The ONE God

Genesis 1:1-2

We are beginning a new series in which we will look at the overarching story of scripture. It is a huge topic! To get the full picture we have to start at the beginning and Genesis 1:1 sets the foundation. It is about the author of it all, God! The more we understand God the more we grasp exactly what God has done for us!

Confession of Faith

Westminster Shorter Catechism

Q. 95. To whom is Baptism to be administered?

Baptism is not to be administered to any outside membership of the church on earth, until they profess their faith in Christ and obedience to him; but infants descending from parents (one or both) professing faith in Christ and obedience to him, are, for that reason, within the covenant and/are to be baptised.

Benediction

1. A recent survey shows many Christians believe there is no difference in the God of Christianity and deities of various religions. Why do you think this is the case when scripture is so clear on this point?
2. How do you think our reading of scripture would be different to the original audiences? How is it similar?
3. Read Isaiah 64:8. What does this passage teach us?
4. J.I. Packer said, “to know God as our father, our almighty, loving father, is the highest, richest, and most rewarding aspect of our whole relationship with him.” Do you agree with this statement?
5. What are you most excited about learning in this new series on the story of redemption?
6. What is one place you have seen God at work recently?
