Call to Worship

From Psalm 145

Leader: Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

All: The LORD is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.

Leader: The LORD upholds all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

All: The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season.

Leader: You open your hand; you satisfy the desire of every living thing.

All: The LORD is righteous in all his ways and kind in all his works.

Leader: The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

All: He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he also hears their cry and saves them.

Confession of Sin

We are not worthy, Lord and Master, that you should come under the roof of our souls; nevertheless, since you desire to dwell with us, we make bold to draw near. You bid us open the door which you alone have made, that, entering in, you may bring light into our darkened minds. For you did not cast out the prostitute when she came to you with tears, neither did you reject the cruel tax collector when he repented, nor cast out the robber when he confessed your kingdom; but you count all who come to you in repentance among the number of your friends, O Lord, who alone is blessed now and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Q. What did God command us to pray for?

A. Everything we need, spiritually and physically, as embraced in the prayer Christ our Lord himself taught us.

Q. What are the words of that prayer?

A. Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
