1st Corinthians 3:1-9

Spiritual maturity takes time as we grow in Christ, much like an infant grows in maturity. Paul addresses these maturity/immaturity issues in our text.

Think about your walk with Christ the past few years. Have you matured appropriately or has your growth been lackluster? In which areas have you seen growth, and in which areas do you desire maturity?

Who are some figures (pundits, pastors, writers, thought-leaders, etc.) you’ve been tempted to make too much of?

Like the passage, the presence of pride isn’t always obvious. What are some ways you find it manifesting in your words or behaviors?

Christians can be followers of Jesus but still weak and immature in their faith. How does this information help you in the way you view and treat each other?
