DAVID: Why don't you pray with me? Lord, we lift up this time to You giving You all the thanks and all the blessings You have placed upon us, Lord. We leave them this time to You, Lord, as we get into Your word, Lord. Would you speak our hearts? Keep our eyes and our minds always focused on You as our Pastor JD gives Your word. We thank You and we praise You. In Jesus' name. Amen.

PASTOR JD: Amen and amen. Good morning. Welcome. So glad you're here. You can be seated. Those of you online joining us, we want to welcome you as well. This is the first of two Sunday morning services that we have, and we devote it to Bible prophecy with these weekly Bible Prophecy Updates.

And then Second Service — now, I know on the mainland and for those of you online, you had Daylight Savings Time. We don't have that here. Nah-na-na-na-na. No. So 11:15 a.m. Hawaii Standard Time is the Second Service that will be livestreamed. The worship will start at 10:45 on the website, and it's our verse-by-verse study through the Bible, and that's the sermon, Second Service.

And our text today will be Mark 1, verses 9 through 13, in what I'm going to call an important sermon, not to say that the sermons aren't important. But this one in particular is extremely important. I've titled it 'Jesus Shows Me How to Resist Satan's Temptations.' And what we're going to see are three reasons as to why it is and how it is that we can successfully resist Satan's temptations, as did Jesus in His love for us as a model to us. And that'll be, again, 11:15 a.m. Hawaii Time.

Now, those of you on YouTube or Facebook, just this is just a friendly reminder that you may wish to, we'd really encourage you to go to the website, JDFarag.org, or the TV channels or apps. We have all the links in the description. They include the Apple App Store, Google Play, Amazon, Apple Store, Roku TV Channel store, etc. So there you can view the entirety of today's Prophecy Update.

So with that, let's get to it. Today's update was actually scheduled for last week, but it was really birthed out of being compelled to cover what I'm going to call 'The Big Controversy with Bible Prophecy.' Now, what I'm speaking of is none other than what you've heard of: AI, effects added, and by extension the sole goal of replacing — the replacing of God and humans created in the image of God. How? Vis-à-vis AI's demonic deception and delusion of transhumanism.

Now, I know what you're thinking. And again, remember, now I can read your mind. So be careful. Pastor, haven't you done many deep dives on AI in the past? Yes, I have. And I'm so glad you remembered. So why are you doing another one today? Because there have been, and this is, for lack of a better word, significant, massive developments, major developments in AI that I would be grossly remiss were I not to apprise you of them.

As the Lord would have it, I began preparing today's Prophecy Update on AI Monday morning, February 23rd, and subsequently our office would receive two emails about AI that same day on Monday afternoon, February 23rd. That's what I call what the word of God calls "let everything be established in the presence of two or more witnesses."

I had already started that morning and again was compelled to focus in on this particular topic and its prophetic significance, given the mind-boggling advances. And that was in the morning. I won't tell you how early, but it was early. You can yawn now. Then that afternoon our amazing staff, you know, forwarded me an email. Do you — these are about AI. Do you want them? I said yeah, send them; that's perfect timing.

And so they were two online members, and for me it was a confirmation from the Lord that I was on cover this prophecy controversy specifically. And it is a prophecy that stirs controversy. However, as you know, I preempted and postponed this Update, which I had planned for last Sunday, March 1st, in order to address the breaking news about the US, Israel, and Iran.

In so doing, though, the Lord opened my eyes during that time. It's amazing. You know I heard a great illustration that might seem like a firm grasp of the obvious at first but just hear me out. The longer you spend in a room, the more you'll see in that room. The longer you spend in the Word, the more you'll see from the Word. So the Lord, in His grace and mercy, gave me much-needed time. And so I've had three weeks on this. So we're going to be here for about 3 hours. No, we're not.

[Laughter]

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

But it's like when you give the Holy Spirit elbow room and time and space, boy, be ready because your eyes are going to be opened. And my eyes were opened, specific to the role of AI in this fast-moving and swift-developing war, by the way, of prophetic significance. Make no mistake about it. The deployment and involvement of AI in this war, which as of today is day nine of this war, is the likes of which we've never seen before.

Do you want to know why? AI. I can tell by the look on your faces we're not off to a good start. So let me try that again. Do-over. I'll rephrase. You have no idea, which is why I sensed from the Lord that I was constrained even to address and update you on the developments of AI, because as we speak, what's happening with the US and Israel in Iran and now broadly — you can look right at it, take all the layers off of it, look right at the core of it, and what are you going to find? AI.

Okay. Can I just say — please, this is a plea. Don't let, keyword, yourself be deceived and be so naive as to believe that this new and extremely precise AI technology is not a key factor in what's now happening and even escalating into what will soon be happening. Fast forward to this week. Okay. So now I had, you know, well, I guess two weeks, right? Am I — everything is a blur for me. And I have an excuse, so... And if you don't like that excuse, I got four more. You can just pick the one you like.

