Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

KAPONO: Will you bow your heads and join me as we pray? Lord, Thank You, Lord. Lord, would we live out our lives like You are living inside of us, living, and breathing because of Your word, Lord, we have received and applied to our life.

So this morning, as we get into Your word, Lord, would You speak to us and transform us from the inside out, Lord? Be with Pastor JD as he gives the Prophecy Update, Lord. Clear up anything that we may need, Lord, and always take this to Your word. We thank You for this time together. We pray this in Jesus' name. We say amen.

PASTOR JD: Amen and amen. And good morning and welcome. So glad you're here. You can be seated. Those of you online, we're so glad that you're joining with us and trust that you'll all be blessed that you have either come or joined us online. We're going to get right to it. This is the first of two Sunday morning services that we devote to Bible prophecy, by way of these weekly Prophecy Updates.

And then Second Service, which for those of you online, will be livestreamed at 11:15 a.m.; that's Hawaii time. Those of you locally, the worship starts at 10:45, again, Hawaii time on the website, 10:45 if you want the worship.

And we are in Revelation, almost through with Revelation, in the last chapter of Revelation, Chapter 22. And our text today is going to be verses 6 through 10. And I titled the sermon this way. 'If I See, Believe, Heed, And Trust, I'll Be Unbelievably Blessed.' I know it's a long title. Doesn't necessarily mean the sermon is going to be long, but it might.

[Congregant says, "Amen."]

So here's what we're going to do. We're going to look at three promises and prophecies that, for the most part, most have let the enemy steal from Christians, all these unbelievable blessings for Christians, and more importantly, how to reclaim them as Christians. So again, that'll be 11:15. Online worship starts at 10:45. And for those of you online by way of YouTube or Facebook, we'd really encourage you to go directly to the website at JDFarag.org or the app. I know that people use Roku and other venues and platforms, so just want to let you know that now would be a good time to do that.

Prophecy Update

Pastor JD Farag

Let's get to it. I'm not going to use what I said in my notes here. I'm going to reword this. I had in my notes what I want to talk with you today about, I need to talk with you today about. I need to replace the word "want" with "need." I need to talk. I need to talk. I need to talk with you. Not preach at you, yell at you. Actually, I might do that.

But I want to talk with you about a passage of scripture that I've been meditating on and stuck in for the better part of five months now. And everywhere I turn, there it is. Just, oh, there! Romans 12:1 and 2.

Now I realize it's not commonly seen as Bible prophecy directly; however, it has profound prophetic application personally, specifically, the urgency of offering our bodies as living sacrifices in order to be transformed by God's word, which is the only way to not be conformed to this world. I need to talk to you about this. Then maybe Romans 12:1 and 2 can go home with you.

If you'll kindly allow me to, I'll build on the foundation of these two verses, and in so doing, explain the prophetic meaning to us today. The reason being is that the enemy has been met with smashing success in forcing, even squeezing multitudes into this world's mold in this world's last hour. Would you agree with that? Okay, that wasn't very convincing.

[Congregant says, "Amen."]

Thank you. Bless you. You know what's sad? In all seriousness, I know that my humor sometimes is a little off, but as long as it puts a smile on God's face, that's all that matters. But in all seriousness, this is sad. There remains only a few who have no longer conformed to this world, inference being that heretofore they have conformed to this world, but no longer are conformed to this world. Why? Because instead they've been transformed by God's word.

Are you making this connection? Are you making this? I'm talking to you from the heart, man. This is — I know I have notes — I need notes. You need me to need notes. But this is from the heart. Can I just invite you to join me in Romans 12, first two verses?

By the way, I actually decided to — though I was scared to — look at how long it took us to go verse-by-verse through Romans and when that was. And we started in Romans in

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

January of 2011, and we finished Romans in December of 2012. So two years, and we survived it. (Chuckling) But when we hit Chapter 12, man, I mean, I had to do and ask for a do-over. And even then, after trying two times, I think I made a veiled attempt at part three.

But even then, I just walked away going, man, that's not — I mean, I know the Holy Spirit is able to minister to the people, but He had to fine tune what I taught so differently from the actual teaching I taught in order to get through to them. But I mean, I just — it's an intimidating passage of scripture.

So I'm going to take another shot at it today in the context of Bible prophecy and the urgency of the hour in which we're living. So you ready? Verse 1, "Therefore I urge you [Some of your translations render it beseech you, better understood as plead with you, beg of you,] brothers..."

That's important. Why? We're not talking about the world. We're talking about the church. These are brothers and sisters in Christ. And there's an urgent plea. "I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy..."

He has just spent, by the Holy Spirit, the last 11 chapters, Chapter 8 being chief amongst them, talking about the grace, the love, the mercy, the compassion, the kindness, the goodness of God and how that nothing will ever separate me, no one, no thing from the love that God has for me. Go ahead. Try. Height, depth? Nope. Principalities, powers of darkness? Nope! I'm not going to go down the whole list because....

But please, he starts off — this is an urgent plea to his brothers and sisters in Christ, in view of God's mercy. What are you pleading with us for? What are you begging of us for?

[Answer] "...to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God— this is your spiritual act of worship."

[Congregant says, "Amen."]

That's just verse 1. Now we get to verse 2, and this is where it gets very uncomfortable. "Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world. [How?] Be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then [And only then] you'll be able to test and approve [Actually prove] what God's will is."

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

You don't only know what God's will is, man. You can prove what God's will is. His good and His — is not just God's will. No, no. This is way mo better. "...His good, pleasing and perfect will."

I counted three. And there's much talk about well, that's the permissive will of God. And this is the perfect will of God. Okay. Okay. But no, this is His good, pleasing, perfect will. I want me some of that. Let's tackle verse 1. Paul says, "Therefore, I urge you..." Whenever you see "therefore," therefore is there for a reason. That's not a play on words. That's the truth. Because again, heretofore before "therefore," you've got 11 packed-full chapters of God's mercy. And that is the basis upon which he makes this urgent plea to his brothers and sisters. And it's very urgent.

