1st Corinthians 5:1-13

The Corinthian church had a culture that allowed sin to go unchecked in the church. Paul emphasized the value of discipline in the church.

Where do you differ from your understanding of sexual sin from the way it was taught in the sermon? Do you agree that a sexual experience outside of the covenant of a married man and his wife is immoral?

Why was it important that Paul rebuke the church for their lack of accountability in discipline?

Have you seen the lack of accountability in the church culture today?

Paul tells the church that their responsibility is to correct those INSIDE of the church, not those OUTSIDE of the church.

Why is that so challenging for us? How do we best engage the world around us?

Why is the Lord's Supper more than a symbolic routine? What are some of the valuable reasons to participate in it?

What is a means of grace? What are other means of grace in the church gathering?