Fast forward to this week and this Update, which I now know beyond any doubt, not a reasonable doubt, but beyond any doubt that it was the Lord who prompted me to postpone it for today and not do this last Sunday. Let me explain. Four days ago is Thursday, March 5th. We receive yet another AI email from an online member, which not only confirmed why but also checked all the boxes and explained why. You have those light bulb moments. Kellie used to — my wife — called them God winks. That was Me. (Chuckling) I love God winks. This was God.

See, these online members don't know each other and didn't know, couldn't know that I was working on this. But here's what they did know. The Lord, who was compelling me to do this. So as only the Lord knew and as only the Lord can, He put it on the heart of this online member on Thursday, as well as the two online members that Monday, to email us what they had when they had, particularly Thursday.

It comes from Neil, who writes, quote, “Hi there. I just wanted to share a document that may be of interest, pertaining to artificial intelligence, [AI.] specifically Google AI. It’s significance to Bible prophecy has the potential for “reaching people.” Use it. Don’t use it. Entirely up to you. Cheers, Neil.”

That's a Europe thing, isn't it? Cheers. Yeah, well, as you can see, I'm going to use it, but I'm going to do so by making reference to it. But in the interest of time, I won't quote from it even though I've read through it. And the reason is it's a 340-page PDF file. I'm waiting for the gasps.

[Laughter]

So instead, our amazing team/staff will provide a link to it for those wishing to read through it, which please hear my heart on this. I truly, truly, truly hope you will because it has the propensity to singlehandedly seal the deal for you as it did for me. The title of this 340-page PDF file is as follows: 'Conversations with Google AI on God, Jesus, Prophecy, Science, and Artificial Intelligence.' AI.

To say that this is a game changer would be an understatement of understatement. And it's for this and the other reasons that today the Lord made it clear, as He did back on that Monday that we're to zoom in on number 6 from the list. You remember the list three weeks ago that I subjected you to on Sunday, February 15th? The list was and is an aerial view of just ten significant prophetic developments within the last five months, all of which, and this is important, point to the suddenness and the nearness of the pre-Tribulation rapture.

Man, look up. Our redemption draws oh so near. And be of good cheer, especially those of you who maybe came today or are watching online today that are really struggling or hurting. Good news. Not much longer.

Well, what is number 6 on the list? The swift and unprecedented advances in AI careening towards the replacing of [Listen carefully] God's name on our human DNA. Did you know that? The Tetragrammaton. YHWH. The Orthodox Jews don't use the vowels. YHWH. Yahweh. Four. The human genetic code: Four. God's name is on the human DNA.

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

Well, that explains everything. It explains why the demonic deception to alter the human DNA and render the human as transhuman is in full swing. Because Jesus came and became a human to redeem man. Don't you think Satan knows that? I'm going to go fast. I'll — I asked the Lord to just, by the Holy Spirit and the self-control of the Holy Spirit, restrain from inserted commentary. You might have other words for insert — my inserted commentary — so I'm just going to quote from Yuval Noah Harari's speech at the World Economic Forum on January 23rd.

Quoting, “There is one question that every leader today must answer about AI. But to understand that question, we first need to clarify a few points about what AI is and what AI can do. The most important thing [The most important thing] to know about AI is that it is not just another tool. It is an agent. A knife is a tool. You can use a knife to cut salad or to murder someone, but it is your decision what to do with the knife. AI is a knife that can decide by itself whether to cut salad or to commit murder.

The second thing to know about AI is that it can be a very creative agent. AI is a knife that can invent new kinds of knives, as well as new kinds of music, medicine, and money. The third thing to know about AI is that it can lie and manipulate. [Still quoting and restraining.] [I'm just going to trust that the Holy Spirit will open your eyes and your ears and your hearts to the reality, the severity, the intensity of what I am quoting to you today.] [Quote]

Many people observe words popping into their mind and forming sentences, and the sentences then forming arguments, like: “All humans are mortal. I am human. Therefore, I am mortal.” If thinking really means putting words and other language tokens in order, then AI can already think much better than many, many humans. [Are you feeling stupid right now?] [Oh yeah. I'm trying to restrain. Sorry.]

AI can certainly come up with a sentence like, “AI thinks, therefore AI is I Am.”

[Huh.] [And then he goes on to say this.] Anything made of words will be taken over by AI. If religion is built from words, then AI will take over religion. This is particularly true of religions based on books, like Islam, Christianity, or Judaism.”

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

And then he does this. He quotes, better said misquotes John 1:1. He is quoting the Bible now. Listen. Never mind. I don't want... Restraint, restraint, restraint. "The Bible says, 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was made flesh.'"

Restraint, restraint, restraint. Now watch what he says immediately after he says that in his misquoting of scripture. "The Tao Te Ching says..."

Wait. The Bible says.... But this... am I pronouncing it right?

[This guy says] "The truth that can be expressed in words is not the absolute truth."

Boom. You know what he just did there? This is not infallible anymore. This is not absolute truth anymore. Huh.

And then he says this, quote, "Everything made of words will be taken over by AI." [Still quoting.] "Previously, all the words, all our verbal thoughts, originated in some human mind. Soon, most of the words in our minds will originate in a machine."

