Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #10

Q. What does God's law require of us?

A. Christ teaches us this in summary, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and first commandment. "And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' "On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Confession of Sin

Holy Father, we confess that we may approach you with our mouths and our lips, when our hearts are not in worship. We confess that we offer to you that which costs us little. Though you are a great King, we often bring to you the leftovers of our time, energy, gifts, and worship. We have neglected your commands when it is inconvenient for us to keep them. We have ignored your laws when it causes us to lose our ease. We have disregarded our neighbors' needs, and wondered aloud why other people do not meet our needs. O Father, have mercy on us! Forgive us of our many debts! Cleanse us and give us the mind and heart of Jesus, who came not to be served but to serve and to give His life a ransom for many. In His name, and for His sake, we come to you. Amen.

Discussion Questions

1. What is the main issue people have with authority today?
2. Do you find parables or stories a good way to learn or help others understand? Do any of the parables of Jesus resonate with you?
3. Read Romans 1:18-19. How should these verses inform our evangelism efforts?
4. How can we avoid the trap of believing we are earning our salvation or God's favor by doing "good things" such as attending church, tithing, serving, etc? Why do we do these things?
5. How should we respond to a sermon or other teaching that we struggle to understand, believe, or follow?
6. What do you consider the most marvelous aspect of our salvation?
