Luke 23:33-49

All of redemptive history leads to the cross. Everything before the cross pointed toward the cross. Everything since the cross points back to the cross. All of history hinges on the cross of Jesus.

Jesus is King, but was mocked for claiming to be a king. Christ didn't conquer their enemies like they anticipated, but ultimately He conquered Satan. Spend time in prayer considering that truth.

When considering all that Christ endured at the crucifixion, are you able to comprehend the levels of suffering He experienced? The physical, emotional, and spiritual?

Christ became a curse for us, according to Galatians 3. Through this He was able to redeem lost sinners. Does this truth bring you to a deeper level of appreciation and worship of Jesus?

Jesus forgave those who were killing Him and offered salvation to the thief on the cross. He literally saved others while NOT saving Himself.

Spend time this week considering the love that Christ displayed when He gave up His life for you. Share that gospel truth with those around you.