In other words, Paul, by the Spirit, is urgently pleading, even begging us, as he did them then, us now, to offer our bodies, our entire beings. And this is where it gets a little bit gnarly — I know that's an '80s word — as living sacrifices. That means they can maybe not cooperate. Dead sacrifices? No problem. But as a living sacrifice. We're being begged to offer our bodies as living sacrifices. Why?

In view of, in light of, because of the endless mercy of God. God's mercy is the impetus for us to do this because it's pleasing to God. And it's also our spiritual — now, this an interesting word in the original — reasonable, logical — it would just make sense — in response to the mercy of God. It would just be logical, reasonable that I would respond in kind. It's our spiritual, reasonable, logical, and acceptable worship of God. But it's pleasing to God. Is there any one of us here that doesn't want to please God? I want to be numbered amongst those of whom it is said he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and it was pleasing before the Lord.

When I've been — I'm going to use the word "wrestling," for lack of a better one — when I've been wrestling with these two verses over the last several months, I found myself just saying to the Lord, "Lord, I throw myself at Your mercy in view of Your mercy. Do with me as You please. I'm completely surrendered to You, submitted to You, committed to You, and yielded to You for Your good pleasure."

And this is — think about this. This is the paradox of our faith, isn't it? What do you mean? Well, come on, it goes against our human nature. Everything within our sin nature chafes at the idea of such a thing. In fact, it actually demands the exact opposite. You want me to surrender myself? Die to myself? No. I'm living for myself.

And one time I asked somebody; I said, "Hey, how are you doing?" And he said, "I'm living the dream." And as God as my witness, I was left without a response, which is a miracle unto itself, when I had no words. I'm like... What do you say to that? I feel sorry for you. This is your dream? Wow! That's as good as it gets right here. This is the dream. You're living it. Yeah.

Okay, well, bye. I mean, I want to share Jesus with them because they need Jesus. But I guess if they're living the dream, they're not probably interested in Jesus. But you're living the dream. You're living for self. You come along talking to me about the word of God, saying to offer yourself as a living sacrifice. Get out of my face, man. You know what that is? It's the war between the flesh and the Spirit. And oh, how it is real. And it is raw, and it is daily. And it's evidenced by the word "offer."

Stop. This is an offering. In other words, this has to be a decision of my own volition to give myself, offer myself. I'm not being forced to. I don't have a gun to my head. Probably shouldn't use that kind of terminology these days. But too late. No, this has to be willing, and it has to be a decision that I make in my mind to offer myself. Here I am, Lord.

The story is told, true story of a missionary who was abroad. And they were receiving the offering. And there was a bag that was being passed around. And this young, poor man had nothing to put in the bag. So he asked the gentleman to just place it on the ground, and he stepped into the bag. This is all I have to offer. I can just picture God going, that's all I ever wanted. I don't want your money. What am I going to do with your money? I'm want you. And I want you to want Me to have you.

Could you imagine, as a parent; I always default to these comparisons, analogies, if you prefer, you know, of a fallen, earthly father in comparison to our loving Heavenly Father. Can you imagine if your kids came up to you one day, and said, "Oh! Oh, man, I got to spend time with you today? You know what? Don't bother. I don't want your time if it's going to be like that. I want you. God loves a cheerful giver who's willing to offer themselves. And I'll tell you something. This war, you know, the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. Well, we need to weaken that flesh more than, don't we? How am I going to do that?

Let's use this illustration. I stole this from somebody else. The lion is the flesh that rears and roars its ugly head. And the spirit is the lamb. Now, I mean, just that lamb is lunch, lamb chops to that lion; it doesn't stand a chance. But what if you starve that lying lion? Did you catch that? Lying lion. That was a play on words. You starve that lying lion of the flesh to death. You put to death the deeds of the flesh. How about that?

And you feed the — don't just stop there! I'm starving you out, man. You look over at the spirit and you go, "I'm going to feed the spirit, the lamb." I'm going to feed the spirit so much, as one said, he's going to become Lambo. See, the younger people didn't even have a clue what that was.

So now let's see. We got over in this corner, the lamb. Over in this corner — whoa, what happened? All shrunk up, withered up, lying down, can't get up, the lion. Okay, Bing. Ring the bell. Round 1. Here comes the lamb. Where is the lion? He's so weakened and starved he can't even get up. That's what it means to walk in the Spirit, so you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. The drive of the flesh has been so weakened it's not even a contender.

Can I use one more example? I've used it before. Just real quick. We will get to the prophetic aspect of this in an hour or so. Think of it like this, and I'll give you the abbreviated version in the interest of time. If you invite me over to dinner, don't, because I can't. Hypothetical.

If you invite me over to dinner and you've got prepared, I mean, wow, I mean, you spent all day on it. And you know exactly what my favorite food is. I'm not going to mention it, because then I end up having it show up at my, you know, in my office. Anyway...

So on my way to your home for dinner, I drive by Taco Bell. And I hear a voice whisper, "JD, 12 pack tacos." Now I'm hungry because I haven't eaten all day in anticipation of the meal that you prepared all day. But man, I just give in, and I, I mean, I just — what's the word for it? I whacked them. Is that the word? What's the local word? I like it better. Okay. Never mind. Just — I'm sorry. I mopped them up. That's it. Is that it? I'm mopped them, man. I mopped them.

Now I'm going (Gagging sound) I show up at your house. Here, you've got this gourmet, I mean, delicious meal prepared. How hungry am I going to be? I am so full of the Taco Bell of the flesh. I don't have any more room for the Spirit.

