1ST CORINTHIANS

1st Corinthians 13:4-5

Paul gives descriptions of what love IS and what love ISN'T in regards to how we are to treat others. And the ultimate model is found in Christ.

Paul will give 16 qualities of what love is and isn't in this chapter. Why does it seem so exhaustive? Have you considered that love has so many layers to it?

9 of these qualities are negative (what love isn't). Why does that seem to outpace the positive qualities?

Of the qualities mentioned in today's text, which is the most challenging for you to express? Which is the one that you possess most naturally?

Why is it important to see that spiritual gifting without spiritual fruit is meaningless?

Do you see how the qualities of love found in chapter 13 are an active love and not an emotional experience?
