1st Corinthians 1:18-25

The Wisdom of Man and the Wisdom of God are at odds with one another. They both have the power to shape us, depending on what we submit to.

- What are the things/people that shape your worldview the most? How is the wisdom of man manifested in these entities?
- The wisdom of God is “skillful living that aligns with the Word of God.” How is that different than how you’d describe knowledge?
- Do you feel tension between your secular worldview and your biblical worldview? Describe the tension you may feel between being IN the world versus being OF the world.
- Wisdom tells you how to live based on the knowledge that you have. Give examples of when you walk in wisdom based on knowledge of something.
- The church is called to be counter cultural. Can you give examples of how the church can demonstrate counter cultural Christianity?
