

ZECHARIAH

Return to me, and I will return to you

Behold The Man

Zechariah 6:9-14

April 14, 2024

We often live in expectation. We look forward to holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, and other key events. Most of us likely don't have to wait for more than a year. If we do it can seem like the event is never going to arrive. But in the time of the exiles, we see the people of God have been waiting generations for the promised Messiah. Today, Zechariah shares a vision which points to this long-awaited Messiah.

From Psalm 98

Leader: Oh sing to the Lord a new song,

All: for he has done marvelous things!

Leader: His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

All: He has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Leader: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises!

All: Shout for joy before the Lord, the King

Offering

Confession of Sin

Lord God Almighty, you have shown us our need of a mediator, and given us Jesus Christ as our Prophet, Priest and King. We confess to you that we neglect his prophetic word, preferring our own wisdom. We reject his kingly rule, choosing to rule ourselves in our pride. And we forget our need for his priestly sacrifice, instead trusting in our own works and sacrifices. Forgive us Lord, and set our hearts and minds again on your son, our savior Jesus Christ. Amen

Heidelberg Catechism #87

Q. Can those be saved who do not turn to God from their ungrateful and unrepentant ways?

A. By no means. Scripture tells us that no unchaste person, no idolater, adulterer, thief, no covetous person, no drunkard, slanderer, robber, or the like will inherit the kingdom of God.

Heidelberg Catechism #87

Q. What is involved in genuine repentance or conversion?

A. Two things: the dying-away of the old self, and the rising-to-life of the new.

How does Isaiah 9:6 help us understand this passage?

*By one of which he purchases redemption, and by the other applies it; by the one expiates sin, and by the other extirpates it; thus reconciling man to God, causes peace on earth, and good will to man. – T.V. Moore
