Confession of Sin

Merciful God, full of compassion, longsuffering, and of great tenderness, who saves when we deserve punishment, and in your wrath thinks upon mercy: make earnest our repentance that we may be heartily sorry for all our misdoings; make the remembrance so burdensome and painful, that we flee to you with a troubled spirit and a contrite heart; and, O merciful Lord, visit, comfort, and relieve us; cast us not out from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from us, but excite in us true repentance; give us in this world knowledge of your truth, and confidence in your mercy, and in the world to come life everlasting, for the sake of our Lord and Savior, your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #96 - 98

Q. What is the aim of the third commandment?

A. That we neither blaspheme nor misuse the name of God by cursing, perjury, or unnecessary oaths, nor share in such horrible sins by being silent bystanders. In summary, we should use the holy name of God only with reverence and awe, so that we may properly confess God, pray to God, and glorify God in all our words and works.

Q. Is blasphemy of God's name by swearing and cursing really such serious sin that God is angry also with those who do not do all they can to help prevent and forbid it?

A. Yes, indeed. No sin is greater or provokes God's wrath more than blaspheming his name. That is why God commanded it to be punished with death.

Q. But may we swear an oath in God's name if we do it reverently?

A. Yes, when the government demands it, or when necessity requires it, in order to maintain and promote truth and trustworthiness for God's glory and our neighbor's good. Such oaths are grounded in God's Word and were rightly used by the people of God in the Old and New Testaments.

Q. May we also swear by saints or other creatures?

A. No. A legitimate oath means calling upon God as the only one who knows my heart to witness to my truthfulness and to punish me if I swear falsely. No creature is worthy of such honor.
