Invitation to Confession
congregation kneels

- M: Most merciful God,
P: we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name.
Amen

P: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
M: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give You thanks, Holy Father, Almighty and Eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, the Word of God made flesh, and by the power of Your Spirit, the Lord and Lifegiver.

Catechism and Creed

- HC Q. 13. Can we make this payment ourselves?
A. Certainly not. Actually, we increase our debt every day.
HC Q. 14. Can another creature—any at all— pay this debt for us?
A. No. To begin with, God will not punish any other creature for what a human is guilty of. Furthermore, no mere creature can bear the weight of God’s eternal wrath against sin and deliver others from it.

The Apostles Creed

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into Hades; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into Heaven; and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.
We believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy *catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen

* ‘catholic’, meaning universal, not Roman Catholic
