Call to Worship

From Isaiah 61

Leader: The Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor,

All: to bind up the brokenhearted and proclaim freedom for the captives;

Leader: to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor

All: and comfort all who mourn,

Leader: to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,

All: and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.

Leader: They will be called oaks of righteousness,

All: a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor.

Leader: They will rebuild the ancient ruins

All: and renew the cities devastated for generations.

Leader: I delight greatly in the Lord; my soul rejoices in my God.

All: For he has clothed me with garments of salvation

Leader: as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest,

All: and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Leader: For as the soil makes the sprout come up and a garden causes seeds to grow,

All: so the Lord will make righteousness and praise spring up before all nations.

Confession of Sin

Leader: Jesus Christ, risen King and triumphant Lord, we come to you in sorrow for our sins, and confess to you our weakness and unbelief.

We have lived by our own strength, and not by the power of your resurrection. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived by the light of our own eyes, as faithless and not believing. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived for this world alone, and doubted our home in heaven. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Q. What is the aim of the tenth commandment?

A. That not even the slightest desire or thought contrary to any one of God's commandments should ever arise in our hearts. Rather, with all our hearts we should always hate sin and take pleasure in whatever is right.
