Prophecy Update
Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming
Pastor JD

KAPONO: Thank You, Lord. Our solid rock, Lord. Our foundation. Lord, we thank You for this time where we can come to a church that You bless us with, Lord because You knew that we would need this, Lord, with a pastor who does a Prophecy Update, Lord, who You give courage and strength to, to speak the hard truths about what's going on in this world today. And more importantly, Lord, that You bring it back. You allowed him to bring it back to Your word, so that we can see that You already knew this was — all of these things were going to happen.

So we thank You for the hope. Lord, we're looking to You this morning, Lord, to guide us, to teach us, to calm our hearts, Lord, and give us a focus, Lord, like You only, only You can do, Lord, so that we wouldn't miss what You have for us this morning, Lord. So we bless Your name. We praise your name. And we say these things in Jesus' name.

PASTOR JD: Jesus' name. Amen and amen. And good morning and welcome. You can be seated. So glad you're here. Those of you online, we're also glad that you're joining with us. We're just going to get right to it.

This is the first of our two Sunday morning services devoted to the weekly Bible Prophecy Updates. Second Service — now, for those of you here, the worship starts at 10:45. Of course, that presupposes that the pastor's done preaching and teaching the Prophecy Update by 10:45. I came close last week, but who's counting? So the worship starts here. Now, those of you online on the website, you can join us at 10:45. But if you're on YouTube or Facebook, the actual teaching starts at 11:15 a.m. And of course, that's Hawaii time.

Now, Today we start in Revelation Chapter 21. We've turned the corner now out of the Millennial Reign, the 1000 years, the Kingdom Age, and we step into the new heavens and a new earth. Oh, I can't wait. Yeah. However, as you can see by the title, There's a problem. And the problem is why I titled the sermon, 'Why Hold On To And Invest In A World That's Dying And Soon Burning.'

Okay, now that I got your attention, what we're going to do is look at three truths with the hopes that those truths will refocus us and remind all of us, myself included, to just let go of this dying world, not our home. How? By looking forward to our eternal home. That's how.

Prophecy Update

Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming

Pastor JD

Okay, the Second Service: Those of you on YouTube or Facebook might want to at this time go to JDFarag.org for the Update. We would highly encourage you to do so.

I want to begin by explaining the reasons for the title of today's Update: 'Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming.' First reason: recently, there's been quite a significant uptick on the part of many believers, and even nonbelievers alike, who are all talking about and making videos on something big is about to come. And in all fairness, they're right. Something big is about to come. And again, in all fairness, many are seeing it, and many are sensing it.

However, if one stays in that place, not knowing what it points to, then like Jesus said, your heart will be troubled. And Jesus, His response was, “Let not your heart be troubled.” And we're going to talk more about that shortly. The problem isn't so much seeing or sensing that something big is coming. The problem is that it has the propensity to create a spirit of fear, which the Holy Spirit never gives to, or operates in the life of a Christian.

In fact, that's the litmus test. If you want to know if something is of the Lord, from the Lord, according to the will of the Lord, if it is in any way laced, for lack of a better word, with fear, it's not God. Because He never does that. The Holy Spirit gives us the opposite. Faith, power, love, and a sound mind, better understood as a mind that is disciplined, like Paul writing and saying, “Take every thought captive into the obedience of Christ.”

In other words, make sure that wait, wait, wait. You can't just come in, thought. Because Satan is all about planting a seed of doubt that germinates and sprouts into fear. And that's his evil scheme, one of many. So God “...has given us a spirit of power and of love, and of a sound [Disciplined] mind” that doesn't just allow any thought unfettered access into our minds.

You know, some of you — I won't look at anybody — you're careful about what you allow into your body. I'm not one of those people. But we're not so careful about what we allow in our mind. And that's where the battleground is, in the mind. You see, God wants us to stand strong against the evil schemes of the enemy. And we'll see this as well shortly.

Prophecy Update

Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming

Pastor JD

Here's the second reason for today's title. To only be focusing on how something big is coming can lead many people to get too caught up in it, pun intended. And by that, I mean all of one's time and energy is now being focused on and troubled about what's coming. And the result is it takes the focus off of Jesus, who's about to come. We've covered this topic in previous Updates because, simply put, what's about to come prophetically points to Jesus who's about to come. Did you make that connection?

Third reason lastly: The enemy, no, not your neighbor, your boss, that family member, whoever comes to your mind right now — I better not look at anybody again. The enemy. Who's the enemy? The Devil. The adversary. Not flesh and blood. We don't wrestle against — and that's an important word because in the original, “wrestle” changes the complexion. We don't battle. That misses it. Wrestle is full contact. Every muscle in your body. We don't wrestle with people. People aren't the enemy. The enemy is the enemy. People are the mission field.

So the enemy is so crafty and subtle and evil through and through. So what he does is he works through human agents to do his bidding. And dare I say that he has been met with smashing success in his evil scheme of misinformation and disinformation. I mean, after all, he's the author of confusion, right?

We'll see next, or this Thursday coming up, Zechariah, Chapter 3, for those of you who want to come to our midweek Bible study, verse-by-verse through the Bible. We're almost through with the Old Testament. I'm hoping the rapture comes before we finish the Old Testament because there's only one more book after Zechariah, Malachi. And then we're at the end of the New Testament. And I'm just thinking perfect timing of the rapture to happen, you know, when.... Yeah.

