The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

Well, good evening. And on behalf of Pastor JD Farag, we'd like to welcome you to our Thursday night live-streamed service here at Calvary Chapel Kaneohe, where we are normally going through the Old Testament doing our line-by-line teaching.

But tonight, we will be conducting a topical study. And before we get into our study tonight, why don't we have a word of prayer and ask for the Lord's blessing upon it? Because we will need it. Join me, please.

Father in heaven, Lord, I want to thank You so much for all that You've done and continue to do. And now, Lord, I petition Your throne of grace and ask that You would bless this time that we have. We're assembled and ready for You to speak.

And I pray by the power of the Holy Spirit, You would do just that. And that I would be removed, and You would provide the useless instrument that stands behind this pulpit with the sound that everyone can receive.

So Lord, bless this body of believers and all that would hear and heed. And we thank You now, in the mighty name of Yeshua, Jesus, the Christ, we do pray, Amen.

So tonight, our study is titled The Dividing Factor. And I am completely aware that throughout the nation and the world, we have many factors that cause division. But I truly believe that there is no greater issue that has and continues to cause more division than the current crises that we face today.

And the division that it is causing is on a global scale. And it's being executed with an evil precision that nearly goes beyond belief. And I would say absent the scriptures, it would be beyond belief. But I thank God for His Word of truth.

Because in the end, this is to be expected, and we should not be dismayed, have our lives so discouraged that we just walk with our faces to the ground. These things must come to pass.

And while they are coming to pass, we have a job to do within the church. And we should really focus on our duties and fulfill being faithful servants.

But sadly, this division that we see happening on a global scale has and continues to cause much division within the church. And the devil could not be happier because the job that we are supposed to be doing as Christians is now stifled because of this division.

And it allows for all of his minions the opportunity to set up residence not only in the church, but also in our homes as believers. So what happens?

Oh, the division continues until many local churches as well as homes are consumed and destroyed. That's what we see.

And I make sure I say local churches because the church as a whole will never be consumed nor destroyed. We're told in the scriptures that the gates of hell will not prevail against it, that being the church. And I am so thankful for those words being in the scriptures, as I can imagine you are as well.

But we also know for a fact that any house that is divided will not stand. This truth is captured here in the book of Matthew, Chapter 12:25. As the Word of God reads: "But Jesus knew their thoughts,

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

and said to them: 'Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.'

This is not some suggestion. This is a statement by the Lord himself. And to me, it's one of those verses that also we do not have to expound on. It's a fact of the matter.

For every kingdom, every city, every house, if it is divided, it will not stand. In time, it will fall. And to every church, please do not forget that we are also called a house of God, how about a house of prayer, even a house of healing; divided will not stand.

And when it comes to this current crisis, the question that we as a church should be asking ourselves is: What are we divided on? And as we ask ourselves this question, it'll lead to other questions which all should be answered based on what we do know while trusting in the Lord for all that we do not know and have complete faith in the decision that we make as individuals based on who we know, and that who is none other than Jesus the Christ.

Now, as we move on, I have to make this comment because of the nature of our topic tonight. And that comment is: I truly pray that each of us would not only hear but closely listen to what is being spoken about tonight. This is a very sensitive topic. And just hearing it and seeing what's being presented in a lackadaisical way you will miss the message.

It could easily become one of those who create division and/or misunderstand my words and conclude that I'm creating division. It's been said that communication is 99.9% of the problem of all misunderstandings. Wouldn't you agree?

And I realize that. That's why I've prayed over this. I've sought wise counsel in regards to the content that we will be getting into and all of the above. Yet no matter how this message is delivered, the devil will indeed insert his minions in listening range who will then go back and provide feedback that goes directly against what is being discussed, as well as the overall intent of the message.

And for those minions and little devils, I simply say to hell with you. I need to hear this message. I need to listen and trust that the Lord will provide clarity to all who would give an ear and hear what the Lord is saying to the churches.

But in order to move on with our teaching, we're going to have to end the live-stream at this time and continue on JDFarag.org.

In the Book of Luke, Chapter 21:9-11, well-known passages, I want to take another look at these as we begin our dedicated listening right here. I believe there is a message that I know I've overlooked even reading this and studying this on several occasions.

