Pastor JD

KAPONO: Thank You, Lord. Would you join me as we pray? Oh loving, gracious, almighty, and merciful Heavenly Father. Thank You, Lord. And oh, how we need You, Lord. And we need You this morning. So many things going on, Lord, that You already revealed to us. Lord, in prophecy, the more sure word of Bible prophecy, Lord. So Lord, would we heed, and when we see these signs, Lord, would we look to You? Would You give us clarity in these times of confusion, Lord?

For Pastor JD, Lord, give him the strength to deliver the message that he's given by You, Lord. We thank You so much for providing us with a pastor, pastors, Lord, who follow and teach Your word. So we praise Your name. We give You all the glory. We ask this in Your name only. We pray, Jesus. We say Amen.

PASTOR JD: Amen and amen. And good morning and welcome. So glad you're here. You can be seated. Those of you online, we're so glad that you're joining us as well. We're going to get right to it.

This is the first of two Sunday morning services that we devote to our weekly Bible Prophecy Updates. And then Second Service, which will be livestreamed, for those of you online, at 11:15 a.m. Hawaii time is the Second Service, and the Second Service is a sermon. And the sermon is a verse-by-verse study through the word of God.

And our current verse-by-verse study through the word of God is now in Revelation Chapter 20, verses 7 through 10. We're in Revelation, almost reaching the end of Revelation. And then I think the rapture will happen, and we won't have to...

So now I've titled, and this is, I know, kind of an interesting title, for lack of a better word. 'What I Need To Know About Why I Let Myself Be Deceived.' And what we're going to do is see in the text the sources of deception, God bringing an end to deception, so that I can know about deception, which will, in turn, explain why I let myself fall into deception So that'll be Second Service. Those of you that are watching by way of YouTube or Facebook, we encourage you to go to JDFarag.org. And with that, let's get to it.

So I've titled today's Update by framing it as a question once again, which is this. 'Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?' I'm sure you heard the reports yesterday that for the first time in history, the US launched strikes against Iran. And for those of you, those of us that are students of Bible prophecy, we know that this is a prophetic game changer.

Prophecy Update

And this is what I want to do in the time that we have together today. If you'll indulge me, I want to get the problem out of the way first. What problem? The problem is that there are those who don't know, are not ready for what they do know, don't really want to know, and/or sadly, have not yet put their trust in Jesus so they can know. See, when you're a born-again believer, you see the world through a whole different lens, through the lens of eternity and Bible prophecy. And that's a good thing. Don't take that for granted.

Now, one more problem, as if there weren't enough problems, before we go any further, it is of paramount importance that we delineate between the "know" and the "ready." Let me explain. I may know, but that doesn't always mean that I'll be ready. It's this, along with really everything that's happening, in concert with the plethora of Bible prophecies that was the impetus for today's Update.

Simply put, so that we would not only know, but also be ready. And that's the question before us today. Here's the thing. And by the way, this is parenthetical. And this is just me. Just let me have this one. It's a personal thing when I hear Bible teachers say that this was predicted in the Bible. No. I'm sorry. It wasn't predicted because see, to say the word "predicted" implies that the jury's out on whether or not it will actually be fulfilled as it was predicted. No, no, no, no, no, no. It's not a prediction. It's a prophecy.

Now, why is that important? Well, if we want to solve this problem, problems, we need to understand that these are not predictions that God just, you know, (Ommmm) made a prediction. Now let's wait and see if it happens the way God predicted it. No. God lives outside of time as the God of time.

And He sees the beginning from the end, the end from the beginning, and already knows, our all-knowing God, omniscient God, He already knows how it's going to end. That's not a prediction. That's omniscience. He's already seen the end of the movie. He's seen how it ends. You know how when somebody's seen something you haven't seen, and they're further into that Netflix binge series than you are? I'm not looking at anybody when I say that. You want them to stop because you don't want them to, in a classic spoiler alert, ruin it. Well, God's not ruining anything. He's telling us everything, at least that our finite minds can contain because He's already seen the end. Bible prophecy is history in advance. That's gonna come up again shortly, or momentarily, better said.

So our all-knowing God, who knows the end from the beginning — and don't miss this — in His unfathomable love for us — that's the only explanation — foretells in His word what happens in the end to us. Why? Because He loves us so much. And He wants us to know. And He wants us to be ready.

This is why Scripture is replete with prophecy about the end. I don't mean to — well, the Apostle Paul said this word, so I'll just quote the Apostle Paul. “Don't be ignorant.” I'm not saying that. Paul said that. Have you ever thought of it like this? God doesn't want us to be ignorant, certainly deceived, or spiritually asleep. So He tells us ahead of time what's going to happen. Why? Because again, He wants us to be aware, ready, watching, looking with great, not just anticipation, but even expectation.