Let's switch it around. I go to your home for dinner. Thank you. Marvelous. Oh, my compliments to the chef. Absolutely fantastic, fabulous, and I'm full. And we had great fellowship. And I'm full in the Spirit and edified in the Spirit. And I get in my car, and I drive by that same Taco Bell. You know which one I'm talking about? And there's that voice. "JD." And what's my response? "I'm not hungry." "No, but 12-pack tacos, brah." "No. Because I'm full of the Spirit. Full to overflowing. I have no desire, have no appetite. I have no need. No room for dessert." So there's no temptation.

If you were to ask me, Okay, Pastor, Fancy Nancy Pastor Pants. And please, I hope it doesn't come off like I have arrived. No, actually, I went to Taco Bell just recently just so you know, and I'm confessing my sins one to another. But please don't think for a moment that, and this is something we're going to deal with until the trumpet sounds. But there's something I'm learning. Notice I didn't say, "learned." "I've arrived."

There's something I'm learning, and it's this: to walk in the Spirit and not according to the lust of our flesh — can I insert "to be transformed" by God's word and not conformed to this world — I must die to self. Pick up my cross and follow only Jesus.

Matthew 16:23 through 25, "Then He [Speaking of Jesus] said to them all, "If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself..."

Stop right there! What does that mean, deny yourself? No, I'm not about that. Everything in me goes against that. Well, no, you need to deny yourself, and — it gets worse — take up his cross daily. Oh, daily? That means every day! Like I one said, the thing about daily is it's daily. Every single day I gotta pick up my cross, die to myself, deny myself, and follow You.

And He gives us the why in verse 24. "For whoever wants to save his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for Me will save it. [And then He says this, verse 25.] What good is it for a man to gain the whole world and yet lose or forfeit his very self?" Some of you translation render it as "soul."

See, you've gained the whole world. You've lost your soul for it. This explains why Romans 12:1 is the prerequisite, or if you prefer, the precondition. This is a conditional dynamic for Romans 12:2, which can't and won't be obtained unless and until we're willing to offer our bodies as living sacrifices. First things first. Why?

We have to be completely surrendered to and in alignment with God's perfect word and God's perfect will. His will is perfect. His word is perfect. His ways are perfect because He is perfect. In other words, the only way verse 2 becomes attainable and possible is by willingly offering our lives as living sacrifices, yielded [Now listen] to the holiness of Jesus and not the worldliness of self.

I hope this Prophecy Update steps on all of the toes of all of our flesh. Let me put it a different way. If I'm to have any hope of no longer [No longer] conforming to this world, there must be a transforming by His word.

Okay. Oh, it's so important that we understand the meaning of the words "conformed" and "transformed" in the original language of the New Testament Greek. Stay with me on this. This is extremely important. To be conformed carries the idea of being molded, forced, squeezed, shaped, influenced, programmed, and brainwashed by the world leading to conforming and complying in one's way of thinking. We'll come back to it again.

But the mind is the battleground. The mind is the battleground. And by the way, (Chuckling) the church today: We're not in a playground. We're in a battleground for our very lives, for all eternity right now. Conversely, let's talk about this word "transform." This is such a cool word in Greek. Metamorphoō. You know what that word is in English? It's where we get the English word "metamorphosis." You're familiar with that? Some abbreviate it. It morphed. It was a metamorphosis.

Here's an illustration. A caterpillar, low and slow on the earth, in the world goes through a metamorphosis to be transformed into a butterfly. Right? But see, the caterpillar, as a caterpillar is conformed and constrained to and by the world, whereas the butterfly has been set free to fly to the heavens, no longer bound by or subject to the world.

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

When in 1 Corinthians 15:51 and 52, Paul, by the Spirit, writing about the pre-Tribulation rapture of the church, has the same idea of a metamorphosis from our old, corruptible bodies — can't wait — to our new, incorruptible bodies, in the twinkling of an eye. Now here's the question.

And please know that I ask this of myself. Am I still a conformed caterpillar Christian, or am I a transformed butter — butter — easy for me to say — butterfly Christian? There, I got it out. Okay. How am I going to know? And how am I going to prove it? Because you'll know what's the root by the fruit, as Jesus said. I mean, you're not going to get bad fruit from a good tree. You're not going to get good fruit from a bad tree. So what proves the root is the fruit.

So we're going to talk about this word "proof" because this is what proves God's good, pleasing, perfect will. See, the caterpillar Christian has let the world shape and conform their worldview to their way of thinking. It's through the lens of the world, not the Word. That's the caterpillar Christian. They're conforming and complying, whereas a butterfly Christian, those still living in the world, isn't of the world. Why? They live for the world to come.

Okay, so how am I going to prove that I'm a butterfly Christian and that I've been transformed by the renewing of my mind, which has been washed by the living and cleansing water of God's word? You ready for this? Instead of being brainwashed by the world, a butterfly Christian has a washed brain by the Word.

That's not a play on words, by the way. Self-talk. Talk to self. David. Psalms 42, 43. Some believe they're the same psalm. David — it's not self-talk. They would institutionalize him. It's "sit down, boy. We need to have a talk." David. (Stumbling over words) I think — I won't look at anybody when I — I'll just speak for myself. I have to look at myself in the mirror and say, "Boy, I'm looking right at the enemy right there." You your own worst enemy. I'm on to you. Sit down. We're going to have a talk.

I think we would do well, as born-again Christians, brothers and sisters in Christ, to have our minds renewed, our brains washed by the Word because if we don't, you can be assured that you'll be brainwashed by the world and maybe now even are.

Pastor JD Farag

Okay. Yeah, I know it's the list. Hey, it's been a while, so let me have this. I haven't done this for some time, so I put together — it's a short list though — only eight, meaning there's plenty more, but just eight, and all eight work in concert, one with the other. And this is the prophetic application of how, even now, the world is brainwashing the masses, deceiving even the Christians if it were possible — thank God, Matthew 24, "if" big word, big "if" the deception would be so powerful, the delusion so strong.