So, you know, actually pray to that end if you wouldn't mind. We're going to see another one of the Devil's titles describing his evil schemes. He's the accuser of the brethren. So he's the author of confusion. He's authored a book, bestseller, very successful, that has gone through many reprinting and publications, and on the number one, you know, seller top ten list. And title? Confusion. Author? The Devil. So he's the author of confusion, the father of lies.

Prophecy Update

Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming

Pastor JD

This is the (Stumbling over words)... Think about that for a second. Let me have this one. Father of lies. I'm a father of three living children. I have four waiting, my wife and I, in heaven, total of seven. I can't wait for that. So I'm the father of seven children. He's the father of all lies. When he speaks, he speaks his native language. And then he's the accuser of the brethren. You have to come on Thursday. That's all you're getting from me about Thursday.

So let's talk about this confusion, misinformation, disinformation. It's so bad now that people don't know what to believe anymore. And do you want to know why? Because they've been bombarded with demonic confusion and horrific chaos. Sadly, it's getting worse with each passing day when we live in a day, the very last of days, the last hour, at the dawn of the pre-Tribulation rapture, not the eve anymore. We're past that. It's the dawn. It's the dawn, not of a new age. It's the dawn of the pre-Tribulation rapture and the beginning of the seven-year Tribulation.

This explains why and proves that the Devil's schemes are — I'm using this word — some of you know why — revving up like never before, knowing that his time is very short, Revelation 12. Would to God that more Christians knew that time was very short.

But God. But God has provided us with all we need to stand strong spiritually in the face of the Devil's revved up schemes. I won't go into all of it, but it's very popular now. Ephesians 6. I only want to draw your attention to verses 10 and 11. This is the well-known passage about the armor of God where with to stand against. And this is what Paul, by the Spirit, writes to the church in Ephesus, verse 10, Chapter 6. “Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power.”

It's not your strength. Zechariah 4 — that's the following week — you'll have to come that week too — verse 6, I think. “It's not by might, not by power, but by My spirit, says the Lord.”

It's not my strength. Paul, writing to the Corinthians, pardon me, the Philippians. [It's been a long week] Chapter 4:13, “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.”

Prophecy Update

Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming

Pastor JD

Notice he doesn't say I can do most things. I can do some things. No, I can do all things, man. How about when Paul writes to the Romans, Chapter 8? What a chapter, by the way! He says — let me have this one too. Someone comes up to you. This is a very loose paraphrase. Someone comes up to you and says, “I am a conqueror.” You go, “That's nothing. I'm more than a conqueror. How about that?” Don't do it like that. Why? Because you are. How? Because of Christ. It's His mighty power. It's His strength.

Okay, so verse 11 answers the question of how do I be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power? Oh, by putting on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the Devil's schemes. The King James — you'll forgive me — (Growling) the wiles of the Devil. Just sounds more growly, yeah? His schemes, his tactics. his deceptions, his agendas, his plans.

And you know, again, I am not going to go into each part of the armor, but it is important to understand, and I would really encourage you in your own time, in God's word to do a study of this. Because everybody's talking about it these days. Armor up. But did you know that the belt of truth is what holds everything in place? Even the shield, when not in use, locked, tongue and groove above all, meaning you've got comrades on the left, comrades on the right, comrades in the front, comrades in the back.

So “above all” doesn't mean the shield of faith, which is dipped in water, the wood with the metal to extinguish the flaming arrows of the evil one. This is why it is that Paul — well, actually, the writer of Hebrews — I should clarify — says, “Don't forsake the assembling...” Assembling? Remember? Assembling, not gathering, assembling. If I have my watch, all the parts to it gathered but not assembled, it's not going to work. It's not going to function. Forsake the assembling of yourselves together.

So what we do is we put on the armor, then we assemble. We take the shield of faith above all of us, lock it in tongue and groove among us, and we create an impenetrable fortress with which the enemy cannot succeed in firing his fiery arrows. This is why it is, by the way, that the enemy wants to get you away, off by yourself, isolated because roaring lions just wait patiently, stalk their prey, and just wait for just one of those guys to go out and just, “I'm not going back to that assembly anymore.”

Prophecy Update

Troubled About What's Coming Or Excited About Who's Coming

Pastor JD

And the enemy just pounces, and anyway, I think you get the picture. I don't want to be too graphic. The shield of faith hooks on to the belt of truth, holding it in place. The helmet of salvation, when not worn, is hooked onto the belt of truth. The breastplate of righteousness, very important, protects the vital organs" the heart, my thyroid; I never realized how important my thyroid was. I didn't even know where it was. Now I do. I'm like thanking God for my thyroid every day. Thank you, God, for my thyroid. I had no idea. It does so much. It protects the internal organs.

The shoes of the Gospel of peace, the readiness to cover large amounts of terrain swiftly. "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" And yet at the center of it all is the belt of truth. Don't you hate it when — I'm taking more time than I told myself I would. What's new? Don't you hate it when somebody says, "Well, that's your truth"?

Now, don't let your sanctification flee from you. But that's my truth? Excuse me. No, that's my Jesus who is the truth How about that? He's the truth, not a truth, your truth, my truth, their truth. Stop . Just...you're killing me, man. Okay. You're killing me, Smalls. That was just for those of you can appreciate that one.