The Word of God reads: "But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately. [Verse 10] Then He [speaking of Jesus] said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. [Verse 11] And there will be great earthquakes in various places and famines and pestilences, and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.'"

Most of us, if not all, have read this several times. So why do I read it now? And what's the point? Well, something in the text that we read grabbed my attention. And it's the fact that each one of these prophesied events that are to take place before the end of the age, all of them divide in some way.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

And before we direct our attention on what I see as the dividing factor regarding this virus, let's just look at how these all divide. First one we have is wars and rumors of wars and commotions. Now, there have been wars since the beginning of time as we know it, as well as commotions or rumors of wars.

And the Word of God provides us with detailed examples of each, not to mention historical text that we've been inundated with throughout our school. So this is nothing new, but they are intensifying as time goes on and they all cause division either on a global scale or within the countries that are involved in the conflict. Do we see this?

And we should not be fooled either because even though over the last few decades it shows a lower mortality rate within these conflicts, that does not mean that man is becoming more civilized, not at all. In fact, man is becoming more irrational and eviler.

Have you witnessed some of the things that man is doing in these laboratories? Have you not heard mixing animals and humans together? They had an embryo live for 21 days of a pig and a human. That's evil. But again, we're not to be afraid or dismayed.

Then we have the dividing of people groups. We've talked about this before regarding nation rising against nation. And the word is "ethnos" in the Greek. We talked about that meaning ethnic group rising up against ethnic group. And for this to be surging in America is bizarre.

And this is being taught in the institutions in order to aid in the devil's plan to divide and conquer. And we don't have the time to get into it, but that theory known as critical race theory, oh, yeah, that's of the devil. It's like he just wrote it and handed it to someone.

And please know that there is a book right now that champions critical race theory. It's on the recommended reading list by the chief of naval operations for the United States Navy and Marine Corps.

Division is the goal so the ultimate plan could be instituted. What about kingdoms against kingdoms? They all divide. Why?

Because every kingdom will fall absent the true and living God. Earthquakes are obvious or should be. Over time, they divide. Pressure builds up, the fault lines split. And they also create death and destruction in the process. All this will keep happening and intensify until the New World Order is birthed.

What about famines? We don't have to get into that. We know how bad they divide just by looking around. We don't even have a famine, right? And when you go to Costco, they run out of chicken, you're divide, least I am. I love chicken, man, and the commissary ran out of chicken for four months. I was pretty divided.

The point is they divide. Now I could be making too much of all of this, but I don't believe I am. At least consider it as well as what occurred some four years ago and will occur again in the year 2024 for a total of seven years. But I'm not making much of that, just an observation.

But pay attention to this path. That's what I see as signs from heaven that also divide. Take notice that in 2017, there was a total eclipse that happened across America, and its path divided the country in half. And in 2024, there will be another total eclipse that will also divide the population.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

And in doing so, from what I see, it forms a perfect X over the United States of America. A coincidence?

Sure, maybe so. But could this be at this point in time after all of this division has ran its course in the land of America and by 2024, the once most powerful nation or kingdom on the planet has been rendered irrelevant? Could it be?

I pray that we are all gone by then. But it's at least plausible. But regardless of this, the truth is America will be brought to nothing except usury at some point because, again, it is written, all division leads to destruction, and our country is divided on nearly every front. You can't even agree to disagree anymore.

You're either labeled this or that. There's no dialog, can't happen, and facts do not mean anything. And thinking for yourself is a crime. You're going against the status quo. I tell you what to think. We're all considered rebels if we have our own minds.

So why would our hope as Christians be in a divided nation and or world? I am completely baffled. That does not mean we don't expose evil and the other things we should do. But to cleave to this? That's a problem.

And now we've allowed this crisis to become the dividing factor within the church. We have to understand that this will continue to divide the world, and there's no stopping this. It's not going to stop.

Everyone could get vaccinated today. It's not going to stop the train. The church needs to see the bigger picture, expose the evil plots, so that everyone can listen, make up their minds, point them to Jesus, and we can live here without fear, no matter what's going on.

So now let's tackle the elephant in the room, which is the vaccine. And I'm gearing this conversation towards Christians. And the first order of business, like Pastor JD has done on numerous occasions, is to show from the scriptures that the COVID-19 vaccine is not the mark of the beast. Let's get this out of the way first.

