Sitting with Jesus

Sit with Jesus and ask Him to help you answer three simple questions related to your daily Bible reading.

- 1) What does this passage say about God?
- 2) What does this passage say about the human condition?
- 3) If it's true, what would you do to respond?

Sitting with Others

Meet (virtually or in person) with a few friends each week who are reading the same daily Bible passages and use these questions to guide your time together.

❖ Connect

- What in particular are you thankful for right now?
- Is there a particular stress or difficulty in your life or family right now?

❖ Discuss

- Which day's reading from the previous week was most impactful for you?
- How would you put it in your own words (like summarizing a movie for a friend)?
- How has it been calling you to respond or have you already done something to respond?

❖ Accountability

- Is there someone who you could share something encouraging with from this previous week's readings?
- Were you able to share something from last week's readings with someone? How did it go?
- Last week we talked about meeting a practical need of someone were in relationship with. Were you able to do so?
