Fall Festival

Our annual fall festival is October 17th from 4-7pm. Plan to help us in our pumpkin patch, firepit station (for s'mores), bounce houses, hayrides, and grill as we welcome hundreds of neighbors onto our lawn. See the online signup in the Valley Weekly email, or the signup station in the lobby.

Member Meeting

Our next member meeting is October 18th after church. Men are encouraged to bring a pot of chili for our chili cookoff and ladies are asked to bring a dessert and bread to add to the lunch spread. The meeting will include a vote on the annual budget, new deacons, an unveiling of our holiday calendar, an introduction to new members, and so much more! All are invited.

Small Groups

Have you joined a fall Valley group? Check our website to see the options that are available to you and your family. Find community in our church outside of Sunday morning.

1st Corinthians 12:8-11

Paul continues to teach us the importance of the variety of spiritual gifts, and lists 9 different gifts in this section.

Is it helpful to understand the gifts in categories that represent the offices of Christ? These include priestly gifts, prophetic gifts, and kingly gifts.

How valuable is it to understand that spiritual gifts are gifts that belong to the Holy Spirit, not to us? Does this encourage you to be more dependent on His power instead of your own?

When considering metaphors that help to teach the variety of gifts for one common goal, is there one that is most helpful? Sports team, military units, etc.? Any others come to mind?

Can you search the other Scriptures to compare the list of gifts to the gifts found in today's text? Are the purposes of the gifts better seen when the lists are added together?

A primary concern in modern church culture is that more people are consumeristic in their approach to church life instead of being motivated to contribute and distribute toward one another.

Have you found yourself tempted to fall under the consumeristic mindset in the church? If not, how did you overcome the temptation and become a contributor?