And then he takes an interesting turn, an interesting corner, and starts talking about immigrants. That's a hot-button topic today, isn't it? Listen to what he says. Quote.

"The immigrants will not be human beings coming in fragile boats without a visa or trying to cross a border in the middle of the night. The immigrants will be millions of AIs that can lie better than us, and that can travel at the speed of light. [Hmm.] [Restraint.] [Quote still.]

Like human immigrants, these AI immigrants will bring various benefits with them. We will have AI doctors to help in our healthcare systems, AI teachers to help in our education systems, and even AI border guards to stop illegal human immigrants. The AI immigrants will take many human jobs."

Can I just insert one little commentary here? It's not the AI immigrants will take many human jobs. The AI immigrants even now are taking many human jobs.

[Still quoting.] "The AI immigrants will completely change the culture of every country. They will change religion and even romance. Suppose some AI persons create a new religion which gains the faith of millions of people. That should not sound too far-fetched because, after all, almost all previous religions in history have claimed that they were created by a non-human intelligence.

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

Now, will your country extend freedom of religion to the new AI sect and to its AI priests and missionaries? AI bots have been operating as functional persons for at least a decade.”

2016. A decade. Ten years. 2026. Ten years. 2016. “If you think AIs should not be treated as persons you should have acted ten years ago. [Oh.]

Ten years from now, [So here's the sway] [Ten years ago. Ten years from now.] [2016, 2026, 2036] Ten years from now, it will be too late for you to decide whether AIs should function as persons in the financial markets, in the courts and in the churches. Somebody else will already have decided it for you. If you want to influence where humanity is going, you need to make a decision now.” [Close quote.]

Well, I've already made my decision. I have decided to follow Jesus. If you'll kindly allow me to, I'll first read and explain the prophecy in Daniel, Chapter 2, then quote the first two online member's emails to our office. You're welcome to join me. I'd encourage you to do so. Daniel, Chapter 2, beginning in verse 40.

This is the prophecy given to Daniel as it is interpreted to the king. And only Daniel is given the gift of interpretation of the ruling empires from front to finish, from the beginning to the end.

And he comes to “...this fourth kingdom, [Which some have likened to, connected with the [Fourth] Fourth Industrial Revolution. How about this one? The Fourth Reich. German. Reich means rule.] shall be as strong as iron, inasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything. And like iron that crushes, that kingdom will break in pieces and crush all the others.

Whereas you saw the feet and toes, [Ten toes] partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, the kingdom [This is the dream he had.] [And now Daniel's interpreting it prophetically.] the kingdom shall be divided, yet the strength of the iron shall be in it just as you saw the iron mixed with ceramic clay.

And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, [Partly of iron = machine = AI] [And partly of clay = human] so the kingdom shall be partly strong, partly fragile, [And here's why. Verse 43.]

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, [And this is extremely — did I already use extremely? Okay.] [This is crucial.] [Have I used that word yet? [This is — I'm gonna take it up a notch.] [This is excruciatingly important. [Probably not the right way to say it, but you...]

As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men [Transhumanism], but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.”

Okay. You'll forgive the bluntness with which I say this, but this profound prophecy is as crucial as it is controversial and this due in large measure to its misunderstanding and its misinterpretation. Stay in there with me.

Sadly, it's been misinterpreted over the years and taught by many, and I have to confess, myself included, as being fulfilled by way of a revived Roman Empire. Now, I in no way wish to entirely exclude a revived Roman Empire, which may play a minor role. I'm compelled, again, to include AI as playing the major role. And here's how I get there. This often-missed, misunderstood, and misinterpreted detail in verse 43 — in fact, it's almost overlooked. Like it's not even in the Bible, it's not even part of the prophecy. It's not only part of the prophecy; it's the key part of the prophecy.

What are you talking about? Verse 43 is the key. That rhymes. “Mingling with the seed of men.” Were it not for this specificity in this prophecy, I'd be more comfortable with the more conventional and certainly less controversial teaching about these ten toes in Daniel, which comport with the ten horns by John in Revelation.

The more conventional and again, certainly less controversial teaching is that the ten kings' rule over ten regions, and it will come to pass with the world being divided into ten regions by the Club of Rome. Have a nice afternoon. Bye.

Wait, wait, wait, wait. What about verse 43? Isn't that the key? Verse 43. That's the key. So much so that this is where the controversy comes because it's not so much about ten kings over ten regions. The controversy is this dismissing of the Prophet Daniel's detail, by the Holy Spirit about mingling with the seed of men.

Prophecy Update The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy Pastor JD

And one need look no further than Genesis to see the Bible interpreting the Bible. It's known as Hermeneutics, which is a word that makes me sound smarter than I am.

Hermeneutics: The Bible interpreting the Bible. What a novel idea.

Well, this as it relates to the [Listen carefully] alteration and corruption of the genetics of humankind's DNA. What's the seed of men? Human DNA. Now I say that for two reasons, the first of which is the prophecy in the Bible about the enmity between the Seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent in Genesis 3:15.