Okay, here's what I'm hoping to accomplish with today's Update all by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit. What I'm hoping to accomplish is that all of us, again, myself included, will recalibrate. What do you mean by recalibrate? Reexamine, re-adjust the settings of our Christian lives, and correct them, specifically, as it relates to this aforementioned misinformation and disinformation, with all its ensuing confusion, division, and chaos, divide and conquer. Right out of the playbook.

Jesus even said, "A house divided cannot stand. You know the enemy knows that. If a church is divided, it's not going to last. It's going to split. And I can tell you, of many churches, in my experience, that are no more because of division, accusation, false accusation, gossiping, murmuring, instilling a confusing. It's all the Devil's bidding because he hates the church. He knows he can't beat it from without. So he got to join it from within. Because the gates of hell cannot prevail against the church, the rock, the profession of Peter's rock.

Pastor JD

So wait a minute. So you're saying these are the schemes of the Devil, the strategies, the agendas, the tactics that the Devil himself employs vis-à-vis deception so as to get mankind to buy the lie from the father of lies? Yes. Well, actually, technically, that's what God's word is saying.

Listen to this quote from 44 years ago, back in 1981 by the then CIA, Central Intelligence Agency, director, William Casey. I want you to listen very closely as I quote it. You see it there on the screen. "We'll know our disinformation program [Scheme] is complete when everything the American public believes is false."

Notice he uses the word "disinformation" instead of "misinformation" and dubs it as a program, a plan, a scheme, a tactic, an agenda. And also notice that there's a way to know when it has been successfully completed.

Okay, Pastor, why do you point this out? Because disinformation is deliberate propaganda to manipulate the narrative and the facts in order to mislead and deceive the masses. It is not synonymous with misinformation. I'll delineate between and expound on misinformation and disinformation. And they're different.

Starting with misinformation, according to Dictionary.com, it's "false information that is spread regardless of whether there is intent to mislead." In other words, it can be unwittingly, unknowingly, not deliberately, innocently, or perhaps naively. But it's misinformation.

Now, conversely, this is why the CIA director then would use not in misinformation, but disinformation because one, "it's false information. [Listen] about a country's military strength or plans, disseminated by a government or intelligence agency in a hostile act of tactical political subversion."

Oh, my goodness. That's just one. Two, "deliberately [Keyword deliberately] misleading or biased information; manipulated narrative [Turn off the news] or facts; [Turn off that news channel too] propaganda."

Turn them all off. I suppose it should come as no surprise that this National Library of Medicine's Center for Biotechnological Information would publish this PubMed paper [Watch this] over four years ago now, back on February 18th, 2021.

Why is that significant? Because it was just one year after 2020 hit. And worse, it was in lockstep with Operation Warp Speed. And it's titled 'Disinformation and Epidemics: Anticipating the Next Phase of Biowarfare.'

Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait. Slow down. Okay. 2021. So four years ago. Okay, okay. Okay, wait. How are you anticipating the next one? Because you're the one creating the next one. Okay, here's where I'm going with all this. In a day and at a time when deception which, by the way, you know this, right? If you don't, you need to. Deception is the [The] number one sign of the end of time. It's in full force, which is, again, why we must stand strong lest we be deceived.

And we talked about this. I forget when. Pretty bad when the pastor forgets what he preached on and when he preached that. Why we let ourselves be deceived. Oh, I think I titled it, 'What We Need To Know About Why We Let...' I love complicated; it's a gift. I have the gift of complication. I love complicated titles. What we need to know about why we let, keyword, ourselves be deceived.

See, we're in full cooperation with the deception. And we let ourselves be deceived. Jesus even said, Matthew 24, which will be referring to, that it's going to get so bad, speaking to the Jews and of the seven-year Tribulation, that if it were possible — thank God He's going to intervene and shorten the days — because had He not done that, were He not to do that, even the very elect, Israel, would be deceived. Don't be gullible. Don't be so naive. I'm going to use this word because it's in the epistles. So don't look at me with stink eye or get mad at me or walk out on me. Don't be ignorant, brethren. There; that sanctified it, didn't it, with the brethren?

We live in this most unforgiving time in this last hour to be so naive, so gullible with the swiftness with which we see Bible prophecy, specifically the off-the-charts deception beginning to come to pass. Would you agree that that alone, stand alone should have the effect of propelling us to Jesus, so we trust only in Jesus? Because at the end of the day, He is the truth.

I don't know what to believe anymore. I do. I don't know what's truth anymore. As Pilate would say to the Savior before the crucifixion, "What is truth," with all the sarcasm and the tone of his voice. What is the truth? No, wrong question. We need to get the question right before we can get the answer right because there's no right answer to a wrong question. You say, you ask, "What is truth?" Your question should be corrected, made right. Who is the truth? You're looking at Him. That's Jesus, THE way, THE truth, THE life.

Okay, so now how? How do I take this off-the-charts deception and have it propel me to Jesus, to trust only in Jesus? Here's how. By understanding the times that you're living in, like the men of Issachar, recorded in Numbers. It's very interesting because it's a recording of all of the tribes by their numbers. And it's just rote and boring. And by the time you get to the men of Issachar, you wake up because it's not just a men of Issachar, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. It's the men of Issachar who understood the times they were living in and knew what Israel was to do. Wow, that's Romans 13.

