Scripture: Mark 10:32, 35-39, 41-45

32 They were on their way up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way, and the disciples were astonished, while those who followed were afraid. Again he took the Twelve aside and told them what was going to happen to him.

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask." 36 "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked. 37 They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory." 38 "You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?" 39 "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with,

41 When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. 42 Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. 43 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

SERMON NOTES

Jesus came to fulfill two missions: to show us what the _____ is like and to _____ for the _____ of the world.

The invitation to the cross isn't about not doing your best. It isn't about don't exploit your talent and your resources. This is about _____ you do it and _____ you do it for.

The invitation to the cross invites us to leverage our power, resources, and success not for ourselves, but for the benefit of _____.

Whoever wants to be great in the Kingdom of God must become a _____.

We can choose to be great in the kingdom of this world for what will _____ or we can choose to be great in the Kingdom of God which is _____.

We should look for opportunities to give our life away because our time is _____.

The gospel has endured not because Christians _____ their way, but because they _____ their life _____.

The Kingdom of God is released and recognized in us and through us _____ when we say "yes" to the invitation of the cross.

THINK IT OVER:

1. Read Mark 10:35–40. How can you relate to James and John? Specifically, in what area of your life do you want to have all the power and influence?
2. Read Mark 10:41–45. Why do you think the other ten disciples were upset?
3. Which of these better describes you: "Believer in Jesus" or "Follower of Jesus"? Why do you say that?
4. What would it really mean for you to follow the way of the cross? In terms of truly giving away your life for the sake of someone else's well-being, what's your next step?