2 Thessalonians 2. If it were possible, it would be so powerful to deceive even the elect, speaking of Israel, God's people. And that's powerful, man. Okay, I'm gonna go through them as quickly as possible.

Number 1 — they're not in any particular order, but they all work in tandem. Okay? Social engineering. How? Manufacture a social crisis to divide and conquer. Result? Pit people against others who are different or have a different view or a different skin color. By the way, it's not a skin issue, it's a sin issue. Do you realize that the pastoral staff of this church, of which I am privileged to be the senior pastor of, we are racist by that metric?

How? How so? I was born in Beirut, Lebanon. Don't tell anybody. Too late. I'm an Arab from the Middle East. Pastor Mac? Black, my Black brother, East coast. You don't want to mess with him, by the way. Pastor Leitu? He's the Slammin' Samoan. We don't have one White person on the pastoral staff.

How racist is that? Not at all. Because it doesn't matter the color of skin. Because if I read my Bible, it says, "all tribes." We're going to see it in a moment. "All tribes, all tongues, all people, all races." In Christ, there's no distinction. So stop.

Well, yeah, but they have a different political view than I do. Rubbish. Left against Right. Oh, man. They did a number on you. Conservative against Liberal. Red against Blue. Is that you? I'm sorry if I'm yelling. I mean how are you going to respond to that, right? I shouldn't look at anybody again maybe. But let's be honest with ourselves, okay? The only thing that matters at the end is: Am I saved or am I lost? And this is exactly what Jesus said. "A house divided cannot stand."

Satan knows that scripture. It's right out of his playbook. Let's just bring division. He can't — the gates of hell cannot prevail against the church from the outside, so let's join the church on the inside. Inside job. Let's start little whisperings and murmurings and gossiping and accusation. He's the accuser of the brethren after all. Hey, did you hear? No. What? And now all of a sudden, you planted the seed. It's been met with supple soil, and the division has only just begun. Because he knows that he can divide and conquer, kill, steal, and destroy by getting us divided against each other. Yeah. I think we have to keep moving. Stop doing that. (Chuckling) Like it's your fault.

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

Number 2, fear propaganda. This is the one I really should spend some time on because maybe there's somebody here or online that needs to hear this about fear. God never uses fear. He doesn't fault us. I mean, the scriptures are replete with God, by the Holy Spirit — sometimes He sends an angel — and He says to His servant, "Do not be afraid." No condemnation. He understands. Sometimes we can be in trials that are terrifying, man. Just He's not given us — the Holy Spirit has not given us fear. In fact, that's how you know it's not God if there's fear here, God is not in it.

What is it then? It's called propaganda. How? Spread fear through media, especially social media to manipulate emotions. By the way, that's dopamine that you're addicted to in case you didn't know. That's why you just keep scrolling. Two hours have gone by. You're still scrolling? Yeah. Every time there's a dopamine squirt. And then what happens is that receptor in the brain, it just — it can't take all that dopamine being fired off at it from the neural — I'm not trying to get into the neuroscience of it, but it's that feel good, God-given hormone in our minds, again.

And Satan knows that about it so well; he's like, man, if I could just get in there and just use that. Because I know how powerful it is. Fear is a powerful motivator, and it spreads through media, and it's designed to manipulate emotions. And what's the result? You get people to panic and act on emotions.

Oh, would to God that we would never be those people. We got a renewed mind washed by the water of God's word. And so we don't react in fear and panic. We respond, not react by using the word of God as a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path.

Lord, I don't know what direction to go. You think God is going to try to keep it from you? No. He's on standby, at the ready. This is the way; walk ye in it. I'll direct your paths. I'll make your path straight. I'll straighten out the mess you created, by the way.

Number 3, cognitive dissonance. How? Weaponize agendas conflicting with the factual truths. Two plus two equals five. No. What's the result? Push people to dismiss and disbelieve the truth. Number 4, deceiving narratives. How? Create [Listen] scripted consensus of, with, and to the masses. You've heard those advertising campaigns: 50,000 people couldn't be wrong. Oh, yes, they could. In fact, if there's 50,000 people, it's probably wrong.

Why do you — how do you get there? Oh, the word of God. I have a biblical worldview. My mind has been cleansed, washed, renewed by the water of the Word. And if I look at the Word, it tells me that there's a wide gate that 50,000 people go through. But there's a very itchy bitsy, small, narrow gate, and only a few go through. So if that's the gauge by which you're going to measure whether or not something is right or not, true or not is everybody's doing it, well, we'll see how that works out for you.

Because you see, the result in the end is that they deceive people to believe that what's actually and factually true is false. Why? How did they do that? Because you've got 50,000 people over here that have all agreed that it's safe and effective. Oh, I better be careful. I'm not offline yet.

[Laughter]

Number 5, ongoing distractions. Oh, my goodness. How? Repeat distractions, bombarded with distractions to take us away from the hidden agenda. Result? Distracted people have had their attention arrested and their minds, their brains washed.

Number 6, silencing dissenters. How? Censor anyone who refuses to conform, comply, or consent? Result? Remove people who don't conform, consent, or comply. Delete their YouTube channels, their social media platforms.

Number 7 is a very interesting one. Orchestrated timing. Don't you find it a little bit odd? I mean, wow, what a coincidence, one might say. How? They pre-planned the timing of significant and simultaneous events to legitimize it. This is roommates with the bombarding of distractions. Look at this. So you don't see this. Wow! What are the odds? I mean (Stumbling over words)

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word

I'm not praying in an unknown tongue or speaking in an unknown tongue. I just — it's just — it basically breaks the mind. It breaks the psyche. You're being gas lit. You're being programed. You're being deceived because the result is confusing people. Who's the author of confusion? Come on. People: right now, people are so confused, so bombarded with all that's happening and the timing of it. All the sudden crises and disaster, one after the other and sometimes all at the same time.