So if I understand, fully grasp the times and discern the signs, and they're all over the place, by the way. What did the signs say? I tell you what they don't say: "The end is near."

Okay, that's what they don't say. Thanks a lot. How helpful is that seeing a sign: "This is not the way to Kaneohe"? You're in town trying to get to Kaneohe. This is not the way. That helps me in no way whatsoever. I need a sign that tells me what is the way.

No, I tell you what this sign and all the signs are saying: No, it's not the end is near. The end is here. I'm not trying to be sensational. Please, for those of you who maybe don't know me as well, the Lord knows my heart when I say this. We're there. The end is here. The signs are everywhere, and Jesus is coming.

So understanding the times, discerning the signs according to Bible prophecy, which, by the way, all point to Jesus and the soon and very, very soon pre-Tribulation rapture in the appearing of Jesus. Notice the delineation in Scripture. We've talked about it before. I won't spend too much time on it. But there's the coming of Jesus and the appearing of

Pastor JD

Jesus. The appearing of Jesus is in the air as the pre-Tribulation rapture. The coming of Jesus is the Second Coming at the end of the seven-year Tribulation.

Man, when you get that, it's like, how do they say it? Tight bulbs go off, everything clicks into place. You know, you get the, is it an epiphany? Let's just say it's an epiphany for now. I mean, God just, you know, it just, oh! We're going to be doing a lot of this in heaven. Oh, now I see. Now I know why. It just fits.

Now, we have another question. And it's a question of how. How understanding and discerning translates to leading and turning into knowing that what's coming is an indicator of who's coming. And that's what I want to devote the remainder of our time together on today. Just one particular one that's not only coming, but in some ways is already here and at the ready, so it's in place for the Devil's planned endgame scheme, which God exposes and reveals in Revelation.

So let's go ahead and end the livestream at this time. By way of a preface, I need to explain the intersecting and interconnecting patterns of Bible prophecy and how everything fits in and ties to what's foretold in Bible prophecy.

Here's a question. I want you to think this through with me because I know it's going to be a little bit different, maybe hard to process, especially if you're given over to cognitive dissonance. What if I told you that what's happening in Israel, to Israel, and against Israel connects to what's happening worldwide, specific to the mandate to vaccinate?

Okay, I'll let you go ahead. Roll your eyes. Get that over with. There he goes again. Just let me know when you're done. Are you done? If so, may I just humbly ask that you hear me out as I lay this out? This is for you to discern and decide. I never want you to take my word for it. I mean, I vet everything sometimes down to the gnat's eyebrow. And yes, gnats have eyebrows. But you be a Berean and you search the scriptures. You start making these prophetic connections. I tell you; it'll do you some good, you know.

Here's the last thing, real quick. Please, I implore you, I want to say this as graciously as I can. Please don't say, "Well, that's what my pastor said." Please, please don't do that. If you have, I forgive you. I have to forgive you if I want to be forgiven myself. No, you need to know not only what you believe, but why you believe what you believe. Okay. Don't eye roll, stink eye. Here we go again. There he goes again. Are we? Okay.

We got an email sent to the office last week. And by the way, I owe such a debt of gratitude to the many who send us this information, especially the "But God Testimonies," which are a blessing to multitudes around the world, to the uttermost parts of the earth really. I benefit tremendously from them, and I'm so grateful for them. But we received this email. I knew about this, but I needed to be reminded about this.

This is the Temple Coins limited edition of the Abraham Accords medallion back in 2020. Now, there have been many others that have done a deep dive into all its symbolism, which this coin is full of, but I'm just going to draw your attention to the yellow highlighted area. Notice how it starts with a sword symbolizing war and gives way to everything else, symbolizing peace, which is a false peace culminating in the final solution to the Devil's scheme.

As you can see at the beginning of these symbols, there's the vaccine syringe. I've also included a close up of it at the bottom left of the screen. Okay, wait a minute. Why is there a vaccine syringe on a commemorative coin minted for the Abraham Accords, which is expanding and strengthening into the Abraham Alliance, and this under the banner of what's emerged as the Abraham Shield plan, scheme, which I'll get to momentarily. No, that's an honest question. That's a fair question. Right?

Okay, wait. So here's the coin commemorating, celebrating the Abraham Accords back in 2020. And on one side of it, you have a sword. Of course, that's war. But then it's not war anymore because now you got all these symbols that speak of peace. And at the beginning of it, is a vaccine syringe. Why? No, I'm asking you. We'll start over here, go around the whole.... No, I'm sorry. I won't do that to you. Boy, how awkward would that be? Put you on the spot.

So I'll answer the question. But I'm going to do it with another question to provide the answer. Wouldn't it stand to reason that a vaccine syringe on a commemorative coin concerning Israel is connected to the Devil's endgame plan and scheme? Consider this. All the geopolitical players are following this one plan, which is pre-planned, pre-scripted. It's a scheme of the Devil precisely as Bible prophecy foretells. And here's how I get there. The covenant of peace and security.

It's in the Greek, 1 Thessalonians 5:3, aspheleia, which can be translated safety, stability, security. We talked about this last week, and I just wanted to reiterate it this week. But this covenant of peace and security, safety, prosperity, which, by the way, if you might remember, Tuesday, January 21st of 2020, when the Deal of the Century was unveiled, it was called the 'Peace and Prosperity Plan.'