Here's what I'm hoping to accomplish today. And it's only by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit. It's to ready and steady the saved and also reach the lost. That's what my hope is. Here's what my prayer is. That eyes will see, hearts will receive, ears will hear. And all would take heed to the warnings from God in the word of God. God's warnings in God's word are happening now. Would you agree? And that's how. They're happening now, and that's how we can know. And God wants us to know. Otherwise, why would well-nigh one third of the Bible be prophecy? He wants us to know because He wants us to be ready for what the Bible says happens next.

I know I kind of harped on this last week, but it's not what Pastor JD says, or so-and-so says, or what they're saying. No. What does God say? Well, let me draw your attention to John's Gospel, Chapter 13, verse 19. Jesus is speaking. “I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe that [I Am, the I Am] I am He.”

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

Now, this is for those, the many, really multitudes over the ages that have come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ because of Bible prophecy. And Jesus, and by the way, no other religious writing even dares to do this: Prophecy future events with 100% accuracy. So only God can do that. And He says, I'm going to tell you now, prior, you'll be in the know. You're going to know what happens before it happens, so when it happens, you'll believe. I mean, that'll do it.

He says the same thing in a different way in the next chapter. John 14:29, "I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe."

Here's God, our loving Heavenly Father, who loves us so much that He would send His only begotten Son to die for us instead of us, that whosoever would believe, put their trust in Him for the forgiveness of sin would not perish in hell for all eternity [By the way, that's next, Second Service] [You have to come] but have everlasting life instead.

See, God wants us to know, so that we're not caught off guard. He wants to tell us the future. See, there's that saying, you know, we don't know the future, but we know the One who holds the future. I'm going to revise it in the JDV. I know the future. Oh, you do, do you? How do you know the future? Because I know the One who knows and holds the future. And it's even better than that. He's told me in His word the future. So yeah, I know the future. I know what happens next. You do? Yeah, right here. That's what's going to happen.

So when the world, like we talked about last week, and I won't take too long on this, when the world says, "This is World War III," well, that's what the world says. We need to know what the Bible says. It doesn't say that. Does that come as a surprise to you? No, the Bible says that this will be the time when they will say, call for peace and security. And then, as a woman travails in labor, it comes suddenly. What comes suddenly? Destruction. And they will not escape.

I know the future, and it's not war. It's a false peace. The closest thing I can get to World War III, which is really not even a war, which we're going to talk a little bit about today, is Armageddon at the end of the seven-year Tribulation, when God brings all the armies of the earth to the Valley of Jezreel, and the blood is up to the horse's bridle. And the reason I don't really even see it as much of a battle is because Jesus comes, and He's on the Mount of Olives, and He splits it. Cool!

Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

Oh, we're going to be there, by the way. And He enters through the Eastern Gate at His Second Coming with us, us with Him, and then He goes to this so-called battle, and He just says, "Poof." That's a very, very loose paraphrase. I mean, He just, He just ends them, devours them. So it's not a, there's not even going to be a battle here.

Now, this is for those who have yet to believe. But what about those of us who already believe? Luke 21:28. You should have this memorized in seven different languages. "Now when these things begin to happen, [What things?] [The things that are happening now that He told us before they would happen that they would happen, and now we're seeing them begin to happen] "Now, when these things begin to happen, [Hunker down] [Buckle up] [No, that's not what it says] [It says] look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draws near."

That's not the Second Coming. That's the rapture. In other words, it's starting to happen. "Lord? Hello!" "I know! I'm the one who told you in the first place. That's how you know." "Well, it's really starting to heat up, rev up." By the way, that's the Greek word tachos, not tacos. Sorry if you're hungry. Which is where we get the English word for tachometer. It's a measurement of a fixed time and the revolutions per minute, which is the fixed time. And when Jesus says, "Behold, I come quickly," He's saying, behold, I come at a time when things are revving up.

I mean, we're redlining, man. You car guys know this terminology, this verbiage. Ladies, let us have this. If you — 6000 RPMs is like the red line. And if you go over that — and interesting, the tachometers go to 8000 RPMs. Don't do that. You'll blow up the engine. Are you seeing the connection here? So we're not going to blow up. We're going to go up. Someone's going to make a T-shirt and a cup and a hat.

So let me sum it up real quick. We'll move on real quick, keyword: quick, quickly. For the believer, we look up because we already know and believe and are ready. For the nonbeliever, they're looking at this thing going, (Gasping) Wait a minute. Isn't there something in the Bible about this? Oh, I'm so glad you asked. As a matter of fact, there is, and then some and more. God told us this would happen. And then that's when they believe in Jesus, put their trust in Jesus.

Prophecy Update

Okay, now, bear with me. To the question of what the Bible says happens next, I have to paint the canvas with a very broad brush in what I'll refer to as a summary of seven. First, or next, is the pre-Tribulation rapture.

Second, two, the Antichrist will then be revealed.