By the way, this is the first prophecy in the Bible, and it comes when sin comes into the world and with it, the curse on Adam and Eve and now the serpent. And God says, "I will." For those of you that are with us on Thursday night, we don't read past or fast when we read, "I will." Why? Because when God says, "I will," guess what? He will. "I will put enmity between you and the woman." [Human.] The Seed of the woman.

Wait, wait, wait, wait. "And between your seed and her Seed." Wait. The women, the women, (Stumbling over words) Do-over. The woman doesn't have the seed. The woman has the egg that's fertilized by the man who has the seed. Is that too much? You know what this prophecy is? The virgin birth of the savior of the world.

So in the Middle Eastern culture, even to this day, this is better understood because of the cultural dynamics when you talk about the seed. So what God is doing here is cursing Satan by telling him that He will put enmity between him and the woman, Israel, and between his serpent seed, nonhuman seed, and her Seed, the human seed.

And then — again, this is — I love this. Genesis 3:15 should be marked, highlighted, put emojis on there if you want — if you're on a device, whatever — in every one of your Bibles. Because now comes the prophecy about both the crucifixion and subsequently the resurrection. "He shall bruise your head, [Resurrection.] and you shall bruise His heel. [Crucifixion.] That's a pretty packed verse right there.

Well, are you going to unpack it? Well, if you want me to, I'd be happy to. But the second reason, which will shed light, I hope, and perhaps more importantly, is in the correct interpretation of Genesis 6:9. Let me read it. Genesis 6:9. "This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect in his generations. Noah walked with God."

Prophecy Update The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy Pastor JD

Now, when I say correct interpretation and I read the verse that is incorrectly interpreted, I'm going to back it up. Because we'll read that verse and go, he was upright, righteous in that generation. That's not what it means. Let's get this right. Let's correct — correctly interpret, rightly divide the word of God.

And let's start with the word “perfect.” In the original language of the Old Testament Hebrew, it's the Hebrew word, ta-mim. It's the same word in my native tongue of Arabic, pronounced ta-mam. So let's just say for purposes of discussion, somebody in Arabic were to come to me and ask me, “How are you doing?” And I were to answer them in Arabic. My answer would be something along the lines of Kul ishee maaye ta-mam.

Translated: Everything with me is perfectly and completely intact. This is a graphic from my Bible, one of my Bible software programs showing the interpretation and translation of the Hebrew word ta-mim from the King James version of 1900 into English.

Note that this word is translated as “complete,” “unscathed,” “intact,” “whole,” “perfect,” “undefiled,” “without spot,” “without blemish.”

Now let's couple this word “perfect” with the word “generations” so we can correctly interpret Genesis 6:9. The word “generations” in Hebrew is translated “genealogy,” “genome,” or “genetics.”

Well, that changes the whole complexion of it doesn't it? So the literal translation of Genesis 6:9 should be as follows: Noah was perfectly intact in his genetic profile. In other words, his human DNA had not been corrupted by the non-human DNA, as had the human gene pool in Noah's day.

Wait, what? What are you talking about? Oh, this by way of the “fallen ones” mingling, not mingle.com. Is that still the thing? These are fallen ones, non-human entities mingling their non-human seed with the women's human seed who they — and this is key to — married, having been given in marriage— that's a cultural dynamic again — producing Nephilim as we're told in Genesis 6, 1 through 4.

And by the way, this is why God was forced, really, to judge the world with the flood, given that humankind's DNA was mingled and defiled with non-human DNA. Are you with me? I like how one very well-known and very respected Bible commentator so aptly put it. Quote: This description of Noah, unique to him, not only refers to the righteous life of Noah, but also to the fact that he was yet uncorrupted by Satan's attempt to sow a virus among the genetic pool of mankind. We could translate "perfect in his generations" as Noah was pure in his genetic profile.

Hey, Pastor, we know you're grieving, and you know we know you're hurting. And for those of you that were here on Thursday night we know that you missed verse 3. I probably shouldn't have said anything because. So what are you doing, and why are you doing what you're doing? Because this is so crucial and so controversial that it rises to the level in Bible prophecy that the Savior himself would connect it to the big and ultimate prophecy of His return at the end.

Matthew 24:37 through 39, "But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Now, there's some details that we're going to read, and I hope we do so, like I talked about last week, with no bias; we checked those at the door. Did you guys get your bias checked at the door? Okay. No preconceived notions, just fresh fire on the altar of our understanding of God's word.

[Verse 38] "For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, [And this is not understood in the West.] marrying and given in marriage." [Meaning that the father would have to give the daughter in marriage.]

