WAYPOINT
CHURCH
Know Where You're Going

This is the last sermon in our series “The Church on Mission.” Today the call is the same as it was in the beginning. We must continue to be on the same mission as the early church. We must make Christ known to the nations. May we strive to live with a gospel focus in all of our lives.

Q. 65. What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

The fifth commandment forbids us to neglect or to do anything against the honour and duty which belongs to everyone in their various positions and relationships in life.

Q. 66. What is the reason attached to the fifth commandment?

The reason attached to the fifth commandment is a promise of long life and prosperity (so far as it shall serve for God's glory and their own good) to all those who keep this commandment.

God's Promise

- Acts 23:11
- Acts 1:8

*Captain, my religious belief teaches me to feel as safe in battle as in bed. God has fixed the time for my death. I do not concern myself about that, but to be always ready, no matter when it may overtake me. Captain, that is the way all men should live, and then all would be equally brave. - General Stonewall Jackson

Question 1: What is your only comfort in life and death?

*That I am not my own, but belong, body and soul, in life and in death, to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way. That not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him. - Heidelberg Catechism