Number three, the seven-year Tribulation begins, not with the rapture or revelation of the Antichrist, but with the fulfillment of the prophecy in Daniel 9:27, where we have specificity of this strengthening, ekbir in Hebrew and Arabic, of a covenant for one 'seven.' That's the seven-year Tribulation. That's when the clock starts ticking.

And number four, the worship and mark of the beast is mandated. I use that word deliberately, and I think you know why.

Number five, the battle of Armageddon at the end, as we just talked about, at the end of the seven-year Tribulation, which is not really much of a battle.

Number six is the second coming of Jesus Christ. And by the way, I love how one said it. In the rapture, the pre-Tribulation rapture, Jesus comes for us. At the Second Coming, Jesus comes with us. So we're going to be there. We've been studying this in Revelation.

In fact, number seven, we're studying right now in Chapter 20. It's the Millennial Reign, the Kingdom Age, where we rule and reign with Jesus Christ for 1000 years on earth.

Now, that was a very broad brush, I know, and I realize there are many more prophecies in between this summary of seven, but I just wanted to give you a broader view of the bigger picture.

In the last two Updates, we did a deep dive into some key prophecies like 1 and 2 Thessalonians, as well as others, that fill in the blanks and provide the specific details.

Interestingly, Paul's first and second epistles and the prophecies of Jesus in the Gospels are going to come up again, but in a way that allows us to see behind the proverbial curtain. What do you mean by that? What I mean by that is we see what's happening now, which we were told would happen before it happened. But what we don't see is what's going on behind the scenes, behind the curtain, and perhaps more importantly, how it all connects together.

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

So if you'll kindly allow me to, I'll simply yet boldly speak the truth in love, which, with respect to the skeptic, is irrefutable proof that what the Bible says happens next will happen next. This is the truth, and the proof of the reliability, the reality, the infallibility of God's word. And it comports with and lines up perfectly prophetically. You know that everything that's happening right now and what will happen next is going to be perfectly according to God's prophetic schedule?

Could you imagine if God was, like, caught off guard and surprised? What? They did what? When was this? No, He's not just omniscient, He's omnipresent and omnipotent. So He's all-powerful, all-knowing, all-present and He knew before. He knew you before you were formed in your mother's womb. Is that too much? Is it too early for that? I know it's hard in the finite to wrap your mind around something like that in the infinite. But that's the reality.

I'm trusting that the Holy Spirit will use this to lead the lost to the truth but also encourage the saved with the truth. Because I know, and I won't look at anybody. I don't know this firsthand. I had someone say to me, "Who told you?"

It's like, "What? Nobody told me anything."

"No, but when you said that, how did you know that about me?"

I was like, "Oh, no, you got the wrong person. That's the person of the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, God, the Holy Spirit. He knew about it, and that's why He had me go off my notes just for you — it's your fault — to say what I said in the way that I said it because God was speaking to you through me. I'm just the mouthpiece. And what a big mouthpiece I am, right?"

And God, in His love because see, He sees the heart. He knows the heart. Man looks only on the outward appearance. And by the way, you all look marvelous today. Just so you know.

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

But I know that there are many who are really going through it, man, hurting, struggling, the trials, the struggles, the pain, the suffering. Let me just say, and I shared this, I think, at a prayer meeting night one night that when it comes to trials, have you ever thought of it like God could be allowing that trial in your life to prepare you for the next?

In other words, you may not get everything all explained in this life, but it'll all make sense in eternal life. I have this, and you'll forgive me for the way I think. Pray for me. But I just picture us before the throne worshiping, singing, "Holy, holy, holy."

And then we get taken on a — I know this is weird — just let me have it — we go on a tour, we get taken on a tour, and we're shown all of these things. No eye has seen. No ear has heard. And we're looking, and we're going, (Gaping) Oh, now I get it. It's that saying, I wish I would have known then what I know now. Well, you can't know now. You have to wait for then. Because you're finite and fallen.

And even if God wanted to, and believe you me, He would love nothing more than to answer all of your "why" questions. But He can't. Because we would just have more "why" questions. And then He's going to try to — it's like trying to explain quantum physics to a two-year-old. How's that going to work out for you?

So I hope that the saved will be encouraged, and the lost will be reached. I only humbly ask that you hear me out as I go through this with the hope that the Holy Spirit will bring much-needed understanding of this. Because if and when that happens, then the Holy Spirit, who Jesus, in John 6:44 says, "Will be raised up to draw us to Him on the last day."

This is the goal because by the Holy Spirit, we can know what the Bible says will happen, which serves as the catalyst through the Holy Spirit to be ready for what the Bible says will happen. Did you get that? It's the knowing and being ready. So it's with this understanding that I would like to proceed with the answering of the question before us today.

Are you ready for what the Bible says happens next? And we're going to end the livestream on YouTube and Facebook in order to do that. Thank you. Let's start with this Newsweek report on June 9th with the headline "Mass Looting Breaks Out as LA Riots Intensify."