So peace, security, safety, prosperity, stability is much broader. And by "broader," I mean it's not limited to wars and threats of wars, nation rising against nation and kingdom against kingdom. This prophesied strengthening of peace and alliance with nations goes further, aiming at said peace and security.

It should be noted that Jesus himself, in His well-known prophecy found in Matthew 24, verses four through eight, after He says that, He says, these things must come to pass, but the end has not yet come. Then He goes on because He's answering the disciples' question, threefold question about what will be the signs of the end of the age, of Your return, and I forgot the third one.

So He's answering the question, and He says, okay, so number one, out of the chute, Deception. Number one sign. That's how you know. Nations will rise against nation, kingdoms against kingdom. But these things must come to pass. However, the end has not yet come, will not yet come. Then He goes on to continue with this list. And in that list, He says, famine, pestilences, and various earthquakes. And then He likens them to birth pains coming in greater frequency and intensity.

Now, if you're still with me, hang in there with me, it would stand to reason that this encompasses a false peace and false cybersecurity. You see a lot on that right now if you haven't noticed And it's packaged with false safety from identification theft. We can protect you. How? With a biodigital ID, bio = biological digital = computer ID. It's this biodigital ID deceptively presented as health safety, public health, safe and effective. And it comes by way of a pharmaceutical final solution. This comports with another well-known prophecy in the 13th chapter of Revelation that will be fulfilled during this seven-year Tribulation, as it relates to the mark of the beast.

Again, think this through with me. Whatever that final form of this final pharmaceutical solution is, it has to be pharmacopeia. That's the Greek word translated sorcery, magic spell, magic potion. Because that's the only thing that will mark you. Because you have to have a mark in order for them to determine either compliance with or defiance of the mandated worship of the image of the beast To buy or sell.

Okay, Pastor, I have a question for you. Fine. Why are you so stuck on it being a pharmaceutical? Answer: Revelation 18:23. We've talked about it in great detail. The specificity of this prophecy in Revelation 18:23 at the fall of Babylon makes it very clear, in no uncertain terms that it was there sorceries, magic, arts, magic spells, magic potions. Pharmakeia, pharmaceutical that [Listen, don't miss this, please] that deceived all [All] the nations on earth.

That's why I'm convinced not just beyond any reasonable doubt, beyond any doubt, that in some form the mark of the beast, not now — oh, man. I got to do it again. Okay, Pastor — we still get these. And I'm so sorry. I feel so bad for those that have been injected or boosted. It's not the mark of the beast. You haven't lost your salvation. You're born-again. You can't be un-born-again. Boy, do I get — woo! It's almost — well, I don't want to get into it. It's humorous. I mean, I gotta laugh, or else, I'm just going to cry because the arguments are just silly and absurd.

You mean so just like with your children? Like I always illustrate your children, once they're born, are you going to un-born them? I didn't ask you if you wanted to. You can't. They're born. They can't be un-born. So the spiritual metaphor of being born-again in the Spirit is exactly the same way. You can't be un-born-again spiritually, or unsaved.

Oh, you don't believe in once saved/always saved, do you? To which I, when I was younger and had more energy and more militant, would say, "You believe you can lose your salvation?" No. For real. Oh, I feel sorry for you. Sounds to me like you got a lot of works to do. Oh, it also sounds like that, to me, that you're accusing the Savior of lying when He said, "It is finished." Period. Not comma. I've done My part. Now it's your turn. Do your part. I'll check in with you every so often. See how you're doing.

No, Ephesians 2:8-9. You're saved by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. It's not of works; "it's the gift of God, lest anyone should boast." And every one would boast. So please, would you close that file if that's still an issue? Another one is: has my DNA been altered? No, but I suspect has been damaged.

But whatever and whenever this final form pharmakeia mark marking those who are either compliant or defiant will be something that deceives all the nations. And we saw all the nations on earth seemingly deceived. Not the leaders; they were in on it. They were all in lockstep. All the nations. It's for this reason that a pharmaceutical solution is not only a huge part of this plan, it's the final part of this plan. It's the final solution to this plan.

Let me explain. And again, just please, you know, put on your thinking caps. Remember school? I sure do; I heard that every day. Just use your God-given intellect and think through this with me. Wouldn't this be not only the best way, but the only way to track, trace, monitor, and mark anyone and everyone? And actually, this is exactly what's coming and in some ways is already here, which again points to who's coming, Jesus, our bridegroom, who takes us, His bride, out of this world before the seven-year Tribulation.

By the way, Second Service, I would really encourage you. The first three verses of Chapter 21 in Revelation are so — how do I say this without sounding like the dork I am? It's just amazingly powerful. Amazingly powerful.

Let's, quickly look at this Abraham Shield Plan and their stated plan. Quote, 'With Crisis, Comes Opportunity: [Where have you heard that before?] A New Regional Order in the Middle East.'

Please don't miss these words. Plan, crisis, new, and order. What if I told you that it echoes the pre-planned symbolism on the back of all your one-dollar bills — don't pull them out right now — I'm not done yet — which in Latin translated to English says, "A new order of the ages."

However, what the one-dollar bill doesn't say in words, it does say in the form of symbols, which is that of — that is not an eagle. It's a phenix rising from the ashes of the creation of the crisis, the reaction of the chaos, ushering in the final solution of this new order. Please listen to this most interesting quote from the home page of the Abraham Shield Plan.