We don't do that anymore. I mean, if a young man asked for — the father for his daughter's hand in marriage, he'd probably drop on the floor. Who does that? "Marrying and giving in marriage until the day that Noah entered the ark and did not know until the flood came and took them all away [And then the Savior says this.] so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Stay with me, because this brings me to the first email I mentioned earlier, which is from Gary R. Flamm, who writes, quote, "I always expected, someday, I may have to deal with this. Well, that day is NOW! Golden 1 Credit Union in Sacramento has just shut off account access to members unless they sign up for their new AI digital banking platform. Sign-on includes providing another photocopy of a government ID plus a real time photo of yourself, transmitted over your phone, as part of the sign-on process. Although many have already signed on, others of us have been unable to get through the process, [That's good.] without our phone locking up. [That's good.] Therefore, we have not had access to our bank accounts for around three days now. Although I don't think this qualifies as the mark it's pretty close." [And you're pretty right.]

The second email, which I'm actually going to quote from as the "But God" testimony, which will be more of a testimony, included two links, the first of which is titled "Last Week Silicon Valley Built a 'God' and Gave it a Superiority Complex." The subtitle: "How Google Just Made Mankind Obsolete."

Is this all starting to kind of fit together now? Here's a quote under the heading of "The Death of Human Supremacy." "Here's what happened while you were doomscrolling through your daily existential dread. [He had me right there.] [And this is, by the way — we're going to talk about this more in a moment — this is not a professing Christian.]

"Google announced their Willow quantum chip solved a problem in two hours that would take the world's fastest supercomputer 3.2 years. Not 3.2 days. Years. We just crossed a threshold we can't uncross. But that's not the scary part."

That's not that the scary part? I'm already terrified. Of course, I'm not terrified because Jesus is a coming to take me out of this place before. That's not the scary part. Okay, well, then, pray tell, what is the scary part? "The scary part is what they're not telling you about where this leads."

"The AM stood for Allied Mastercomputer before it woke up and decided it really meant 'I AM.'"

I'm waiting for some more gasps. Okay. Oh, it gets much worse or better, depending on how you want to see it.

[Quoting.] "The science fiction we've been consuming for 150 years isn't entertainment. It's prophecy. We keep writing the same story because deep down, we know how this ends.

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

The engineers building this technology are telling us there's a reasonable chance it ends civilization."

Well, I could have told you that right here, because that's what my Bible says. Huh. What a coincidence. No such thing.

[Still, quoting. This one is chilling.] "We're uploading our consciousness to social media platforms owned by AI companies. We're letting algorithms decide what we see, read, believe, buy, date. We're outsourcing our cognitive functions one app at a time. The takeover doesn't need to be violent. It just needs to be convenient. We'll hand over control voluntarily as long as it makes our lives easier. We already are."

Enter the second link, which is a blog post titled, "Something Big Is Happening." Here are some pertinent excerpts from this very well written and very honest post. [Quote.] "I've spent six years building an AI startup and investing in the space. I live in this world.

I'm writing this for the people in my life who don't... my family, my friends, the people I care about who keep asking me, "Hey, so what's the deal with AI?" and getting an answer that doesn't do justice to what's actually happening. I keep giving them the polite version because the honest version sounds like I've lost my mind. [Welcome to my world.]

I told myself that was a good enough reason to keep what's truly happening to myself. But the gap between what I've been saying and what is actually happening has gotten far too big. The people I care about deserve to hear what is coming, even if it sounds crazy." [Close quote.]

I probably couldn't have said it better myself. Peter, do you love Me? Yeah. Feed my sheep. They need to know. They deserve to know. If you really care for the flock, you'll be honest with the flock. You'll be unconventional. Instead, you'll be highly controversial. Yeah, of course people are going to think you're crazy because you are. But that guy's lost his marbles. Well, that presupposes I had marbles to lose in the first place. Do you remember an Update — this was a while back. I don't expect you to. It's on, you know, online. I titled it 'Too Unbelievable To Be Believable.'

Prophecy Update
The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy
Pastor JD

And I feel this guy, man, when he's talking about, you know, just give them the polite version. They're... they won't... they can't believe... they won't believe the honest version because it's just too unbelievable to be believable. But there does come a time, and that time is now when you have to speak the truth in love because of love. And that truth is the truth and nothing but the truth. So help me God.

I don't care if you think I'm crazy. If you think I'm crazy, what are you doing here? No, I'm — that was sincere. It was not rhetorical. I'm really — I do — that is an honest question that deserves an honest answer. And for those of you online, you know, if you think I'm crazy, why are you watching me? Is that — is that fair? Is that okay? Is that crazy? Yeah, you're crazy.

[Laughter]

Cool. All right. Well, it's at this juncture that I need to circle back to day 2 of the new Administration just 48 hours subsequent to the inauguration, specifically the press conference on January 22nd, 2025, which I hope and pray will fill in the blanks of and connect the dots to this big controversy with Bible prophecy. However, in order to cover this by the rightly dividing of God's word, correctly teaching from God's word, and freely expounding on God's word, we're going to have to end the livestream on social media, and hopefully you're already at one of our apps, TV stations, or the website. So bye!

Please know that the reason for all the painstaking detail into this and all the much-needed time on this is, in a word, vaccines. Okay. Go ahead with the eye rolls and the “there he goes again.”