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

Why? Well, when I reference news media like this, please know that it's all a textbook script of the Hegelian Dialectic propaganda to manufacture and create the crisis, leading to the reaction of chaos and disorder.

This, in order that those deceived under the banner of demanding “law and order,” will accept, some gladly, the final solution. In this case, said final solution is “martial law” vis-a-vis AI governance, total surveillance, and mandated compliance. See, we see what's happening now. And we see the chaos that ensues. But what we don't see is what's behind the curtain that's orchestrating it.

Doubtless you know about the “No Kings” “protest” last Saturday, June 14th, which has been reported to have had some five million in attendance. It is rumored that the next one will be on the 4th of July. But according to Axios this last Tuesday, the next No Kings protest organizers announced that it's July 17th. I'm highlighting emphasizing the word “next.” And I, since we're not on social media, I'm going to refresh your memory and use this word “next” in a different context. That kind of rhymed a little bit, didn't it?

The next pandemic. Oh wait, there's a next pandemic? Why is it going to be a next pandemic? Because we have to create another crisis of a pandemic. This is, and this is why I'm pointing this out. It's another component of the aforementioned Hegelian Dialectic propaganda bringing in the age-old tactic — I like the King James on this one — wiles of the devil — you gotta say with a roar in your voice — of “divide and conquer.” Jesus said, “A house divided cannot stand.” A house divided cannot stand. So how do you conquer? Divide it. That's how you conquer.

Enter Palantir and one Peter Thiel, who, along with Alex Karp as the CEO and co-founder, being deeply involved in and having been given unprecedented power over everything, and I mean everything, everywhere in the world: Military operations, government operations, the pharmaceutical industry, corporate institutions, financial institutions.

And that doesn't even scratch the surface, as they say. This is why I'm using the metaphor of “pulling back the curtain,” because when we do, we'll see and know and confirm that what the Bible says is happening now is happening, and then, by extension, we'll also know what will happen next. I'll first quote from Palantir's home page, then briefly expound on it.

Prophecy Update

Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?

Pastor JD

Quote, "Our software powers real-time, AI-driven decisions in critical government and commercial enterprises... from the factory floors to the front lines."

By the way, we have all these links. We include them. Our amazing team that transcribes and translates into other languages, we include all of these links. They're downloadable. Now, allow me to expound. On its face it may merely be seen as the advancing technology of artificial intelligence, when in fact this is what the Bible says is satanic intelligence. Whoa. How do you get that out of that? Well, here's how I get there.

Peter Thiel has built [Built] an AI system with humans' data and humans' DNA that they collect, compile, confirm, and connect, which leads to all being mandated to comply. Now, I ask you rhetorically, maybe, is that not what Revelation 13 says? It's beginning to happen in order to be ready for what the Bible says will happen.

Well, what does the Bible say will happen in Revelation 13? Everything will be centralized, controlled. Surveilled. Monitored. Policed. Forced. Why does it have to be centralized? Because Satan is not omnipresent. He cannot be all places at one time. So He has to get all things in one place at one time. That's how it becomes Satanic intelligence, which I believe and have long believed that was downloaded to human souls who sold their souls, in effect partaking of the Tree of the Knowledge [And intelligence] of Good and Evil.

So I made the mistake — actually, I shouldn't have done this. But I was kind of going through some of my archived Prophecy Updates from years ago. I don't know why I did that. I don't know if I was traveling down memory lane, or I just wanted to, you know, punish myself, or what. But I came across, a statement that I made often, and that is that the Antichrist does not set it up. When he's revealed, all he does is flick on the switch. And so, behind the scenes, they've been setting this up so it's at the ready, plug-and-play, or in our case, plug-and-pray.

What if I told you, better, provide evidence to you that this has already happened, is now happening, and will continue to happen? Palantir's AI real-time surveillance and governance is involved in everything. By the way, make no mistake about it. It was involved in the U.S. strike on Iran last night, as I'll provide the evidence for in a moment. Everything from protests, to the wars, to the so-called "vaccines," and everything in between So in the spirit of truth, I'll provide the proof, and I'll do so with just a few headlines, which is damning evidence that Bible prophecy foretells will happen, will happen next. You ready? Let's go.

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

Bloomberg: 'Thiel's Palantir, Israel Agree Strategic Partnership for Battle Tech.' Come on. Yahoo finance: 'Palantir lands $480-million-dollar Department of Defense contract for AI system.'

It should be noted that the CIA was the initial start-up investor of Palantir and is joined at the hip with all the three-letter agencies. You know what I'm talking about? Well, there's one four-letter agency, DARPA. I'm just going to leave it at that because for those of you who understand and have wisdom, you know information is just information.

Knowledge is information, but wisdom is the application of that information. And those who research these things, as the proverb say, searcheth out the matter. Well, it's a fact, irrefutable, not beyond a reasonable doubt, beyond any doubt, particularly the CIA, Central Intelligence Agency.