Quoting now. “Since the attacks of October 7, Israel has been fighting on seven fronts in the most just war since its founding. Like a phoenix, the State of Israel has managed to rise from the dust....”

Come on. Come on. This is what I mean by the intersecting and interconnecting of Bible prophecy, especially as it relate to the creation of a worldwide crisis. They create the crisis. Textbook Hegelian dialect, especially as it relates to the creation of the worldwide crisis and ensuing chaos with the trial run of the created coronavirus crisis. Do you realize that was a created crisis? Preplanned. Pre-scripted. And I have that thoroughly documented, irrefutably documented, as was 9/11.

Boy, you're really asking for it now; aren't you, Pastor? Yeah. Bring it on, baby. That was pre-planned for years. Pre-scripted. You create the chaos, the crisis because you know and anticipate the ensuing chaos. And then the masses will clamor for a solution. In other words, all of this was pre-planned and pre-scripted, right out of the Devil's playbook, which is a preparation for the execution of the final solution. And we are right there, man.

For those still having difficulty connecting Israel to the final pharmaceutical solution, may I just remind you of an interview with Netanyahu by Jordan Peterson? We actually covered this, in a previous Update. In it, Netanyahu boasts about his deal with Pfizer. Brought to you by Pfizer, Brought to you by Pfizer. Turn the TV off; I told you.

Well, wait a minute. He made a deal with the Devil, I mean, Pfizer? What was the deal? To sell all Israeli's DNA database to Pfizer for vaccine development. Is that any surprised that on day one, after the inauguration, we're told that half a trillion and soon to be more and maybe much more will be invested in the already started constructing of AI infrastructures. And then we would have the likes of a Sam, not Sam — somebody help me — Altman — thank you — say that AI will take your DNA and customize a vaccine specifically for your cancer, that they created, in 48 hours. Day one.

What if I also told you that this portion — you won't find it. You'll have to search. We'll provide a link to it. It's on Rumble, I think. I checked it this morning. It's still there, thankfully. But curiously and suspiciously, the portion where Netanyahu boasts about his deal with Pfizer and selling the Israeli's DNA, it was edited out.

And when I found this out, I spent more time than I had trying to dig this out. And I found the original video that had been edited out, and I had to manually transcribe it, which took me more time than I didn't have to do. But I had to because this is huge. This is huge. It was edited out in its entirety.

Now this is going to make more sense when I share with you this blog post on Thryve titled, 'Digital Biomarkers: Vaccine Reactogenicity With Wearables.'

Now, before I quote from this, I first need to define reactogenicity. You know what it means? Wait for it. It means expected, predicted, scripted, planned adverse reactions following vaccination. That's what that means.

Quote. “This blog post explores the key components involved in building personalized digital biomarkers for vaccine reactogenicity. We cover how wearable devices capture real-time physiological changes, how digital twins...”

What? Oh, you didn't know? If they have your DNA and they do, they can create a virtual digital twin of you. I feel so sorry for my digital twin. One of me is enough. [So digital twins] how they model individual health baselines and simulate immune responses, and how multimodal data fusion drives the development of accurate algorithms.” [AI]

Add to that this report from the GlobalNewswire titled, 'Wearable Devices Advances AI Health Monitoring Platform As United States Department of Health and Human Services Embraces Wearable Tech.'

You heard about this? Quick quote.

Did you catch that? They're going to, in advance, preempt, prevent, and control your health and your behavior.

Here's one last blog post from the — just bear with me. We're almost done. It's from the International Electrotechnical Commission editorial team titled, 'A standard journey for bio-digital convergence.'

What is biodigital convergence? Ask Klaus Schwab or Yuval Harari. It's merging, converging man with machine, transhumanism. Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Notice what's at the center of this graphic. BioDigital Convergence [Merging man with machine] and Bioengineering.

What's bioengineering? Well, if you're engineering something, you're programming something and controlling something, the behavior of something that you're engineering. I've highlighted in yellow, and there's more, but I don't know — I think you can only — the mind and heart can only take what the seat can bear, the backside can bear.

So there's more. You, on your own; we got the link. But I want to point out highlighted in yellow biohacking. Isn't that what Yuval Harari said? Humans are hackable animals. Excuse me? Humans are created in the image of God. Well, yeah, but we're still going to hack them and merge with them and make them transhuman.

I've also circled geoengineering. We've talked about that over the last, I don't know how long. That's why when you look up in the sky, it's silver, not blue. That's why the weather is weird. And that's an understatement.

How about this one? Organ and human body -on-a-chip. What? What? (Stumbling over words)

And lastly, last but not least, smart cities. Remember that photo I showed you in Maui of the temporary facilities for the victims of what they called the fire, which were directed energy weapons? They're colorful. You got to give them that. But they're concentration camps. They've had to rebrand smart cities now. So they're calling them freedom cities I mean, I might be stupid, but I'm not that stupid. I'm just highlighting four.

Okay. I'll end the way we began. And thanks for your patience. Those truly discerning and understanding what's coming will be the ones that have more of a propensity to be excited about who's coming and would to God that every single one of us would be numbered amongst them. But I think I'd be grossly remiss were I not to at least address those who are troubled or even terrified about what's coming and what's happening.

