached to my hip, just as you speak of your daughter and your wife. We talked about everything. I knew her five best friends very well, as well as their families. I spent years driving all these kids around and spent a great deal of time with them. We were all family.

Prophecy Update

Everyone is absolutely completely devastated, confused, and scared. She was known for her humbleness, her kindness, always wanting to help others, and always trying to bring people to Jesus. [Hmm.] [Sounds like she had a target on her back.]

She knew her Bible well, was very eager to learn more of God's word, and was always praying for her family and friends, and even teachers. She lived each day being a bright light. Chevelle was also very aware of the times we are living in. She saw evil increasing.

She had many plans, big and small, and showed no signs at all of someone being depressed or anxious or fighting anything. She hid this battle she was going through very well. I have no idea how she did so because many of the logs talked about not being able to go back to sleep after being woken up at night.

Our daughter's story is scary to many. Many cannot handle the truth. They try to suggest other reasons, but there are none. We have a hard time talking to people who refuse to accept what we are telling them. Therefore, we are so grateful you called us when you did. We needed to speak with someone who understands, who believes our daughter's story, and wouldn't look at us like we are crazy.

We know your heart is broken and, as you said, sipping from the same cup of sorrow as we are. We completely understand this. We are grateful for all the truth you have spoken and continue to speak each and every week. Thank you for allowing me to share our daughter's story with you.

There is something else you would find interesting. None of us have been jabbed. However, my daughter had a nasal swab done for school, and there is an interesting story behind that as well. I believe it is actually connected to what happened to her.

The day she had this done, our car was the only car sitting and waiting and waiting, while car after car filled with people came, got swabbed, then immediately left. However, our car sat waiting and waiting, along with another car. And I watched the people in that car as they appeared to be looking at the computer and talking among themselves.

I believe now they saw she was not jabbed, as well as us, after looking up our information in their system. I believe that is why they took so long to get us — get to us. I believe that swab had something in it. This is how I believe my daughter was attacked. Yours in Christ, Cory and Joelyn Arthur.”

Give me just a moment here. We're going to go further into, again, like I mentioned, the difference between demonic oppression, because this is a born-again Christian. And we're going to talk about the difference between demonic oppression, possession, even mental illness, the latter of two — the latter two of which Jesus was falsely accused of. Did you know that? So again, that'll be Second Service.

But this brings us full circle to the connection between brain technology and Bible prophecy, especially in light of how chilling, grieving, and sobering what we just read was, and everything before it. I'm still researching more on this, but there's still so much I don't know about this. But here's what I am learning, and what I do know. It's like what I titled an Update a while back: 'It's Too Unbelievable To Be Believable.'

So if you try to tell people, “Hey, I'm hearing voices” immediately — and people are following me — that's gang stalking, by the way — That last part of the letter, that car; that is gang stalking. You're being followed. And you know what?

Maybe somebody needs to hear this. If you have somebody in your life, a family, a friend, a loved one, and they are telling you that somebody is following them, and they're hearing voices in their head, I beg you, I beg you, please don't label them as being a paranoid schizophrenic, because they're not. And they are being followed, and they are hearing voices in their head.

And the reason why they won't come to you and tell you is because of the exact way that you're going to respond. You're going to think they're crazy. And that's exactly what the perpetrators of this unspeakable evil intend to accomplish.

Nobody's going to believe them. They're going to think they're crazy. And we're going to hide under that for our plausible deniability, because they never trace it back. Who's going to believe? They're schizo, man. They've got multiple personality disorder, bipolar disorder, schizoaffective disorder, disorder-disorder.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

How about this one? Maybe they're telling you the truth about the reality about what's really happening. And it's very real. Please don't dismiss them. I beg you, please. All right. You know what? What time is it? Is it still Sunday? Okay, sorry. No, I don't — I just can't — I don't have any sense of time anymore. And that's my story anyway. I'm still sticking with it.

Can — we have to end the livestream. Wait. It's — don't look at your watches. I'll take care of that. Second Service starts at 10:45, right, the worship? And it's 10:14. So I'm supposed to be done right now? Wait, what? Okay. So we're going to end the livestream. Okay. Thank you. Bye. Sorry. Sorry.

What you're looking at here is a screenshot of a downloadable, 125-page PDF file, which we'll, as we always do, provide a link to. It's a lawsuit demanding a jury trial filed in the United States District Court for Southern Texas against the Attorney General of the United States, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a.k.a. FBI, the Department of Homeland Security, and specific agents within those organizations.

It's a second amended complaint for declaratory and injunctive relief and petition for damages. I've been following this case. I want to quote verbatim from the actual — and you can download it if you want. I read through all 125 pages of it. And then I went back through it, and I highlighted the ones that I thought were pertinent. And then I had to abbreviate it; otherwise, we would be here till the rapture. So, but we're not. So here's what I've got.

[Quote] “Technological [This is the plaintiff] technological advances have been incorporated into illegal organized stalking and surveillance, including the use of microwave weapons for inflicting physical and psychological torture that ends up causing the targeted individual [TI] the conditions known as Havana syndrome, remote neural monitoring, and voice-to-skull [V2K] auditory symptoms, as well as microwave burns.

