Luke 24:33-43

The followers of Jesus had a hard time understanding the missing body of Jesus. They were convinced after seeing the resurrected Lord.

If Jesus didn't rise from the dead then His Words nor the rest of Scripture can be believed. All of redemptive history hinges on the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Do you see how the belief of the resurrection is necessary for salvation? Why?

Does your hope come from the fact that our Lord is alive today?

The first century church was started by a group of people who were witnesses of the resurrection. Without this witness the church doesn't begin.

The disciples were compelled to share the news of the risen Lord. This encounter compels us to share our testimony. Have you had an encounter with the risen Lord? Do you find yourself compelled to share that testimony with others?

Because Jesus resurrected, He's since been resurrecting dead souls to life. Is that your story? Share it with somebody this week.

The message of the church since the day of Pentecost is simple: Jesus is risen from the dead and alive forevermore!
