Know Where You're Going

Today we see how Paul's worldview is front and center and gives context to how and why Paul reacts to a variety of situations we've covered in Acts. The book of Acts calls us to look at our worldview and think about how it affects everything we do. We must begin to live out our faith. The gospel calls us to make it a way of life and not simply a part of our life.

Q. 57. Which is the fourth commandment?

The fourth commandment is: Remember the sabbath day by keeping it holy. Six days you shall labour and do all your work, but the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien/stranger within your gates. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them, but he rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the seventh day and made it holy.

Q. 58. What is required in the fourth commandment?

The fourth commandment requires the keeping holy to God such set times as he has appointed in his Word, in particular, one whole day in seven.

Salvation

*...the preacher's task is to display Christ: to explain man's need of Him, His sufficiency to save, and His offer of himself in the promises as Savior to all who truly turn to Him; and to show as fully and plainly as he can how these truths apply to the congregation before him. - J.I. Packer