For decades, an impenetrable wall of “plausible deniability” camouflaged perpetrators' continuous crimes against targeted individuals. The program's sophistication prevented victims from identifying the abuses and tortures perpetrated against them and from articulating the mechanisms by which these abuses and tortures were being deployed and executed. Any target who identified or attempted to report the abuses and torture was accused of being [Wait for it.] mentally ill.

Rather than commencing investigations into these serious crimes and prosecuting the perpetrators for their criminal conduct, federal, state, and tribal law enforcement agencies colluded, [Conspired] to institutionalize its victims and declare them mentally ill or incompetent, unfit to pursue trial.”

To the question of whether or not the continued use of this demonic brain technology, and that's what it is, will be fully executed in full measure in the seven-year Tribulation, fulfilling Bible prophecy, chiefly in the Book of Revelation, the answer is absolutely yes, unquestionably, undoubtedly, undoubtedly, exactly.

How do you get there? Controlling the human mind and forcing the human behavior of the masses is tantamount to Bible prophecy, which thankfully is written with specificity. We covered this last week. It's the false prophet, the second beast in Revelation 13, that forces, controls. They can control behavior. You think right now they just — they track your behavior, track and trace.

No, that's — wow, you need to update your software Bible prophecy program from 2020 to the 2026 version. Because in that time, quantum computing and artificial intelligence, both of which come from the pit of hell, satanic knowledge that was given to man in exchange for their soul and their worship, it got married. That is not a marriage made in heaven. That is a marriage made in hell, and it will send masses to hell.

Because now you've got artificial, sentient intelligence that is actually so intelligent — it's more intelligent than any human — almost every human combined — that got married to quantum computing, which can calculate equations and solve problems mathematically — in 3.2 seconds — that took the fastest computer in the world 3.2 years to do. 3.2 years. 3.2 seconds.

And you want to take that technology and put it with this mind control technology, this directed energy weapon technology that's been around since the '50s and '60s? Whoo! Radio frequencies? No need. We're going to use microwave through the air.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

We're going to talk about this next week. He's the prince of the power of the air. The voices, V2K, are sent through the air using the frequencies directly into your brain. Take the mark. Take the mark. Take the mark. Is that too spooky? This is why every week I say, scream, yell, if there was ever a time-driven urgency to get Jesus to people, and people to Jesus, that time is right now. Right now.

How? That was the bad news. Here's the good news. By way of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the good news of salvation and eternal life paid for in full by Jesus Christ. And I'll just — by the way, you'll be happy to know that I've been abbreviating this even more. Well, when you say “abbreviated,” that's relative. When you say “brief,” that's a relative term. Okay. Fine. Watch me now.

These ABCs, not a formula, not a magic, you know, thing, not a, you know, thing you have to do. No, it's just a tool to equip you with. The A's the obstacle, the B's central and essential, and the C's evidential. It's childlike simple. The A is for admit or acknowledge that you're a sinner in need of the Savior. And the reason this is the obstacle is because the average person will say, “Well, I'm a good person.”

Well, you may be a good person, but you'll never be good enough. And Romans 3:10 tells us why. “There is no one good or righteous, not even one.” Save one, Jesus the Christ.

Romans 3:23 takes it further, explaining why it is that no one's good. And it's because “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

So you know what this means, right? It means that I'm guilty as charged. I've broken the law, and there's going to be a penalty in the sentencing phase. And Romans 6:23 tells us what the sentence is, and it's the death sentence. “For the wages of sin is death, but [The good news is] the gift of God, is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Now, don't waste too much time if you've got somebody that's not quite there yet. Maybe you're only there to water. Maybe you were there only to plant. Somebody else will get the harvest. They'll get the credit for the sale. Sorry. But you had a role in it. You're still going to get a commission for it. But just be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading when you're leading somebody to Jesus.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Because that obstacle has to be overcome before you can go any further. And once it is overcome, then here comes the Holy Spirit as the tutor, schoolmaster, takes us, the lawbreaker, by the hand to the only law fulfiller, the Savior. Which is why the B is central and essential, believing in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord.

This is Romans 10:9. It says, “If you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, you will be saved.” “For God so loved the world... that whosoever will believe in Him [God's only begotten Son] [They] wouldn't perish but [They would] have everlasting life.”

What do I have to do? Believe. Believe, meaning put your trust in the person of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins. And He imputes His righteousness, replacing your filthy rags self-righteousness.

Now, if the Lord should so privilege you to overcome the A obstacle and get through to the B, which is central and essential, the result — this is not something you have to — none of this is anything you manufacture. You don't push it. The Holy Spirit leads it. Nobody comes to Christ unless the Holy Spirit leads them.

In fact, truth be made known, you're only making the introduction. You didn't win them to Christ. I mean, I know that's the lingo. And I know there's biblical support for that terminology. But think about it. You might have led them to the Holy Spirit, but you just introduced them. And then it's the Holy Spirit that leads them to Jesus Christ.