Number 8. Last thing. I didn't necessarily save the worst for last, but you could probably say this. Government PsyOps. You know what psyops are? Psychological operations. How? Conduct classified operations creating restrictions enforcing compliance. What's the result? Brainwashing people to accept the Final Solution.

I don't want to get too far ahead of myself, but one need look no further than 2020.

However, what if I told you that these and the many others like them, especially PsyOps, have been employed since the early part of the last century, maybe even earlier? We're talking about over 100 years, and there's documentation to prove it. What's going on here?

Well, it's a textbook case of the effective Hegelian Dialectic reaching the final crescendo in first creating the crisis; second, controlling the reaction; then third, forcing the Final Solution. Those who let the world conform them and even force them into the world's mold have believed and been deceived by the devil's lies.

Is that too strong? It needs to be. And here's why it needs to be. It's in this day and at this time in which we find ourselves living in, coupled with the devil knowing he has but a short time at this the end of time is moving faster than at any time in human history. That's in Revelation 12, by the way. Thankfully, God, in His love for us, has forewarned us in His Word. Oh, that we would - in advance, which is the proof that what we're now seeing is Bible prophecy with 100% accuracy.

By way of a preface to where I'm going, I'll be quick, but kindly allow me to take you on a quick journey through just a few pertinent prophecies in the Book of Revelation because it's going to be very germane to our understanding. Let's start with Revelation 13:16 and 17.

You know it well, but I want to point out a couple of things, highlight, emphasize a couple of things. "It also forced all of people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave to receive a mark on their right hands or their forehead so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name."

Now let's go to Revelation 16:2. This is the judgments, are just being poured out. "And the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly, festering sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped its image." There might be something to that.

Revelation 9:6. This is kind of scary. "In those days, men will seek death and will not find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them." Run away from them. Hmm. This is interesting.

Revelation 9:21. You would think at this point when bowl judgments, seal judgments, trumpet judgments, I mean judgment judgments, there would be repentance. But we're told in Revelation 9:21, "...and they did not repent of their murders or their [Listen to this word.] sorceries." You know it well. In the original Greek, pharmakeia, from where we get our English word for pharmaceutical. "...or their sexual immorality or their thefts."

Revelation 18:23. Kind of along the same lines at the fall of Babylon. "The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. [And I want you to listen very carefully to this.] For your merchants were the great men of the earth. [The billionaires, big pharma, big tech guys.] For by your sorcery [There's that word again.] [Pharmakeia] all [There's that word "all" again.] the nations were deceived."

You mean every nation on earth will be deceived? Yeah, it says, "all." You know, I looked it up in the original. "All." What does it mean? All.

Revelation 19:20. "Then the beast was captured and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence by which he [Key word] deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire, burning with brimstone."

Prophecy Update

Pastor JD Farag

Perhaps arguably the most chilling of all Revelation 14 beginning in verse 9. “Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, he himself shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.”

It gets worse. Verse 11. This should send chills up and down every single one of our spiritual spines. “And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever, and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image and whoever receives the mark of his name.”

Okay, that was my preface. I want to hone in now on how everything happening prophetically is in full force, in real time, and the likes of which we've never before seen nor will ever see again. And to do this, I'll draw your attention to and expound on the common denominator that will achieve the world's final and evil agenda in and during the seven-year Tribulation, on the authority of God's prophetic word. But to do that, we're going to have to end the livestream on YouTube and Facebook. Hopefully, you're on the app or the website.

All of the devil's tactics on the aforementioned short list of eight, in concert one with the other, along with all the Revelation prophecies we just read, they point to one thing. What is the one thing? The one thing the devil, through his demons and human agents, still need is for all to make the decision in their minds to worship him as God. That's all he's wanted. That's what got him cast out of heaven. He wanted to be — exalt himself above the Most High. Why?

Because he wanted to be worshiped. And you know, just like we offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to the true God, this is an offering of one's body as a sacrifice to the devil. Because it damns and dooms who ever does it for all eternity as we just read.

Listen. This is — we're not playing around here. Playtime's over. I was it was over years ago, playing church, playing Christianity. No, no, no, no. It's getting real. This is real talk. I'm just — I'm pouring it all out because this is it, man. This is it.

[Congregant says, “Amen.”]

Pastor JD Farag

This is it. We are on the verge of mankind having to pledge allegiance to the beast in their worship of the beast because in their deceiving, they're receiving of the mark which bears the name from the beast. Did you catch all that? Don't make me do it over. I don't want to. I do have a question though. And I think we all need to think through this.

Why and how would the mark of the beast become the Final Solution, everything reaching its crescendo? That's what the goalposts are. This is the end game, the mark of the beast. Why? It's in order to identify those who have received the mark, distinguishing them from those who have refused to receive the mark. That's why.

How? Mankind — I just said it— will offer their bodies as a living sacrifice or be forced to — God will never do that — forcing them to receive this mark, connecting them to the Internet of Bodies vis-à-vis a biodigital, pharmaceutical as the Final Solution to a created crisis/deceptive virus.

Why are you looking at me like that? I know why you're looking like that. There he goes again. Yeah, there I go again. Can't you move on? No. Isn't this old news? Absolutely not. Can I ask you another question? Because, by the way, we're still receiving. There's been a noticeable uptick in requests for religious exemption letters for people that will lose their jobs if they don't get this thing. Why? Why push it?

I mean, wouldn't it stand to reason the revved-up push to receive these so-called vaccines is so strong because they need it in people's bodies so bad? Are you — did you get that? There's got to be something behind this push. You got a governor of a state, prominent state, eating a burger and fries if you get one of these things. I'm good. I went by Taco Bell earlier. (Chuckling) Krispy Kreme donuts.