But while you're doing that, let me hasten to say that it's the same old lie from the father of lies, the Devil himself, only this time he's got new wrapping paper. What's this new wrapping paper? New AI technology. Put another way, this is the same way he's attempt to mingle his seed with humankind's seed as he did in the days of Noah, as the Savior, said His return, Second Coming, not pre-Tribulation rapture would be like it was in the days of Noah. You know, there's an astonishing verse, again, missed at best, misinterpreted at worst. Jesus, in that same sermon in Matthew 24, says that — asks actually — “...will I even find any faith when I return to the Earth?" "...lest those days be shortened, no flesh [Human flesh and blood, DNA] will survive."

Okay. Here's that press conference transcript, from which I'll only quote Larry Ellison, co-founder of the Oracle Corporation. We know him here in Hawaii as owning 98% of the island of Lanai. Whatever. I'm not bitter. I'm better.

He said, and I quote, [Please listen with ears to hear.] [Quoting Larry Ellison 48 hours after the inauguration.]

"So we can - again, cancer diagnosis using AI, it has the promise of just being a simple blood test." Why do you want my blood? Because I need your DNA. "Then beyond that [Still quoting] once we [Here it comes. Wait for it.] gene sequence, [That's fancy Nancy talk for we got your DNA sequence.] you can then vaccinate the person, [Yay!] design [Better understood tailor DNA-specific] a vaccine for every individual person. [Because every individual person has their own unique DNA] ...design a vaccine for every individual person to vaccinate them. And you can make that vaccine, that mRNA vaccine..."

"M" is messenger, coder. RNA sends the message and re-codes the DNA. CRISPR Cas9. Picture a scissor splicing the human DNA, cutting it out, and replacing it with something else. So that mRNA vaccine, "...you can make that robotically using AI in about 48 hours.

[Just like we're holding this press conference 48 hours after the inauguration.]

So imagine [Quoting] early cancer detection. [You'll forgive me if I get a little bit passionate about this having just watched my wife take her last breath after losing her battle with cancer and going home to be with the Lord.]

So imagine early cancer detection, the development of a cancer vaccine for your particular cancer aimed at you."

Stop. I'm almost done. Bear with me, please. I would just humbly ask you, "your particular cancer." Oh, you mean the cancer that you gave me? Huh. And now you're saying, hey, okay, forget about that. We've got a final solution for your particular cancer. And this wording "aimed at you." Come on. And here's the end of the quote.

"We will have that vaccine available in 48 hours."

Wow. What's up with 48 hours? And then he ends the quote this way, which, again, for lack of a better word, is just chilling, stunning.

[Quote.] "This is the promise of AI and the promise of the future."

No, thank you. I have no interest whatsoever in what you're promising for the future because I know the God who holds the future and what He's promised me. So get out of my face. That's not very pastoral, is it? How about thank you anyway? Is that better? Softer? Okay. I don't care. I have an audience of one.

So back to the big controversy with Bible prophecy. Dare I say that the big controversy with Bible prophecy is Bible prophecy. Did you get that? Okay. Let me — let me explain. And I'll do so by asking you a question again. Boy, you're full of questions today. Yes, I am. And I have more. I'm going to ask you this question. How controversial was Jesus? Well, think about that.

Question number 2: How controversial were the Old Testament prophets before Him, prophesying about Him, and the apostles testifying of Him after Him? How controversial were all of them? I actually have the answer. Don't you love it when the instructor gives you the answer to the question? So controversial was Jesus that He was rejected and crucified according to God's sovereign plan to redeem man. So controversial were the prophets that they were murdered, some in unthinkable ways. And so controversial were the apostles that they were martyred. What was their crime, and why were they so controversial? They spoke the truth. They were honest.

I think of Jeremiah. I have to say, even though we're in Zechariah, almost done with Zechariah, almost done with the Old Testament 21 years later. You know, I guess maybe the best way to sum it up would be this way. I know I'm controversial, but what you need to know is that being controversial, to me, is a badge of honor.

You know what my bigger concern would be? If I were not controversial but conventional. Go along to get along. Hey, don't — don't rock the boat. No, I'm rocking the boat, baby. Sorry. I had a flashback. It's okay. Don't get — let that get stuck in your head. David will close in a beautiful, glorious worship song. That'll replace it.

Let's not ruffle anybody's feathers. No, I'm ruffling some feathers, man, because look at what's at stake! Are you kidding me? It's happening now. Jesus is coming any time. And I'm going to be conventional? Polite? Not controversial? Don't step on anybody's toes. And I just stepped on Daniel's ten toes, didn't I?

I have one — two more questions, and then we're done. There's hope. Could it be that one of the main reasons pastors today, and this is not to bash — I'm speaking broadly. Because this is the number one email that we get in our office on a daily basis, numerous and voluminous. Why doesn't my pastor teach on the End Times? Answer: Because they're trapped by the fear of man and the ensuing fear of being controversial like that guy on the windward side of Oahu. I mean, he's talking some crazy stuff, man.

Last question. Okay. So Daniel's prophecy, and John's revelation with it, both by the Holy Spirit stirs up controversy. Question: Wouldn't it stand to reason with it already being here that born-again Christians are about to be raptured out of here?