And the go-to scripture for this is captured in the Book of Revelation Chapter 13:16. As the Word of God reads: "He [meaning the beast of the Earth] causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads."

Now, I hope that we understand that this will be a visible mark and not some symbolic ideology. This is not what it is. It will be known. This covers all classes of people that will be left behind. Look at the list. This will be a physical ID comprised of a mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. They will have options. But it all stands for the same thing.

And people will have to worship this beast. And we need to keep that in mind as we move on. And that's all to say that we should recognize that the COVID-19 vaccine is not the mark of the beast.

Now, I believe I should not even have to say this, but it needs to be said to ensure that we are all on the same page. So if this is not the mark of the beast, why should Christians be concerned at all even from a religious standpoint? That's the question that's kind of tiptoed around, the answer anyway.

But we're going to answer it this way. Here's why it's why I believe we should be concerned. And it's not just the fact regarding the many experimental agents that are inside these vaccines that are also

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

experimental to much of the degree it has been tested. We know that. And the other stuff in it as well that is very, very questionable; set that aside.

The big problem is churches, especially here in America, have partnered with the government promoting this vaccine that is and/or will be used to dictate to the church how we worship the true and living God. That's a problem.

Churches are promoting this vaccine like it's the answer when it's actually a part of a much bigger plan that COVID-19 is about to bring about. And getting in bed with the government is not in the best interest of the church.

People think they'll be spared. We're homies; my church is homies with the government. Listen, the government does not care about the church. The government does not overly care about the people. The government cares about power.

And of course, not everyone that works within the government can be labeled as somebody who is power hungry. That's not it. But the entire system has been positioned for this by dark powers that control it. At its core, it's corrupt to no end.

And it's kind of hard to see when you work in the government on lower levels like I did until you start going through policies and processes or even looked at C-SPAN and just dig a little bit. It doesn't take much today. When you connect the dots, you're like, wait a minute, this makes no sense. Why are we giving this country 40 trillion dollars? I know that that hurts many feelings, but it's the facts.

And it's sad that the agencies that our government oversees that are responsible to provide us with the information we need or should have to live civil lives and make informed decisions, many of them are the head of all the misinformation that we're receiving.

Misinformation is what brings about that much-wanted confusion that the enemy loves. This past Sunday during a Prophecy Update, Pastor JD made mention of what confusion leads to, and that's fear. And confusion and fear work very well together. And the link to this teaching is in the description box.

I mean, just think about it as it pertains to the vaccine and COVID-19. Confusion about what a vaccine is supposed to do has people in fear of those who have not taken the vaccine. Have you seen if you may know someone, maybe not your best friend but someone that you talk to and they don't know your status, and once they find out you're not vaccinated, it's like, whoa! I'm going to go home, man. The Lysol cans come out.

Confusion about what a coronavirus is and the origins of COVID-19 add to the fear. Haven't you heard this?

On one hand the expert says that the virus came from bats, but that would mean that the virus is transmittable between humans and animals. Okay, we got to regroup that one.

So the next expert comes out and says that it evolved from nature, natural processes. Okay, that means it can continue to evolve, right, no matter what vaccine we have?

Oh, man, we've got to scrap that one. Let's come up with something else.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

Let's just throw something - oh, maybe it's from a lab and what we did was we were trying to cure something else, but this kind of fell out and we are really confused because we're still trying to figure this out. But we have a cure that we think might work. And in the meantime, you guys just trust what we're telling you.

Or perhaps it did come from a determined group of people targeting specific genetic makeups, or attempting to, that causes people in that genetic bracket to become deathly ill.

So what is the truth? Oh, it's somewhere in there. Just be afraid, that's all, and confused.

And why do we expect the father of lies to tell us the truth? The truth is we will never hear for certainty what the truth is. And that's the goal of the enemy.

But for us Christians, we should see this automatically as pointing to the devil because he is the author of confusion. Automatic... something's up.

And even though Satan loves to cause confusion in this plan that is unfolding before our eyes, is evil, very well organized, it is not flawless, a lot of cracks here. It gives us the opportunity to ask a lot of questions.

But confusion and fear lead to division, and division leads to being conquered, and being conquered leads to being controlled. And at the end of the day sad to say it does not matter what happens at this point because the continuation of this seems to be sprinkled in the details every time you get a briefing.