And what will be the fruit from that root? The evidence? You will know them by their fruit. What's the root? Don't know. Got to wait for the fruit, because a good tree won't bear bad fruit, bad tree won't bear good fruit. So, oh look, there's a mango. It's a mango tree, told you. I know the root by the fruit. It's evidenced by the fruit. The root is evidenced by the fruit. And so too is confessing with your mouth.

What comes out of the mouth is evidence of what has come into the heart. Jesus said in both Matthew 12:34 and 6:45, Luke 6:45, “Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.” You want to know what's in somebody's heart? Because you can't see the heart, only God can. We look at the outward appearance. Just wait to hear what comes out of their mouth. You'll know what's in their heart.

Prophecy Update
The Brain Technology and Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD Farag

Listen carefully to the heart-mouth connection in Romans 10:9. “If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.”

And lastly, Romans 10:13, seals the deal. “All who call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Why would I call upon the name of the Lord or confess with my mouth, “Jesus is Lord”? If it's coming out of my mouth, it's already come into my heart. Are you getting that? That's not something you can force. In fact, forcing it sometimes creates the very thing you're hoping to avoid because it just has the person digging their heels in deeper. They put up a wall. Give the Holy Spirit elbow room.

I wish I could stand before you and say to you that, you know, that's what I always do. It's not. To this day, even from this pulpit, there's something innate within all of us that thinks that, hey, the onus is on us. It's not. No pressure. Aren't you glad? All we got to do is broadcast the seed, like the farmer. Upon which soil the seed falls, that's not on us. Broadcast, spread. If it falls on hard ground, what? You're responsible for that? No, the only thing you're responsible for is broadcasting it, spreading it as a watchman, sounding the alarm, the warning, warning people.

If you don't, Ezekiel 33, the blood's on your hands. Paul took it pretty far. He said, “Whoa, a curse be unto me if I didn't preach the Gospel.” That's pretty heavy. That's weighty. Okay. We're almost done. Thank you for your patience.

Today's “But God” testimony will be just one of, I mean, numerous emails we received after exposing this unspeakable evil and these deeds of darkness last week, V2K, weapons against TI's targeted individuals, gang stalking, remote neural monitoring, viewing. This is so demonic.

And are we surprised? I was surprised. I mean, I knew that — you have to understand that a targeted individual, they have to change their phone number often. They have to move, relocate often. They can't — they have to stay off the grid, as they say, for sometimes long periods of time. The electronic harassment is just so evil and debilitating and destroying because that's what the enemy does. He seeks to steal, kill, and destroy. People's lives are destroyed.

So they, at great risk, send an email into our office after last week's Update. I was taken back by — I knew we would get some. I didn't realize there would be that many with those — that many harrowing stories, true stories of what they've gone through and are still going through. So I'm going to, out of an abundance of caution for this sister's protection, keep her name anonymous.

She writes, “Dear Pastor JD, I just want to email you to thank you from the depth of my being for the Prophecy Update about everything concerning MKUltra. I'm a survivor of human experimenting, mind control, and organized and ritualistic abuse by an international, MKUltra-focused network, which, during the days that I was victimized, went under the name of Project Bluebird. [Remember, I told you last week that MKUltra has 60-sub projects, ops, under its umbrella.]

I am still [This is heartbreaking] to this day, fighting for my life, because the network keeps attacking me in so many ways, including the technology you described. Even though I ran away 10 years ago, my heart came home to my Savior, Jesus Christ. I don't want to go into detail, but I just wanted you to know that we, as survivors, are out there. And I want to encourage you to please keep exposing this truth on our behalf and for God's glory.

What you are doing here is incredibly important. The church needs to know the truth. I am praying for you because I know that exposing these evil deeds of darkness comes with resistance. [You have no idea.] [If you only knew.] [But thank you.] [And that's how she ends.] Thank you for your courage. Thank you for your voice! With love and every blessing.”

Okay. Kaponono, come on up. Stand up. Thank you for — I didn't do — I was going to say too bad, but I probably should say as bad. Let's pray.

Father, You know my heart, and I know You love me and You know how I love You. Oh, how I love You, Lord. All I want to do is that which You've called me to, to be faithful, to not cower or falter or wince, but to boldly continue to speak the truth, to set captives free, to shine light, to expose the evil darkness. And as long as You give me breath, Lord, I will keep my hands to the plow of the calling You have on my life.

Because if You can use a donkey, in Numbers 22, You can use a fool such as I, choose the foolish like myself to confound the wise, all for Your glory. So please, Lord, take what I've been faithful to share, boldly. Yes, it was lengthy.

But take it now and use it only for Your glory. For those targeted individuals out there that are suffering and fighting for their life as this precious sister, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, set them free. Break them free. Punish this evil. And for any who don't yet know You, Jesus; come to You, Jesus; put their trust in You, Jesus, I pray that today would be the day of their salvation. In Jesus' name, Amen.