If that's you, whether here or online, please, I — you need to know God has provided a way, the way, of escape. His name is Jesus, THE way, THE truth, THE life. Don't let your heart be troubled. He promised us that in His father's house — wow — that's Second Service again — oh, I guess you're getting more out of me — are many mansions.

Now, I know some of your translations say many dwelling places, rooms, whatever. I like mansions way better. And He even says, and it's so clear, man. It's Red Sea clear. If it were not so, I would tell you. But I'm going to prepare, as your bridegroom, a place for you, as was the custom in the, especially in the Galilee region, where the Jewish bridegroom, once the engagement would be agreed upon, then the bridegroom would leave and go and prepare and build the bridal chamber in His father's house.

And when the time came, the father would say, "It's time." And the best man, as it were, would sound the trumpet of God. There's two different kinds of trumpets in the Bible. The trumpet of God is for the church. The trumpet of angels is for Israel. There's the first trumpet for Israel, the last trumpet for the church.

Please, I implore you, make that distinction. God has provided you with THE way, THE truth, much-needed truth, the only truth, and THE life. And let not your heart be troubled. And then He ends it so beautifully. And this is a promise that I would venture to say most of us hang on to by our fingernails if we have any left. I'm coming to get you so that where I am — where are you? My father's house where there are mansions — so that where I am, there you will be also. That's the pre-Tribulation rapture.

Well, I don't see the pre-Tribulation rapture in the Bible. I don't see the word “rapture” in the Bible. Well, get a Latin Bible then. Rapturous: transliterated rapture, harpazo in the Greek. Well, I don't think Jesus talked about the rapture.

Oh, man, oh yes, He did. He first introduced it to the disciples. And you know, have you had people say do you — you know — it's snarky — and you know it's snarky because you're snarky, so you know snarky. But you don't believe in a secret rapture; do you?

Well, okay, first of all, wrong question again. Let's get the question right. It's not a secret anymore because Paul, in 1 Corinthians 15, revealed the secret. Behold, I show you a secret, a mystery. He unveiled it. So let's get that word “secret” out of the question. Rapture? Keep that in. Because Jesus introduced it explicitly in John's Gospel, Chapter 14.

And I find it rather compelling that Jesus, in His compassion would say, “Let not your [Let, again, keyword] hearts be troubled.” Why would He say that? Because their hearts were troubled.

I know there are many Christians too, you know. And I love what Oswald Chambers once said. God never faults a man for despair. You're in good company. Read through the scriptures. Paul the apostle despaired of life. The Old Testament saints despaired of life. God never faults a man or a woman for despair because He knows. He was well-acquainted with grief and suffering and sorrow. But you don't have to let your heart be troubled because there's good news.

And the good news is the salvation that is found in the person of Jesus Christ, who at His First Coming took upon Himself the sins of the world, all your sins, past, present, and future. Present: Right now you're sinning. I'm not going to look at anybody because you're looking at your watch. You're forgiven. This is why we end the Updates with the Gospel and a simple, childlike explanation of the Gospel by way of the ABCs of salvation.

This is not a formula. It's not some sort of a magical “repeat after me, walk down an aisle, you know, sign a card, you know, join a whatever.” No. It's the Holy Spirit knocking on the door of your heart, nudging you. He's been there for a while, and you know it. He's not going to force His way in. He wants to be invited in because He knows your heart is troubled, and He wants to give you the peace of God from the God of peace.

So let me just go through this real quick. The A is simply for admitting or acknowledging. And this has to happen first because if you don't acknowledge that you're a sinner and still standing your own righteousness — oh, I'm a good person — well, then you're not interested in the Savior. I'll shake the sand off my slippers and move on.

I don't mean to be mean, or sound mean, but unless and until you can get someone to come to the place where they acknowledge that they've broken God's law and they're on death row for all eternity, you can't go any further. And sometimes it might mean you have to take them to the law to show them because that's what the law is for, the Ten Commandments, to show us: Us as God sees us. Whoa! I've broken every single one of them and then some. And then even more.

Romans 3:10 says to the one who says, "I'm a good person," no, you're not. "There's no one good, [No one righteous] not even one," save one, Jesus, the Christ, who fulfilled the law, didn't abolish it, fulfilled it.

Romans 3:23. This should end the discussion, as far as being a good person and standing in your own righteousness and your good deeds and your works. Man, just wait till I'm standing before God. I'm gonna pull out, you know because my — the good far outweighs the bad. Well, I don't think it's going to end well for you because "...All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

So what's your plea? Can I change it from not guilty to guilty? I think you're gonna have to because that's Romans 6:23. I'm guilty as charged. Here comes the sentence. It's the death sentence, "for the wages of sin is death." But here's the good news. "The gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Gift/wages. Do you see that the contrast? Wages you earn. Gift you receive. You don't pay for it. If you do, you're just — it's a purchase. It's no longer a gift. No, He paid for it in full, period. What did it cost Him? Everything. His life. Why? "Because no greater love hath any man that He would lay down his life for another.” Love. Love. “And that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.”

So please, I — if you made it with me this far, which those of you here obviously have, I don't know about online, I just plead with you, please, please, please believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord and that God raised Him from the dead. And this is not a “Yeah, I believe in God. I believe in Jesus.”