Man, what? Listen; you would think that if there was — it was a matter of life and death that you wouldn't have to offer people burgers and fries and Taco Bell and Krispy Kreme donuts to get them to do it. They'd be standing in line. So why are you pushing so hard? Because you need it so bad. Why do you need it so bad? Because we have to mark people, which is why the world's health system and the world's financial system is being digitized and centralized as we speak, at breakneck speed. Do your own research. Check me on that. We talked about it over the past few weeks.

Okay, so Pastor, I have a question. Okay. What's your question? Why does it all have to be digitized and centralized? Here's why. Because the devil is not all-present, all-knowing, or all-powerful — only God is — and must have everything under his roof of central control. Did you ever think about it like that? Why does everything have to be a centralized government, economy, religion, health, all the above, everything?

Because Satan is not omniscient. He's not omnipresent. He's not omnipotent. I hope you know this. Satan is not God's equal. No, he's a created being. And he's very limited. And please don't give him more credit than he deserves. And don't make him more powerful than he is. I think we go to either extreme. We just blow him off and ha-ha-ha, you know, red tights, pitchfork, you know, over here, cartoon character. And then over on this side, we made him out to be God's equal. In this corner, the devil. In this corner, God, the creator of the heavens and the earth and the sea, all that in them is. The match of the century.

No. He's toast. God created him. God can zap him whenever He wants. And He will, by the way. Well, not actually. Well, anyway, let's not get — that's later on. Okay, Pastor, come on, please. You're killing me. I know. It's a gift. (Chuckling)

I know there are those who still cannot make the connection of the mark of the beast to a so-called vaccine in some form in and during this seven-year Tribulation; I totally get it. I absolutely understand. It's difficult to grasp. But you know what? This is what actually further reinforces the need to turn it up instead of tone it down.

What do you mean? Well, the onus is on us to choose whether I'm going to be conformed to the world's way of thinking or be transformed with a renewed mind and new way of thinking in the battleground of the mind. I'm going to just — I just have three. Bear with me. Three posts and publications. And as I go through them, I want you to view them through the lens of that list and see if you can see how subtly it's woven into everything and the end game, the Final Solution, crossing the finish line is some form of a pharmaceutical in the body.

I know people think I'm whacked out whenever I talk about biodigital pharmaceuticals, but I mean, it's going to be some form of a biodigital pharmaceutical, pharmakeia. And it's going to deceive all the nations on earth. Let's start with the manufactured crisis. Remember our Hegelian Dialectic? You got to create crisis, right here in Hawaii on the Big Island. This is a propaganda piece from Hawaii News Now.

I mean, no disrespect, but I'm just speaking truth. This is propaganda. Seven days ago, on Monday, August 11th, the title of the headline, oh no! 'Long-term care facility in Hilo battles COVID-19 outbreak.'

A couple quick quotes. "As COVID-19 infection rates rise across Hawaii. (Looking around) [Emphasis added.] [Where?] Hilo Benioff Medical Center's long-term care facility reported an outbreak among its residents and staff. "I can tell you that there definitely has been an increase in our community here in Hilo," long-term Care Facility Administrator Kauai Chartrand said. "I would urge... [Wow, it sounds like you're quoting Paul.] [Romans, I urge you.] I would urge everybody. [Get your own material, dude.] [What are you urging me to do?] This would be the chance to take your COVID vaccine." [Come on.] [Listen. I'm on to you. I'm so on to you, man.]

This came from an epidemiologist, Dr DeWolfe Miller. It gets worse. We're almost done. "When you get vaccinated [Listen to this.] [Please, would you, with a washed mind renewed by the word of God, listen to this.] When you get vaccinated, you're doing something for yourself. But for me, as an epidemiologist, [I can't even pronounce these guys names or titles.] you're doing something for everybody else because when you have your vaccine, then you didn't give the virus to anybody else. At the long-term care facility, all residents are vaccinated for COVID, and masks are required for residents and workers. Those infected are quarantined and given the Paxlovid pill. [Keep that thing as far away from me as you can.] And so far, they've only experienced mild congestion and [You know] fatigue."

With school in session, [Oh yeah, that's right.] Chartrand is also urging the public to take precautions. "All of our children are now entering into the classrooms, which all [All] contribute to cases like COVID and [And] the flu."

No, I tell you what's contributing to this. Your creation of this. Your creation of this. You know, this was actually a thing in 2020. You know who never got COVID? Were those communities like the Quakers and the, not the Quakers, but the — say it again — Amish.

And, you know, those communal — you know, they — everything is— and they never got it. Why? Because none of them had a TV. No. For real. That's — that's for real.

You know, I turn the TV on, and I mean, it doesn't take me long, which is why I don't do it for long. I mean, I look at that thing and go... (Shocked look) Man, if I didn't know what I know, I would be freaking out right now. That's exactly what they want. But no need to fear. The controlled reaction is here.

And it's with this publication titled 'Genomics has endless potential [And I want you to notice this.] [I put a red box around it.] if everyone [All] is included.'

“Our understanding [Quoting] of human health and disease is underpinned by the study of genomes. Genomes are made up of the DNA in each of our cells, but the genomes of individuals vary. And these differences show up across populations. [Now listen very carefully.] Identifying these individual differences is key to understanding, diagnosing, and treating disease.”

Well, this brings us to the Final Solution with this post by Jacob Norgaard, PhD, titled 'New Age Deception: Upgrading our Consciousness with "Divine AI."'

Is there a halo over my head? A few excerpts about this satanic New Age agenda repackaged with Gnostic wrapping paper.

“Welcome to a Golden Age run by Divine AI with the benevolent Galactic Federation watching over our ascension process.”

