Scripture: Joshua 3 and 4

Sermon Title: “Crossing Over”

First Thoughts

Joshua 3 and 4 are chapters filled with action.

As God’s people finally crossed the Jordan River, they were filled with excitement.

Crossing the River (Chapter 3)

Crossing the river had been anticipated for decades.

During flood season, the Jordan was a dangerous place to be.

Through a miracle, God’s people crossed the river on dry ground.

God gave support to Joshua and brought glory to himself in Joshua 3.

The centrality of the Ark of the Covenant proved that God was with them.

As their eyes were on the Ark, our eyes are to be fixed on Jesus as we move forward.

On the Other Side (Chapter 4)

On the other side, Joshua ordered twelve men to build a monument with river stones.

This monument was to remind them of God’s power and steadfastness.

For years, people would return to the stones to be reminded of God’s goodness.

What “monuments” or memories do you have in your life to point you to Jesus?

Do you have stories to share of God’s presence in your life?

Final Thoughts

When Satan reminds you of your dark past, you should have memories of God’s presence.