No, no, no, no, no, no, no. You're putting all your trust in believing in not your own righteousness, but Christ's imputed righteousness. Because see, here's how it works. When you acknowledge, admit that you've sinned, you're guilty and have been since the death. You're on death row.

Jesus says, “Get out of there. I'll take your place. I'll go to your death in your stead.”

“Why would you do that for me?”

“Because I love you with an unfathomable love.”

Romans 10:9 says, “if you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, you will be saved.” Now this is so central, the “believe.” Yeah, that's John 3:16. Everybody knows that. And everybody's dog now knows that, I think, too. But Jesus said, “Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.” You want to know what's in someone? Listen to what comes out of someone. If bitterness is in their heart, what's coming out? Bitterness. Anger. What's coming out of their mouth? Anger. Jesus. What's coming out? Jesus? Is that too simplistic?

Romans 10:9 also says, “If you confess with your mouth...” I mean, it's almost a result that you can't contain. Paul would say it this way: “The love of Christ constrains me.” I mean, Jeremiah Chapter 20, which is — Jeremiah has become a really good friend of mine, I just want you to know ahead of time, by the way, Chapter 20 in particular, You burn. You've ruined me. You burned a fire in me that I can't hold in. It has to come out.

And Romans 10:13, lastly says, “All who call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.” Well, this isn't a got-to, this is a “you will do.” Let me try again. Listen, if you if you believe in your heart with all your heart, trusting in Jesus, I'm telling you, man, the only thing it's going to come out of your mouth is Jesus. There's no more time. There's no more time. If you're still online, there's no more time. And tomorrow is not guaranteed, by the way. Please, I — I would just implore you to take this seriously. Because this is eternal life and eternal death.

I chose today's "But God Testimony" for reasons that I think you'll understand in a moment. It comes from Deborah Nikyi who writes, "Dear Pastor JD, my name is Deborah, I'm Ghanian [From Ghana]. I came to China 2019, October [Bad timing] as a master student. A few months into my enrollment everything changed in the world We were locked up in the school, at our hostels. It was a very hard time for me. And going through YouTube, I came across your video because I love Prophecy Updates.

To cut the story short, [I wish I could do that] [Yeah, sorry] during this hard time I was praying and listened to the word of God every day, but the shot hadn't started yet. I was praying for God to help me find a job since if you are a student, you can't even work legally in China.

First, God gave me a job later in 2020 in a very renowned language school in China, legally. A few months after getting such a good job we were told we had to be vaccinated. But at that time, your word had already been planted in my life. [I think the word of God had been planted in her life]

So, I decided to ask the Holy Spirit. Pastor JD, I heard it clearly: DO NOT TAKE IT. [All caps] I asked the Holy Spirit, "How am I going to do this? Because you know how this country is and how the whole system is so centralized that you are monitored, so much that everything you are doing, they know. It's even worse when you are a foreigner."

But God. All of a sudden, I started to have an allergic reaction that I don't know where it came from. Whenever I eat, when I go home from work, I get swollen every night. And then in the morning everything goes back to normal. I took these pictures. [She gave me permission]

I talked to my PA because the school gives every foreign teacher a PA who speaks English and can assist you if your Chinese is not that fluent. We went to the hospital, and they ran tests, and they said I don't have an allergy, but they don't know why. [Hmhm]

Then the doctor said, "I'm sorry she can't take the vaccine because she is a foreigner, and she is having an allergic reaction, which we can't trace the source of. If we forced her to take the vaccine, anything could happen, and we might not know the consequence."

The doctor told the PA not to allow the school to have me vaccinated. The senior HR messaged me that the school arranged with the vaccination center, where my colleagues were getting vaccinated, but unfortunately, I couldn't join because of my allergies. They approved an exemption for me, and I can still work. They can't risk the reputation of the school.

So Pastor JD, that was how I was not vaccinated. I see my colleagues going for shots every single time. [Now listen to this part.] The allergic reaction continued consistently for almost seven to eight months. When everything was over about the vaccination, then the allergic reaction stopped.

Yes, Pastor JD, from 2021 to 2025 to this day I've never experienced that again and with no medication. Later, I realized that yes, this was the doing of the Lord. This was a blessing in disguise. God was exempting me from something else because only He knows the future. I'm sharing this testimony to encourage my fellow believers that we should ask God before we do anything.

[And then she says this] [It's like she read my Prophecy Update notes]

The devices and schemes of the enemy are so tricky. Sometimes it's so we only need the Holy Spirit. We should always pray and have consistent fellowship with the Holy Spirit because the Devil, our adversary, is a roaring lion. Trust me, the Lord will always make a way out for you. It might not look like the way you wanted, but it's what He wants.

Thank you, Pastor JD for your teachings. Hopefully, I could come to the church one day. [We'd love to have you] or we will surely meet in the air. Maranatha." I prefer the air if you don't mind. Chicken skin.

Kapono, come on up. Stand up. Again, I appreciate your patience. How's that one? I love it when God does that, man. Hmhm.

Father in heaven, You are so tender and loving, beyond comprehension, beyond words. How unfathomable. Lord, my prayer will be simple. And I'll make it short. There's only two kinds of people in this world: either lost or saved. And I pray right now for the lost that they would get saved. And I pray for the saved, that they would be encouraged. In Jesus' name. Amen.