Economic Times: 'Palantir to create vast federal data platform tying together millions of Americans' private records.' [Have a good afternoon]

The Middle East Eye: 'US: Palantir expanding immigrant surveillance tools for ICE to the tune of $30 million dollars.' Defense Scoop: 'Palantir wins $178 million-dollar Army deal for TITAN artificial intelligence-enabled ground stations.'

It gets worse. Bloomberg: 'Peter Thiel's Palantir wins role in $823-million-dollar government contract.' Yahoo News: 'R1 Launches 'R37': An AI Lab to Transform Healthcare.' [Ha-ha!] [I knew it] Financial Performance [You see the connection?] in Exclusive Partnership with Palantir.'

This one comes from Palantir's own press release. 'Palantir Selected for $90-million-dollar, five-year HHS [Department of Health and Human Services] Contract Vehicle.'

Fedscoop: 'CDC [Oh, no!] [Center for Disease Control] awards Palantir consolidated [Listen] disease surveillance [Tracking and tracing] [Can I just refresh your memory?] a contract worth $443 million dollars.'

The CDC? Oh, man. What do they have up their sleeve? That's a pun. They want you to roll up your sleeve. Okay. All this is the "All Information for H.R.238 Health Technology Act of 2025" that's published on Congress.gov. And I'm quoting. "To amend the Federal Food, Drug, [There's another three letters, FDA] and Cosmetic act to [Watch this] clarify that artificial intelligence and machine learning technologies can qualify as a practitioner eligible to prescribe drugs ...and for other purposes."

Oh. How — perfect timing. So wait a minute. So day one it was announced. Half a trillion dollars to build AI infrastructures. And then we had — not Larry Ellison. What's the other guy's name? Sam Altman gets up behind the podium and say that with AI, we — because we already have your DNA — can manufacture a vaccine within 48 hours specific to your type of cancer. Oh! Oh. No! And then this Act of '25. So now AI can prescribe so-called vaccines.

Okay, Pastor, why are you connecting all of this to the prophecies in the 13th chapter of Revelation, which is during the seven-year Tribulation? Here's why. Because this is exactly what the Bible says happens next. And here's the thing. It's beginning to already happen now. What's already happening now? A one-world centralized everything by way of real time AI surveillance and governance.

Now, I want you to think this through with me. Absent this, the AI centralized, one-world government with its biodigital economy, would be unable to verify or qualify those who do or don't have the mark to buy or sell.

Let me say the same thing in a different way. You have to have something in real time that can make the determination, the qualification, the verification: Yes, they have the mark. They can buy or sell. Well, it's already in place, and they're building it up and getting it ready because that's exactly what the Bible said would happen. It's beginning to happen.

I'm going to show you this screenshot from the Brownstone Institute. It was a publication, and I really want to again kindly ask you, humbly ask you to take note of the connection here.

The World Health Organization [WHO, another three letters] treaty, [Which we already covered] is tied to a global digital passport and ID system. Add to this Thiel naming Palantir after Tolkien's "palantiri" or magical orbs used in the "Lord of the Rings" trilogy allowing its possessor to "see anything happening in the world at any time." [Real time] [The link will be there]

In July 2021, Benjamin Gutman, of George Washington University, published an article titled, "Palantir's Surveillance Empire: A Story of American Policing, Patriotism, and Profit."

At the end of the publication, he references an October 22nd, 2020 Wall Street Journal article titled, "Palantir to Help U.S. Track Covid-19 Vaccines." [Why?] [Because they could] [They had AI] They could track and trace and monitor and surveil.

By the way, these — I don't have time to — I won't — but you already know. We've talked about it. Facial recognition. They already have it. They already have your face and your facial recognition. Well, that's the forehead. What about the palm, the hand? No, they got that too. That's the forehead.

Are you okay? All right. Well, I hope so because this is where it gets very, very interesting. And we're going to go full circle back to Paul's epistles and Jesus's prophecies in the Gospels. What follows are quotes from Peter Thiel. Because wouldn't you want to know who this guy is, what his beliefs are that is awarded billions and billions of dollars from all the three-letter agencies, not least, the CDC? I do.

Well, he was interviewed, two-part interview with and by the Hoover Institution. And listen to the title. It's on the screen. "Apocalypse Now? [No, this is not a movie] Peter Thiel on Ancient Prophecies and Modern Tech."

All right. After the host quotes Matthew 24:35 and 36 [Where Jesus said, 'No man knows the day or the hour'] Thiel responds with; "We don't know the day and the hour, but maybe we can guess the century..."

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

The host responds saying, “So obviously, we'll come in a moment to the analysis, to the signs of the end times.” Thiel responds, “It was perhaps downstream from Christianity, if the promise of Christianity is a physical resurrection, then science could offer that too. It was a possibility, maybe it was a rival to Christianity. You don't need Christianity if we can do it through science.”

