Happy Reformation Day

Happy Reformation Day (tomorrow). October 31st, 1517 is when Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses on the door of All Saints Church in Wittenberg, sparking the Reformation. The Lord has been kind in giving us this movement that has directly impacted what we know about God and how we worship Him today.

Valley Ladies Event

It's movie night! Ladies, come join us for some fun, food, and friendship forging. We will meet at the church on Friday evening, November 4th, at 6:30pm to enjoy some time together. Please bring a snack to share and a drink for yourself. (PS, you can even wear your jammies if you'd like!) Hope to see you there!

Christmas Doorhangers

Next week is an evangelism Sunday after church and we encourage everybody to stick around. We have 5,000 doorhangers to put on doors all around Norwood to invite folks to our very special Christmas services. Would you consider spending an hour and joining our efforts? Simply bring walking shoes and a servant's heart! We will cover the rest.

Acts 17:16-34

Mankind has always struggled to understand and believe absolute truth. Paul faces several schools of philosophy when he arrives in Athens, philosophies that identify our culture today. And they run in direct contradiction to the gospel.

What philosophies would you say mark our post-modern society? How do they compare to the great philosophers of old?

Paul makes three primary points to those listening in Athens

- You Need to Recognize that there is a God
- You Need to Recognize Who God Is
- You Need to Recognize What God Said

Do you believe there is a God? Do you recognize who God is? Do you submit to what He has said in His Word and through His Spirit?

Paul teaches that ignorance is no longer an excuse. It's not an excuse for rejecting Christ or for sinful living for Christ has been revealed to us!

Paul gives five descriptors of God in his teaching:

- He is the Creator (vs 24)
- He is the Ruler (vs 24)
- He is a Giver (vs 25)
- He is the Controller (vs 26)
- He is the Revealer (vs 27-29)
