SERMON NOTES

Global Missions Sunday
2026 | Until the Whole World Knows

BIG Idea: The mission of Jesus is global in its reach, fueled by His compassion for people, and urgent enough to require the participation of the entire Church.

Application: Every believer has a responsibility to participate in Christ's mission through faithful witness, prayer, generosity, and practical compassion. We cannot all go everywhere, but together we can help carry the Gospel farther than any of us could alone.

Join us as we read the Bible together in 2026.

Matthew 24:14 (ESV)

14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

The Gospel of the Kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world.

1. The mission is greater than our borders.

The Gospel knows no boundaries because the love of God knows no boundaries.

2. The mission is fueled by compassion.

Matthew 9:36 (ESV)

36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37-38 (ESV)

37 Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; 38 therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Compassion moves the mission from something we believe into something we're willing to act upon.

Our compassion gives tangible expression to the love of the Savior we proclaim.

3. The mission cannot wait for someone else.

Romans 10:14 (ESV)

[14] How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching?

It announces that through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, sinful humanity can be reconciled to God.

The urgency of missions isn't driven by fear about the end of the world. It's driven by love for the people who still need to hear the Gospel.

The question is whether we're willing to do our part.

We cannot all go everywhere. But together, we can help carry the Gospel farther than any of us could alone.