What? What's the ascension process? [Oh, don't you want to be an Ascended Master?] [Don't you want to be like the serpent said in the garden?] [Don't you want to be like God?] AI [Listen to this.] will give us free energy, [Where do I sign?] assisting scientists in solving diseases and climate imbalances.”

Oh, you mean the ones that you created by spraying the skies and seeding the clouds and spreading the fear? Stop the spread. You stop the spread. I want you to listen to this quote because he's quoting with a sanctified sarcasm, though I don't believe he's a professing Christian, this new AI Golden Age that's going to solve all the disease problems with the Final Solution.

“So trust the plan.” [Yeah, dude.] [Nothing personal.] [I trust only God.] [No trust the science.] [No, I trust the God of science.]

“Trust the plan and don't listen [I'm still quoting.] to the naysayers. [Like the guy on the windward side of Oahu.] (Chuckling)

If you join [Why do you have to sell it so hard?] you will get access to miraculous healing modalities. [And this is where the connection is made, the Internet of bodies, the Internet of things.] [Everything is digitalized.] [Listen very carefully.] This system will be impossible to hack or manipulate with every transaction monitored by an advanced artificial intelligence.

This means that funds [You mean my money? Yeah, you.] that don't meet legal criteria simply will not process. [You will not be able to buy or sell.] [The author concludes, and to his credit] Isn't it astonishing what kind of fantasies are possible to sell to a gullible New Age audience? And the same old formula just keeps getting repeated over and over again, decade after decade.”

They just kind of recycle it and repeat it. It's been said that — and it's true — you repeat a lie long enough people will believe it. This brings me full circle to Romans 12:1 and 2 explaining why those conformed to this world are so gullible to the father of lies in this world; however, those transformed by the word of God as the perfect and pleasing will of God will not be gullible and conform. They test the spirits. Not so fast. They take every thought captive into the obedience of Christ. Hey, hey, hey! Wait, wait, wait, wait. Wait! Nope. Get out of my face! Get out of here! You gone!

You know what happens with Christians who don't know the word of God, haven't been renewed and washed and cleansed by the water of the word of God? Come on in. You want me to give you something to drink? You know what the purpose of this entire Update was and is? To open eyes, ears, and hearts to the truth. But here's the thing. It's not “what” is the truth? It's “who.” It's a person. And His name is Jesus, who said I am THE way, THE truth, and THE life.

Okay, let's bring it in for a landing. I want to say this in love. And I hope it's received in kind. If you're a born-again Christian, I urge you. I plead with you. I beg of you, please reach the lost now. Get Jesus to people and people to Jesus. This is it. I mean, I don't know how else to do it. Do you want me just to start crying? I mean, I do it anyway, but...

Okay. I'm not a born-again Christian. I'm lost. Well, then I say to you, in love, today is the day of salvation. Do not delay the most important decision of your life for eternal life. It's actually so simple. I don't know, maybe like me, 40-some-odd years ago, I finally, by the grace of God, heard the Gospel presented child-like simply. And it needed to be. I went into my room that night, and I prayed myself to sleep. Actually, I slurred myself to sleep because I was very — I'm not proud of this — very high, very intoxicated. God, I don't want to go to hell. (Slurring words)

I woke up the next morning as a new creation. I was born-again. The Holy Spirit was now indwelling in me. It was all because somebody just presented the Gospel simply. You know what the Gospel, the word "gospel" means? Good news. Doesn't get any simpler than that. Your debt has been paid. Brother, you free to go! And whom the Son has set free is free at last and forever.

Give me a couple of minutes. This is the childlike, simple Gospel and how you can be saved. And please don't tune me out or walk out. This is the most important part of the entire Update right now, right here. Because you don't know, if you're a born-again Christian, if God isn't going to send somebody along your path that needs Jesus. Are you going to be ready to give to them an answer? Are you going to freeze up?

We use the ABCs of salvation. It's not a formula. The (A) is the obstacle, the (B) is central and essential, and the (C) is evidential. I know that might sound, make me sound smarter than I really am, but think about this. This is the biggest obstacle: Admitting you're a sinner in need of a savior. Because the average person will say, "I'm a good person." Well, you may be a good person, but you'll never be good enough.

And here's why. Romans 3:10. "There is no one righteous, not even one." Romans 3:23 tells us why. Because we were all born sinners in Adam. "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." That's an interesting word too because the word "sin" is an archer's term. You missed the bullseye. You fell short. You sinned. Yeah, but I hit it the last nine

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

times in a row. Doesn't matter. You break one of the commandments. You broke the whole law, sinner! That's what that means. You fell short. You missed the mark.

Okay, if this is true, and it absolutely is, then there must be a penalty for our sin. And there most certainly is, and Romans 6:23 tells us what it is. It's the death penalty. "For the wages of sin is death."

We're not dealing with life and death. We're dealing with eternal life and eternal death here. Okay? This is the bad news that can be overcome as the obstacle with the good news that "...the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."

And here's the (B). Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is Lord. Because see, once you've overcome that obstacle, now you're ready for the central and essential believing in the person of Jesus Christ. Romans 10:9 says, "If you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, you will be saved."

Okay, well, one might say, "I believe in God" or "I believe in Jesus." Well, the problem is, James 2:19 says, "Even the demons believe and tremble." So obviously, we're not talking about the same thing here, talking about believing.

Okay, so if that's what "believe" does not mean, then what does "believe" actually mean? To truly believe means that you — here it is — change your mind and way of thinking, which is the Greek word metanoia, which is where we get the English word for "repent" or "repentance."

It's a changing of your view, your way of thinking, changing your mind, turning to Jesus, being fully persuaded about Jesus, placing complete trust in Jesus, totally relying upon Jesus, and having absolute confidence that Jesus — and I don't want to over complicate it. You have confidence that Jesus finished the imputation — inputting — of the perfect righteousness of Jesus, while at the same time expiating — exiting, removing — my own filthy self-righteousness by Jesus.

