Pastor Appreciation

Today is Pastor Appreciation Sunday and we want you to stick around after church for a reception in the church fellowship hall. We love our three pastors and are grateful for the way they shepherd our church.

Fall Festival

Next Saturday is our annual Fall Festival and we are expecting hundreds of neighbors to join us on the church grounds for a free pumpkin patch, hayrides, s'mores, grilled food, and much more. Would you consider volunteering for an hour? See the signup in the lobby.

Member Meeting

Next Sunday is our fall Member Meeting right after church. All men are asked to consider bringing a pot of chili, and all ladies are asked to consider bringing a bread or dessert. The meeting will include a presentation and vote on the 2027 budget, adding new deacons and covenant members, a holiday calendar unveil, and so much more. All are invited to join us.

LAST WEEK'S GIVING TOTAL:

You can give anytime at our giving station in the lobby or online at:

1st Corinthians 12:12-19

The church is like a body, every person is an active part that serves a purpose. Our spiritual gifts are meant to serve the rest of the body.

How does the diversity of people and gifts make a local church stronger?

Have you ever felt that your spiritual gifting is inferior to others? Has this made you hesitant to utilize your gifting for the church?

If the rest of the church used their gifts at the level that you use yours, how healthy would our church be? Is there a higher focus and urgency to be more active in the life of the church?

The church is the body of Christ, with Jesus as the head. He leads the rest of the body, and any part that is cut off dies and the rest of the body is harmed.

Does this encourage you in realizing that you are important to the work of the ministry of the local church?

You've been baptized into the Holy Spirit, if you are a believer. Does this reality strengthen you and build a spiritual confidence in your calling?