You know where it's going based off of the verbiage they use. There has to be someone or a group of people to blame as this continues, as well as the upcoming lockdowns. Someone is the culprit, and it will be always those who are not vaccinated.

Maybe some you recall this article from Healthline, and of course it was - you can look at the screen - it says fact checked. You can trust that. And the link is in the description box for the whole entire article.

But the headline reads, 'Unvaccinated people are increasing the chances for more coronavirus variants - Here's how.' It was released last month.

And they go on to explain based off of science, and when you look stuff like this up, there are hundreds, if not thousands of articles like this. Listen to the devil in the details. I'm quoting.

"Experts say the uptick in COVID-19 cases is happening largely because of the number of people who remain unvaccinated.

Those of you who are not vaccinated it's your fault. Mm hmm. Still quoting; this is by a doctor speaking of the unvaccinated.

"They play a huge role. If everyone is vaccinated, eventually infections drop to zero and so do variants," Perich says.

This is the doctor now. Still quoting.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

"But if the virus has an [AN] easy host such as an unvaccinated individual, then it is easy for it to mutate into a more contagious and virulent form."

One person.

Now, a few things to note here. First of all, everyone cannot get vaccinated. There are people that just cannot. So this is dead at the door.

Number two, what is the general timeline associated with the mutation process of variants? And is it within a time frame reasonable for us to have the entire world inoculated?

And lastly, why, upon contracting COVID-19 are most hospitals and practitioners ordered just to send the people home? No treatment is even attempted to be dealt with. I mean, for the seasonal flu, at least they gave you a Z-Pack and a lollipop.

But now you could get something more deadly and they say, go home. And this was before vaccines. And then you want to tell me there's nothing bigger behind it? All right.

Nevertheless, unvaccinated people will be the target, and this will not change and the division will continue. But it does not have to and should not continue within the church.

Again, we should know that this vaccine is not about saving people's lives, nor is it about killing everyone either. It's about control. That's what this is about. And that may include population control down the line, but it's about control.

Once the division that is causing this to continue to be manifested and has finally led to the enemy conquering the fragile hearts of man, everybody will be controlled.

And before this plan reaches its fulfillment, the church will be removed and that includes those who are vaccinated or not.

No matter what that decision is, I believe that most of us have been put in this position, or we feel like this anyway: Damned if I do or damned if I don't.

And this is a real problem and a real issue that we need to deal with head on. And what I've come to realize and continue to learn throughout this process is thankfully, I do not, nor can I have the answer for every single household.

And I'm glad I do not have that responsibility to make a decision for everybody to pull the trigger this way or the other. That is for individuals and perhaps the heads of households.

But there must be an answer that fits every single household. And this is how I get there. This is just my method. Start off by asking myself basic questions.

And in regards to the vaccine, I say to myself, do you see where this is going? And then I have to discuss with myself and answer the question: Yes, I see it.

Okay. Then I ask myself, have you counted the cost? Have some dialog.

Yep, I have. Okay.

Then I sort of pray and run back to these doors to try to open one of them up, and this is what I see.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

Now, I'm at the Fear, so you do, or Fear, so you don't.

And this is a major problem.

As Christians, we cannot open up any door based on fear. This is a bad place to be because it's a reaction in the flesh and not in the Spirit, and God knows the hearts of men.

So now guess what? I have to turn around and go back and regroup and get rid of this fear because even if I made a decision out of fear - so I made my choice out of fear and things were going well for a little while - at some point another moment would come up that's fearful.

And now, just to have some temporary relief, I would default to making choices out of fear. And that would be my mode of operation.

Now, how is that pleasing to the true and living God? So I'm regrouping, right? Then I ask myself some more questions. Is this an informed decision?

I say, okay, yes.

Then I ask myself, have I sought wise counsel on this?

Then I say, okay, yes, got that done too.

Then meditate and I pray on it. And then I get into God's Word and ask Him to turn over every holy stone so I can see anything that I missed that would aid in the decision that I'm about to make.

And then I stand up and I boldly go back to these doors. And when I go back, this is what I see.

The door in faith is already open. It's open. I don't have to deal with some ambiguous theme. It's there because the decision is made out of faith. God makes it clear.

And I walk through and I do not have to be concerned what's on the other side of that door. God's going to honor it. He opened it for me.

