

ZECHARIAH

Return to me, and I will return to you

The Greatness of God

Zechariah 6:1-8

April 7, 2024

Have you ever wondered what God was doing? There are times in life when it appears God is not for us and at times even against us. Today we'll see how the final vision in Zechariah helps us understand how God is always at work. And it's always for his glory and our good!

Confession of Sin

Leader: Jesus Christ, risen King and triumphant Lord, we come to you in sorrow for our sins, and confess to you our weakness and unbelief. We have lived by our own strength, and not by the power of your resurrection. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived by the light of our own eyes, as faithless and not believing. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived for this world alone, and doubted our home in heaven. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Assurance of Pardon

Song of Declaration

My King Is Known By Mercy

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #86

Q. Since we have been delivered from our misery by grace through Christ without any merit of our own, why then should we do good works?

A. Because Christ, having redeemed us by his blood, is also restoring us by his Spirit into his image, so that with our whole lives we may show that we are thankful to God for his benefits, so that he may be praised through us, so that we may be assured of our faith by its fruits, and so that by our godly living our neighbors may be won over to Christ.

Discussion Questions

1. Why would God use visions to reveal his will rather than a more direct method?
2. How does this vision connect to the major theme of Zechariah found in 1:3?
3. How can we utilize confessions, catechisms, and creeds to grow in our faith?
4. Read Matthew 10:26-31. What do we learn in this passage?
5. How should we view the difficulties of life, especially when it seems that God is not with us?
6. How have you seen God at work recently?