The host then quotes 2 Thessalonians 2:6-7, highlighting the Greek word for the Restrainer, “katechon.” Thiel’s response, “Yeah, as you said, it's a rather mysterious concept... But I would always maybe go back to the apocalyptic specter would be Antichrist or Armageddon. ...there is a lot in this runaway science technology that's pushing us towards something like Armageddon.

And then there is the natural pushback on this, we will avoid Armageddon by having a one-world state that has real teeth, real power. And the biblical term for that is the Antichrist. And the Christian intuition I have is, [I'm quoting only] I don't want Antichrist, I don't want Armageddon. I would like to find some [Interesting choice of words] narrow path between these two where we can avoid both. And then certainly, there are ways that you defer it if you can, you try to do new things.

...I don't want to argue... on the level of personal sanctification or people saving their souls. My political, social intuition is that it's the height of your responsibility because that is just, in effect, hitting the accelerator [Revvng up] towards the Antichrist, Armageddon.” [Oh]

The host [I would really encourage you to watch these if you're able] The host then goes on to quote Daniel-7 and Revelation-13. [I mean, this is — I'm speechless, which for me is a miracle] [And after he quotes these prophetic passages, he says to Thiel] “There are people who take all of this seriously.”

Yeah.

Thiel, “Well, again, one can take it seriously without taking it completely literally. ...there's a way that Christ's ministry and death and resurrection was a part of history or a hinge moment of history. ...then there are ways it continues, and I think that's sort of a feel for history. [Now watch very carefully how cunningly he's going to do what he's about to do in

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

saying what he's about to say] ...It's happening in a world of nuclear weapons and instantaneous communication, and it's happening in a very post-Christian or hyper-Christian world, not in a pagan world. And somehow the classical approaches to history always downplay the things that are one-time unique, [One-off] world historical..."

You see what he did there? He took the death, burial, resurrection of Jesus Christ and made it a historical event. That's in the past. That was then. This is now. "And somehow the classical approaches to history always downplay the thing. [And then he says] I think we should take our bearings more from that." I'm sorry. I'm not taking my bearings from that. I'm taking my bearings from this. I'll do my best.

Part 2. We're getting there. We're almost done. I'll try not to insert too many — notice I use the word "try." Keyword "try." I'll try. It's hard because wow! So Part 2 begins with the host quoting a 19th century author who wrote, "The duty of believers - ever to be watching for the end times and above all, to keep in mind the great and awful sign of which St. Paul speaks to the Thessalonians. The emergence of the very image of Satan, the fearful and hateful Antichrist."

As I understand your argument [Speaking to Thiel] you hold, (1) That the prophecy of an Antichrist in one way or another remains valid, or at least useful (2) That it remains our duty to watch for the signs that it might emerge. And (3) That that duty is now almost entirely neglected and forgotten, fair?"

[Thiel responds] "Yes, yeah... But in some sense [Watch this] the Antichrist as an idea is something that really comes into being in the world after Christ. [In other words, that's ancient history] And then there's a lot of things about it that are mysterious. In some ways, the Antichrist copies Christ, the Antichrist pretends to be greater than Christ, hyper Christian, ultra-Christian, and then maybe only ultimately, deeply anti-Christian.

And then you can think of it as a system... A one-world system. So it can be an ideology or a system. ...where it's sort of the final dictator of the one-world state. In some ways, it's related to Christ in a very complicated way. So the theological question you can always ask, is it possible to be too Christian? [Wait. I'm sorry] [I said I would try]

Prophecy Update

Pastor JD

And in theory, [Still quoting] no. But in practice, if you think you're more Christian than Christ, you're in trouble." The host quotes a Harvard author. "...He has already argued for continent-wide government, which would represent a step toward global governance."

By the way, another three letters, the World Economic Forum, WEF, W-E-F. AI Governance. Revelation 13. Okay, going back to the quote from the host.

"His view is that if the government is based on some understanding of Christian ethics, and you make sure that it reflects subsidiarity, the principle that problems should be solved by the smallest unit possible, then big government, international coordinate, this is a good thing, not a bad thing. And you just don't buy that?"

Thiel: "I do not buy that. Probably a place where the Bible differs from enlightened rationality. [Enlightened] [The enlightened ones] Enlightened rationality believes in the wisdom of crowds. The Bible believes in the madness of crowds. [Nah, I don't have time]

And [Here's where He's going with it and how it all connects] [Listen very carefully] if you have a world state that's in some sense the largest crowd, [That's how you do it] And then host goes on to say, "Now, also we have the mechanisms that would make world government. A gigantic global surveillance state is plausible."

Thiel: "That seems plausible. Why would [Thiel speaking] -- why would we have a crazy surveillance state? Why would we do this? But..."

