A Psalm of the Messiah

Psalm 46

August 13, 2023

When is the last time you were overwhelmed by the gospel? It may be a simple question, but it requires us to know what is meant by “the gospel.” A right understanding of the gospel will ultimately lead to a proper understanding of ourselves, the enemies we face, and the hope we have in Christ. Today’s psalm is considered to be messianic and thus it gives us a greater understanding of Christ and his work.

Q. But isn't Christ with us until the end of the world as he promised us?

A. Christ is true human and true God. In his human nature Christ is not now on earth; but in his divinity, majesty, grace, and Spirit he is never absent from us.

Confession of Sin

Leader: Jesus Christ, risen King and triumphant Lord, we come to you in sorrow for our sins, and confess to you our weakness and unbelief.

We have lived by our own strength, and not by the power of your resurrection. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived by the light of our own eyes, as faithless and not believing. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Leader: We have lived for this world alone, and doubted our home in heaven. In your mercy, forgive us.

All: Lord, hear us and help us.

Sermon Notes

The good news of the Gospel is that Jesus lived a life of perfect righteousness, of perfect obedience to God, not for His own well being but for His people. He has done for me what I couldn't possibly do for myself. But not only has He lived that life of perfect obedience, He offered Himself as a perfect sacrifice to satisfy the justice and the righteousness of God. – R.C. Sproul