Should I shorten that up? That's what it means to believe. You're putting your complete, absolute, unwavering trust in the person of Jesus Christ. And then, now that the obstacle has been overcome, the essential has been obtained, here comes the evidential, the (C).

Prophecy Update
Conformed To This World Or Transformed By God's Word
Pastor JD Farag

Confessing with your mouth or calling upon the name of the Lord. This is the evidential because of what Jesus said in both Matthew 12:34 and Luke 6:45.

He said, “Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” So you want to know what's in somebody's heart? Listen to what comes out of their mouth. Bitterness. Well, that's within their heart. Love. That's what's in their heart. Jesus. That's who's in their heart. Because “...Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” This is just the result, the evidence, the fruit, if you prefer.

Romans 10:9 also says, “If you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will [Not might, could, should] be saved.” And then this one I love. It seals the deal. Romans 10:13. “All who call upon the name of the Lord will be saved.” It's that simple.

Today's “But God” Testimony — and we're done — comes from someone who wishes to remain anonymous. She writes, “Greetings, Pastor JD. I wanted to share a “But God” testimony with you and my church family. [That would be you.]

In 2019, my husband and I got married, and he introduced me to listening to Calvary Kaneohe online, and I have been listening ever since. I thank God for your leadership, the way that you break down the Bible teachings, and the Prophecy Updates. 2020 brought lots of challenges and grief to my family.

At the end of January, my dad died from a drug overdose. There was a strain in our relationship due to his years of drug abuse despite trying to pray for him to change. But his addiction took him out, and I was not even sure if he was saved. [How heartbreaking is that?]

During this time period, my husband and I went to be with my family and my husband shared with me that he would like to take a leap of faith to invest in his lifelong dream of starting his own production company. I didn't even bat an eye with his request, as I knew that God was leading him and our family. We cashed out our savings account and started on a journey of business ownership.

In addition to this, after returning back home to Texas, my husband developed a large ulcer on his foot which could have caused him to lose his foot. My husband has been diagnosed with diabetes, neuropathy, and charcot foot, which causes his bones to break down in his feet and makes him unstable at times. We went to the podiatrist, and he informed my husband that he could no longer [Listen to this] work at his job as a corrections officer due to the issues with his feet.

He went on medical leave during this time, and God continued to supply the needs of our family. And this was just in the nick of time for when COVID hit really hard in March of 2020. [I love it when God does that.] God took my husband out of the jail from working in those quarters with officers and inmates and protected him, and bonus, he did not even lose his foot. He didn't lose his job, his life, his foot.

April 2020. I had an uncle that was discovered deceased in his apartment. God laid it on my heart that more death was coming to my family for this year as well. September 2020. The God-fearing, God-loving, God-teaching matriarch of our family, my grandmother passed away [Get this.] at the age of 102. Although God had prepared me for my grandmother's transition to heaven, it still hurt. At an early age, my grandmother taught us to always [I love this.] put it in the Master's hands.

COVID affected my family, and Calvary Kaneohe helped me keep my job at such an unsure time for the world. But God was always in control for my husband and I. Between 2020 and 2021, I contracted COVID twice, and both times my husband got it from me. According to the fear agenda, my husband should have been dead from COVID because of his health issues with diabetes and high blood pressure and all that. But God. Neither of us went to the hospital for COVID. [Good decision.]

At the time, I was working for a prominent airline and witnessed firsthand the eerie silence in the airport due to the lack of flights, fear of the world, and lack of faith that the world had. Nonetheless, I trusted God 100%, as I always do with everything. I was eventually issued one of those letters from my job that said, yes, I need to be out and about because I am an essential employee. [Boy, I'm thinking back to 2020.] [I'm not essential?] [Anyway, that's maybe for another time.]

I was working during a time when airlines were firing their employees for refusing the vaccine, and I was one of those employees that refused the vaccine. During this time, I continued to watch Calvary Kaneohe and get [I like how she was this.] nitty gritty, godly, eye-opening truths about the fear agenda that was being pushed out. I refused the vaccine with every request that my airline demanded — I don't even get the flu vaccine. Never have and never will — wondering if I will get fired from my job from something that is typically a voluntary medical job.

I trusted God with all my heart and soul to work it out. Letters from other airlines went out to their employees telling them that if they did not get the COVID jab by a certain date, they would be fired. But God. I found out that my employer will make an exception for religious exemptions.

As I continued to tune in every week [You know we sent out over 200,000 of those?] As I continued to tune in every week to your Prophecy Updates and Bible teachings, you made us aware that by tuning in to the online services, we are considered members of Calvary Kaneohe. [I am so glad you wrote this because if you, especially if you're still watching, you are definitely a member.] [We consider you — we don't have a formal membership.] [You're part of our church Ohana family.]

Pastor JD, I'm so grateful that I was able to request and receive a religious exemption letter and was able to submit it to my employer. I am happy to report that I continue to work for the same airline and have been for them for six years. God is so good and faithful. Thank you for your unequivocal passion to get the truth out about the hidden agendas of the world."

I'll add, of which there are many, which we talked about, some of which we talked about today. Okay. Wow! Come on up, Kapono. Stand up. You've been sitting for like, what, 3.5 hours? And to think that I'm actually trying to figure out how to shorten these things up. The more I try to shorten them, the longer they get.

Father in Heaven, I — I've done my best. And now, it's up to You to do the rest. Because all we do anyway is really make the introductions. It's the Holy Spirit who leads one to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Even the teaching, the passages, the prophecies, the connecting of them, exposing of the lies of the enemy, all of that is a waste of time unless the Holy Spirit takes it and starts that process of applying it to all of our lives.

So will You do that? Please, Lord. I've been faithful to what You've called me to. And now it's up to You to take it from here. And one last thing, Lord. Maranatha. Come quickly, Lord Jesus, please. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