Please don't let the enemy — because he'll do anything right now to distract your mind, including using me, thinking about what you're going to have for lunch, how long is Pastor going to go this week, whatever it is, don't let him do that because I'm about to read something that is going to be jaw dropping. So He's asking this rhetorical question of why would you build a crazy surveillance state? Why would anybody do that?

"But if you're scared enough of these things, that's the weapon. And this is sort of where my speculative thesis is that if the Antichrist were to come to power, it would be by talking about Armageddon all the time. He'll scare people and then offer to save them.

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

[Thiel, still quoting] ...it's the 1 Thessalonians 5:3 slogan of the Antichrist; peace and safety, nothing wrong with peace and safety..."

Are you kidding me? It's almost like — and I — I truly believe they are demon possessed at best, transhuman already at worst. But it's almost like they know the Bible better than the Christian knows the Bible.

Don't you find it kind of interesting that there would be this, what amounts to about shy of a two-hour interview with Peter Thiel about Bible prophecy? I mean, is that just, hey, what's — let's, you know, blindfold; let's pick a topic for Peter Thiel.

Thiel: [This is the last one] [Oh, wait, I have to preface it with the host, who asks this] "What's your advice about how to lead a good life when we think we may be in the end of times?" [Would to God that more Christian pastors would ask that] '

Thiel: [Ready?] [Brace yourself] "I think if it's too high a lift to go to church or something like that. I would say that it's important to try to find a way to integrate your life to just fragment in all these different ways. And to integrate the knowledge, to connect what we think is going on in your life, with history, with our society.... We need ...more integration. We need to somehow pull things back together."

Oh dear. I didn't do too bad. I could have. I didn't. I hope you will, though. I hope you will try and understand what's really happening here behind the curtain and again, more importantly, how what's happening behind the curtain is the on-ramp, for lack of a better word, to the fulfillment of Bible prophecy during this seven-year Tribulation, which, thank God, Hallelujah we will not be here for.

I don't know if it's possible to overstate the prophetic significance of this as it relates to what the Bible says will happen, is now beginning to happen, and with a certainty is about to happen next, and fast, I might add. In other words, with precision accuracy, and specificity this is exactly what we're told in Bible prophecy. I've been a student of Bible prophecy since the early '80s. Don't do the math. That was a long time ago. And I'm going to use a saying — I talked about this on Thursday night. You know that's saying, "I couldn't believe my eyes." That's actually a good thing right now because AI can be more real than the real. And besides that, you shouldn't — you know “that seeing is believing.” Stop. Jesus said the opposite. Believe. And you will see. Believe. And you will see.

Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

In the '80s, I could have never imagined that in the year 2025, I'd be standing before the most amazing congregation in the world. That would be you. You make it a joy to be the pastor of. I would have never imagined that I would be standing before you today, as is my privilege to, and be sharing with you this. I wouldn't have believed it. But here it is.

Now, the question is, what are you going to do with it? With all that's happening now and will happen next, now's the time, today's the day to put your trust in Jesus so that you're ready for Jesus. This is why we always end the Update with the good news of salvation found in the person of Jesus Christ, the Gospel, which simply means “Good news. Your debt has been paid in full, dude, bruh, you're free to go.” I had to add that in.

That's what the word “gospel” means. Good news. Let me just — give me a couple minutes to go through the ABCs of salvation. I want to take a little bit different approach today because I was reminded this last week of the simplicity of the Gospel. It's a childlike simple, childlike trust. It's not a formula. It's not a prayer. It's not a “repeat after me.” It's not a come forward. It's not a — none of that. It's simply putting your trust in the person of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins because He paid for them in full.

The A in the ABCs is merely the start point, if you will because you have to come to that place where you acknowledge, like the thief on the cross, as we affectionately refer to him, that hey, I deserve to be here. He doesn't. I've broken the law. I've sinned. Here's the Savior.

Could you imagine being that guy? We're going to get to meet him in heaven. I can't wait. Dude, what was it like, man? You'll have to stand behind me in line to ask him. So that's what happened to him. He came to that place where he realized, acknowledge, admitted: Wait a minute. I deserve this death penalty.

Romans 3:10 says, “There is no one righteous, not even one.” And Romans 3:23 says, “For All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” In other words, I have fallen short, and now I am guilty as charged. So there you are. There you sit. And you've entered your plea of guilty, you've acknowledged your guilt, your sin.

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

And the Judge of the universe is now going to sentence you to death. You're on death row. You're going to die in your sins. “For the wages of sin is death, [That's the bad news] but [Here's the good news] the gift [Gift] of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Watch this. A gift is something that someone gives you that they paid for. You with me? He purchased us. We are not our own, but we are purchased with a price. What was the price? Everything. His life, His blood shed in our stead. This brings us to the centrality of the Gospel and the simplicity of the Gospel.