So now, honestly, ask yourself as I had to do and continue to do: Is the decision that you have made for you or perhaps your family, was it done in faith? It must be done in faith and faith alone.

The Bible tells us clearly as it is written, "For whatever is not from faith is sin." Romans, chapter 14:23.

And now my process is not the end-all tell-all process, but it works for me. But what is textbook from the Book of books is that acts done in faith does not go unnoticed by the true living God. God indeed honors them.

Months ago when we were about to leave the island an act of faith, God opened doors for us. And that decision, choice to stay here also included knowing where this was going. And that I would never see, probably never see some of my children again face-to-face, nor my mother, nor my father. But it was made out of faith and God has honored it.

On Sunday mornings, we are currently in the book of Hebrews and it's more than appropriate for us to look at this well-known passage captured in Chapter 11:6.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

As the Word of God reads: "But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for He who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him."

Faith in God is the key.

Early on, I would love to seek someone who can give me wise counsel, but I was looking for the answer. I want you to give me the answer so I don't have to make that decision.

So when it goes wrong, I could come back and say, you told me to do this and it didn't work. I wanted to remove my responsibility from making a decision. That's not good business.

And in times like these, sometimes we want to see teachers and preachers of God's Word and say, make the choice for me.

Uh uh, I'm not. I can't have your faith. I have my own.

Don't get me wrong now. Teachers and preachers of God's Word indeed need to teach and preach and guide people biblically. But there is a responsibility that each of us has as individuals. We cannot divorce ourselves from that. When we do, it turns out very, very bad.

And if you think that you can levy that on someone, just look at this, look what the verse says. He who comes to God. Individual effort here; you must seek Him diligently. Individual effort. Must be done in faith.

God has all of our answers. Because if you are diligently seeking Pastor Mac, you have really messed your life up. Don't trust in me or man; trust in the Lord. Hear ye Him; Hear ye Him.

Please know that I know people on both sides of this. And God is honoring them and using them mightily based off their faith, not their fear.

Now, when talking about COVID-19 being a bioweapon, most people equate the conversation or anything like it as a major conspiracy theory. And one of the main reasons they come with this is they say statements such as why would anyone or any country do something such as this that would impact the entire world?

They go on to say, I mean, wouldn't a bio weapon be used in a way that would get rid of a certain group of people or maybe one nation, not the entire world? And besides, shouldn't they have the antidote? Who put this thing out there if that was the case?

Well, the answer is this: We are not dealing with just anyone or any country who is in control of this. Again, we are dealing with dark spiritual powers and principalities. This is what we are dealing with. And the one who holds sway over the entire world is the one who's playing the cards. Satan himself. And Satan is conspiring, by the way. And he uses the evil hearts of men to do his bidding.

One of them is Bill Gates. And if you have not looked him up and all the things he's into, you should do so. Ask yourself this simple question. He is on TV administering shots to people. Absolute power corrupts absolutely.

One of the devil's ultimate plans from the beginning was to be worship and that requires complete control. The first stage of this is to gain economic control, which COVID-19 is doing. And I truly

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

believe that this vaccine at some point will usher in the mechanism that will decide your economic status. It will be tied to it and much more than that.

We could see glimpses of it. It's on the horizon. But let's just stay with the near future. We can likely expect more lockdowns and division, additional restrictions for those who are unvaccinated; we see that now,

A shortage of test kits or they completely run out, refusal of medical care, increased medical costs for those who are not vaccinated, higher inflation on all fronts. Have you noticed food prices? Some items tripled in a week.

More changes to government policies, both on the federal and state level, the inability to schedule routine maintenance, simple things. You want an oil change? Five months from now. Get on YouTube and learn how to do it yourself.

More business closures, lack of medical staff and front-line workers, as well as a continued spike in cases because the variate will be epsilon, gamma, Jupiter, Pluto, there's no end.

And all it would take is just a sister crisis to come alongside, and now we need a global reset. How about a cybersecurity attack along with all of this? And you can just see what happens.

The podium's set. The leader comes up and makes that speech, and he tries to say we're all together but point blame. We could have averted this. We did our best. But the refusal of the few has caused this nightmare. We're not to treat them differently. We love them.

And I don't see these things to spark fear. It's just what I see that's coming to some degree.