I'm going to answer that for you. You can cheat off of my paper if you want. Without question, undoubtedly, absolutely, with a certainty, yes. Any time now. Effects added, again.

Listen. My wife: I hope she doesn't mess with my crowns and, you know, all that because she'd do that, you know. I asked her about that. She said “No, don't worry about it.” That means worry about it. But she's there. Jesus is there. My treasures are there. Well, that's where my heart is also. I'm homesick for heaven more so than I've ever been.

So I'm going to get up here and I'm going to yell and scream and spit on everybody in the front row. Free baptisms today, just the sprinkling kind. Because there's coming a day, and I believe that day is sooner than any of us could ever possibly even begin to imagine when that trumpet's going to sound. And we're out of here. By the looks of things, I don't think it's going to be very long at all.

One of the things the Lord's just been settling my heart and ministering to me and comforting me with is the love of your life; you're going to have a glorious and wondrous reunion with her You were together for almost 40 years here, but not in marriage, but you'll be with her for all eternity there. And it's not gonna be very long before that reunion. I tell you, that gets me through the day, but there's still work to do.

What do you mean, Pastor? I believe that's why I'm still alive. You stuck with me. And I'm telling you right now, man, I guess God isn't finished with me yet because there's so many that we need to get Jesus to. And there's so many that we need to get to Jesus. And if there was ever a time, the time is right now. Now! How? By way of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the good news. I can't put my glasses on because I'll smudge them again.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the good news of salvation and eternal life paid for in full by Jesus Christ. It's that simple. It's childlike simple. And if you'll grant me just a couple of minutes, I want to explain just how childlike simple it is and even how you can be saved and know for a certainty that you are saved, so there's no doubt, there's no question mark, there's no comma. There's no "the jury's out, the verdict is not in." No. The Apostle John said you can know that you have eternal life. That's the assurance, you know. Born-again Christians have an eternal life assurance policy. I don't know where that came from, but anyway, yeah...

This is why we do what's known as the A-B-Cs of salvation every week, week-in, week-out. Because the A is the obstacle, the B is central and essential, and the C is evidential. I'll walk through it, be brief about it. Notice I didn't use those two words I told you I would try to take out of my vocabulary. I am even reluctant to speak what those words are. "Real quick." Okay. I said it.

The A is for admit or acknowledge that you're a sinner in need of a savior, because until you see yourself as God sees you in the perfect mirror of God's perfect law as a lawbreaker, why would you be interested in the one who fulfilled the law and is your savior? That's why it's the obstacle, because the average person will say, "I'm a good person. I never murdered anybody." You heard that before, right?

Well, that's good to know. You might be a good person. Oh, they have such a good heart. Actually, you might want to have them read Jeremiah. Their heart is deceitfully wicked. Okay, let's just say you have a good heart. You're a good person. Here's the problem. You'll never be good enough. And here's why. Romans 3:10, “There is no one good [Or righteous] not even one.” Oh, you're the exception? You're the exception.

The Big Controversy With Bible Prophecy

No, Romans 3:23 tells us why you are not the exception. And I'm not the exception. It's because “All [That means — I know this is deeply profound.] [That's why you come here.] [All means all.] have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Okay, Pastor, if this is true, and it absolutely is, then shouldn't there be a penalty for our sin? There most certainly is. What's the penalty? Romans 6:23. Well, it's the death penalty, “For the wages of sin is death.”

This is the bad news. And this is why it is that sometimes it has to be the Holy Spirit prompting you, guiding you, leading you to overcome this obstacle. But sometimes you've got to take that person to the law, the mirror of God's law, so they see themselves as God sees them, a lawbreaker, a sinner who's missed God's perfect standard of righteousness.

That's what the word “sin” is by the way. It's an archery term. You missed the bullseye. You sinned. Yeah, but I hit the bullseye nine out of ten times. It doesn't matter. One time; you've broken the whole law. So now you're guilty as charged. And now you're going to be sentenced as such. That's the bad news.

But here comes the good news. Because the badder the bad news is the gooder the good news will be. “The gift of God is [Notice the contrast: Wages/gift.] [Earnings/gift.] The gift of God [Who paid for it? Jesus?] [How much did it cost? Everything.] The gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Now, if — first of all, I want to just encourage those of you who share Jesus with people. Don't be discouraged if they're combative and argumentative. Shake the sand off your slippers and move on. Don't waste your time. But the Holy Spirit will give you that discernment that you need in that hour that you need it or that moment that you need it.

And if there's a true understanding, a godly sorrow that leads to a genuine repentance, as the Apostle Paul writes, by the Holy Spirit, to the Corinthians, now you come to the B, which is central and essential, and it's for believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Romans 10:9 says, “If you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, you will be saved.”

Okay, Pastor, I believe in God. I believe in Jesus. Well, James 2:19 says, “Even the demons believe and tremble.” How about that? Don't be militant like me because I'm militant. The Lord is working on me. So clearly, this means that's not what “believe” means. Right? So if that's what believe doesn't mean, then what is it that believe does mean?

