Sundays at 10:30am

3850 E Galbraith Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45236

Family Meeting

Everybody is invited to stick around after service next Sunday for our spring Family Meeting! Join us for a pizza lunch (bring a dessert, salad, bag of chips, or drink) and then for our meeting in the sanctuary. We will receive new members, honor volunteers, give a finance update, and roll out our summer calendar!

Child Dedication

We have two child dedications scheduled, one for Mother’s Day and the other for Father’s Day. If you’d like to be apart of these special moments, see the sign-up sheet in the lobby so an elder can connect with you.

Kids Photos

We need pictures! Can you email a picture of your children to the church office (Rachelle@thevalleychurch.cc) by May 4th for a special Mother’s Day gift. And, if you have a high school graduate this spring, email a senior picture of them to the same email by May 11th. Thank you.

LAST WEEK’S GIVING TOTAL:

$4,601.51

EASTER OFFERING:

$11,266.17

You can give anytime at our giving station in the lobby or online at:

1st Corinthians 9:1-14

Pastors are a gift to the church to shepherd and care for the bride of Christ. Paul tells us that they are to be taken care of and supported by the church.

Do you have preconceived opinions about pastors being paid by the church? What is the difference between their ministry and the ministry of other church volunteers?

Have you seen pastoral finances abused in a previous church? Is it challenging for you to trust church finances regarding staff salaries?

What are the benefits of having a pastor that is taken care of by the church? What are the detriments of having a pastor that isn’t?

Paul is still speaking about liberties and freedoms in our Christian conscience. Do you have a problem if a pastor works outside of the church for financial support? Why or why not?

How do you and your family support the ministry of the church and the support of your pastor?