Now, how far would this go before the church is removed? I do not know. But what I do know is that this division in the church is making it too easy for the enemy. And it's not something that the church is going to fix anyway.

We need to remain faithful and occupy until He comes and not be so preoccupied that we forget He's coming. That's the problem. We have a duty and let us finish the race strong no matter where this goes. And while this vaccine will aid an economic and governmental patrol because it will, large in part because of the division it's creating.

People are still looking for answers. They're looking. And now we have many of the churches out of reach because of this division. So these people are looking in the wrong places. And this will continue to fuel spiritual movements when man is left to his own devices.

When you have the opportunity, I would encourage you to look up this unnoticed movement going on, post-secularism. In a nutshell, what it is, is the theory or movement that is happening, having this idea that religious and secular practices will merge, basically forming a new religion using customs associated with many other religions, coexisting, if you will.

And again, with many churches just as divided as the world is the search continues for answers elsewhere, especially in the Far East, is what many people look. They love mysticism. But the countries in the Far East are watching the demise of the countries in the West. They're looking at how we're falling apart.

September 16, 2021

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

So they're removing from their culture Western ideas. They see what it leads to. Even they are smart enough to figure this out. They are returning to some of their former religious practices, and we are in the age of spirituality like no other.

And as this crisis continues to take away freedoms and rob people from their hopes and dreams, once the tribulation begins, it is safe to say that people would be ready to follow anyone who would be able to lead and bring such a chaotic world back to some form of peace and security.

Are we tracking? This is what's to come. And thank God we will not be here to witness this.

But this is what is seen taking place in Revelation Chapter 6:1-2. As the Word of God reads: "Now I saw when the lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see."

Verse 2, "And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him and he went out conquering and to conquer."

I can't spend too much time on this, but this is what this is. The first thing I want to make sure we understand this is not Jesus. Many people teach that this is Jesus. This is not Jesus at all.

This is a picture of the rise of the Antichrist. And also notice in verse 2 how he has a bow with no arrow. Just a bow. And that's because he faces little to no opposition. No need for it.

And he is able to go on conquering and to conquer. He was given the crown, by the way.

So the bow of strength and he's able to go unabated, given this position of authority and headship, and he conquers perhaps with policies alone, as well as the support of the nations that he influences, which will be all of them, by the way.

And as the world gravitates to this Antichrist and it seems like things are beginning to come in order, verses 3-4 happen.

Jesus takes peace from the earth. And believe it or not, COVID-19 along with this vaccine is a major part of how he is going to gain complete control and eventually be worshipped.

This is where all of this is headed. And the Bible clearly speaks to this as the world will converge being economical, governmental, and religious in every respect.

So with our time left on this earth, we cannot afford to allow this pestilence to divide us within the church. Why are we concerned with what somebody chose to do if they are following the Lord Jesus Christ? If they did it in faith, it's none of our business.

In fact, this is how we get rid of all of it. When people ask me, have you been vaccinated? I'm like, yeah, I've been vaccinated. Like you have been? Yes, I've been vaccinated. I've been vaccinated in the blood of Jesus Christ. What about you?

[Applause]

Oh, you haven't? We need to sit down and talk about it. You don't have to go nowhere to get this vaccine. We could talk about it right now. I got some on me and a lot of it in me. So let's discuss it.

The Dividing Factor

Pastor Mac

And guess what? There's no needle associated with it. And it's free, but not like their free one because that has side effects. This one doesn't. In fact, the moment you take it, death is gone.

That's how we should approach this as the church and stay faithful and committed to doing the works that the Lord has placed us in wherever we are and that lot in our time in this life.

Don't concern ourselves with everything that's going to happen and whatnot. Be prudent, but not paranoid. Let's live for the Lord. Let's do all in faith and do all of God's will called upon our lives. Why don't we stand so we can pray?

Father in heaven, thank You, Lord, for being so faithful even when we are not. And I ask that the message that You presented would be well received by all of Your people and those who have not yet come to You, maybe they will. We're praying that they will.

And give us more opportunities to shine this light in this dark and perverted world. We should shine brighter the darker it gets. Give us the strength to do so. Renew our strength daily and keep us committed to doing Your perfect will.

We love You, we praise You, we thank You, and we trust in You in the mighty name of Yeshua, Jesus the Christ, we pray, Amen.