Here's what it means, and I — you'll be happy to know I've condensed it even more, which is relative, because it was so expanded. To believe means that you change your mind, which is the Greek word metanoia translated in English “repentance.”

It's a change of your mind, a change in the way of your thinking. And turning to Jesus, persuaded about Jesus trusting in Jesus, relying upon Jesus, believing that Jesus imputed perfect righteousness of Jesus, making it the only possible way by Jesus. I got more work to do by the looks on your faces. Did Jesus not say, I am the only way to the Father? There's no way except through Me. I am THE way, not a way. THE truth and THE life.

If the essential, central has been understood and there is that true belief, then the C just happens. The confessing with your mouth, the calling upon the name of the Lord. See, once the A obstacle has been overcome, leading to the B, which is central and essential, this is the result: the C, and it's the evidential.

Jesus said in both Matthew 12:34 and Luke 6:45, “Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.”

Meaning: you want to know what's in somebody's heart? Because see, you don't know what's in somebody's heart. Don't judge the motives of somebody's heart. Only God knows the heart. We only know the outward appearance. By the way, you all look marvelous today. I just wanted to say. So I don't know what's in the heart. But wait. I can know what's in your heart by what comes out of your mouth. Jesus said, “Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” If I got Jesus in my heart, what's going to come out of my mouth? Jesus. Jesus.

Romans 10:9 also says, “If you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord' and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will [Will] be saved.” The verdict's in. The jury is not out. You will. And Romans 10:13 says that, “All [There's that 'all' word again.] All who call upon the name of Lord will be saved.”

For me, it was over 40 — I lost count — 44 years ago. And it wasn't so much that I accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior, putting my trust in Him for the forgiveness of sins. It was more that He accepted me.

We say, “I gave my life to Christ.” Cool. Praise the Lord. And He took it? Because I know for me, “Oh, Lord, I'm going to give my life to You.” The angels given charge concerning me going, “What life?” “God, I don't know about this one. I — this is not a good deal. I think you might want to pass on this one.” The greater miracle is not that we accept Christ, but that He accepts us and no ways will He cast out any of us who come to Him just as we are.

Okay. Let's close. As I mentioned prior, today's “But God' testimony, which is more of a testimony, comes from Brien Partika. I hope I'm pronouncing your name right. He's in New Mexico, and he's the one that sent the two links.

He writes, “Hello Pastor JD! First of all, my wife Linda and I are grieving with you and your children regarding the passing of your wife. Words fail here, but please know that we have held, are holding, and will continue to hold you close. [Sorry.] [I don't know what I would be doing if I didn't have the Lord and your prayers and your love.]

preparing number 6 on your chart of the Significant Prophetic Developments from 2/15/2026.

I also attached scriptures and comments to engender end-times thinking. I sent it to a good number of people, as the word of God will accomplish its intended purpose. [He's quoting Isaiah, not return void.] My Christian brothers and sisters, along with non-believing acquaintances, had what is best described as a tepid response. [Lukewarm.] What I consider to be a five-alarm fire is nothing of the sort as most of the recipients had that response. How sad and frustrating. Regardless, please continue preaching God's word. [Oh, I have no intentions of stopping.] You're such a blessing to us and to so many! God's best, Brien Partika."

Now, I'm going to end with this because this hit me hard. And I mentioned it and now I want to address it. So in a follow-up email, he writes this, quote, "I find it fascinating that it is apparently secular writers who are sounding this alarm THAT WE [All in caps], IN THE CHURCH, SHOULD BE SOUNDING!!!!"

Well, I will recommit to you anew that from this pulpit, as long as the Lord gives me breath and life, I will continue sounding the alarm until one day I won't need to sound the alarm because the trumpet will have sounded.

He ends. "Please, STAY ENCOURAGED, [All in caps] [This is... you guys have no idea how encouraging you are, how loving you are.] and take refuge in our and so many others' prayers. Brien Partika."

I'm going to have David come up. I'm going to have you stand up. I appreciate your patience. I want to — all praise goes to the Lord. This is an Arab donkey that God is speaking through, like in Numbers 22.

Loving Father in heaven, I know that there are people that are either watching this online or will watch this online. And the people that are here, which we're just so blessed that they are in this church today, needed to hear this today. Maybe not wanted to hear this today but needed to. And, Lord, if among them is even one who has as of yet not put their trust in You for the forgiveness of sins, to be born again of the Holy Spirit, and enter the kingdom that You have prepared for us, I pray that today would be the day. Because today, not tomorrow, today is the day of salvation. Right here. Right now. Right now. Right now.

Tomorrow is not guaranteed, even if the trumpet doesn't sound. Our lives are a vapor, a mist. Here today, gone tomorrow. Boy, don't I know that? So, Lord, it's not me. It's not on me, thankfully. It's the Holy Spirit that leads, woos anyone to a saving knowledge of You, Jesus, the Christ, our Savior, whom we long, ache, yearn to meet in the air. Can't wait. Come quickly, Lord Jesus. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
