Luke 24:44-49

The Great Commission of Jesus requires us to know the gospel message, the truth of repentance and forgiveness, the truth of the cross and resurrection, and submission to the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus unpacks this in our text today.

What is the gospel? How can you articulate the truths that make up the gospel message?

Forgiveness is offered to those who repent. Forgiveness can only be offered by Christ. Are these new truths to you? Do you see the grace of our Father in these truths?

All power is done in the name of Jesus:

- Lame are healed in His name- Acts 3
- Believers are baptized in His name- Acts 2
- Believers suffer in His name- Acts 5
- We evangelize in His name- 3rd John 7
- We are saved in His name- Romans 10

The gospel of Jesus shows no partiality. Salvation is made available to those of all nations, tribes, and tongues. This truth is made clear by Christ at His commissioning of the Apostles for gospel advancement.

Can you identify one person in your life who hasn't been exposed to the gospel message of Christ? No amount of creativity can replace the simple task of sharing Jesus with them. Just as the Spirit graciously revealed the truth of the gospel to you through somebody else, you also can share that message with others.