It really is simpler than A-B-C. It's actually as simple as B: Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord, and that God did raise Him from the dead. Romans 10:9. Wait, so I believe in God. I believe in Jesus. That's not what that says. That's not what that means.

What that means is I no longer am trusting in my own righteousness, my own innocence. I've acknowledged my guilt, accepted my sentence, but because Jesus was willing to go in my place, paying in full my sin debt and death penalty, He offers this gift. All I have to do is receive it. That's all I gotta do. You don't have to — you know, when — there's a whole — it's getting heated. It's getting worse. (Stumbling over words)

Sadly, it's very grievous. That you have to do something first. No. You bring nothing to the table of salvation. Jesus did it all. He paid it all. There's nothing you could do. It is finished. It is done by Him, not you, not me. It's not by works. Because if it were, you'd boast. Come on. You know you would. I would too. You're saved by grace through faith. Believe that when you stand before God that it will not be in your own righteousness that Isaiah says is as filthy rags, but it will be in Christ's imputed righteousness.

As one so aptly said it: When God sees us, He sees not our sin, but His son. So that judge we just talked about, you know, He sentenced you to death. And now because of Jesus, He says to you instead, Ho! — because He's a local judge — Ho! Bruh, good news. Your debt has been paid, you're free to go. And “whom the Son has set free is free indeed.”

Prophecy Update
Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

Now the C, interestingly, is a result of the B. Because when I believe that Jesus Christ is Lord in my heart and have put all of my trust in Him, then Jesus said, what comes — the abundance of — “Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” So in other words, what's in my heart is going to come out of my mouth. So if your heart is full of rage and bitterness and anger it's going to come out, you know? But if your heart is full of Jesus, filled by the Holy Spirit, what's going to come out? Jesus.

And that's what the C is. It's a confessing with your mouth. It's a calling upon Him. Romans 10:13, “All who call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.” The jury's not out. The verdict's in. It is finished. Period. Now, here's this gift that is offered to you that He paid for. And all you have to do is receive and believe and you'll have eternal life. How simple is that? How simple is that?

Well, I'm going to have to preface today's “But God Testimony.” It's a little bit intense. Comes from Joanne Eyerly, who writes, “My husband of 25 years was killed in a hospital in Oregon by the COVID protocol. I am in a support group, and we have documented our stories. There were over 1.2 million Americans killed in hospitals due to the deadly protocol. I have a huge story to tell. There is currently a trial going on in Wisconsin. Grace Schara, a — [This is heartbreaking] a 19-year-old Down's Syndrome child was also murdered as there was an illegal DNR [Do not resuscitate] signed by the doctor. Please know I have followed you online since 2020 and you have prepared me by your truth telling!

No one has spoken so boldly as you, JD. My husband was a strong Christian man and unvaccinated and was targeted. Even though the hospital bill was over a quarter of a million dollars, my insurance billed me for $8,000 in a deductible. I never paid one cent for them to kill him! They are all in it together.

Your Prophecy Updates have given me hope that I desperately need. I have not missed one sermon since 2021, when my husband was killed. I was never allowed in the hospital until he was half-dead, to withdraw life support. He was given euthanasia drugs which slowed his breathing. They tied him down and withheld food and water! I never knew because they had the National Guard at the hospital entrances, and I was only allowed to FaceTime when they had time.

Are You Ready For What The Bible Says Happens Next?
Pastor JD

I had to move across country to Ohio and start my life over. At the age of 53, I became a widow. My husband's last words in a text to me were: 'God's will be done. I love you and the kids.' No one gets over that. But God. I can see clearly. We are living in the last hour! I look forward to seeing him soon in the air! I am so thankful for your teachings because I know where I will be soon!" Kaponu, come on up. Why don't you stand up? We'll close in prayer.

[ Applause ]

No. It's all to the Lord. O Lord, You alone are worthy to receive all the glory due Your holy name. (Deep sigh)

Lord, I pray that You'll take what I shared today because Your word does not return void. It accomplishes that which You intend for it to. But for anyone maybe here or watching online that has never yet put their trust in You for the forgiveness of sins to be born-again and receive the gift of eternal life, I pray that it's today because today is the day of salvation, that they would not delay the most important decision of their life for eternal life.

Please, Jesus, I beg You. So many are so lost, and they need You so desperately. And I know that You love them. You know them. Please, Lord, save them from what's coming upon the whole world. For those of us who are, oh, the most valuable possession we have is our gift of eternal life because of You, Jesus.

So Lord, those that are saved, ready, watching, looking up, please, Lord, especially for the downcast, the weary, will You lift them up, so they can look up? You're the lifter of our heads. Encourage and strengthen their hearts. And Lord, please, just a comforting word of encouragement that it is soon and very, very soon that we're going to see You in the air. Even so, Lord Jesus, Maranatha! Even so, Lord Jesus, Maranatha! Come quickly. In Jesus' name, Amen.
