Call to Worship

From Psalm 34:1-3

Leader: I will bless the Lord at all times;

All: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

Leader: My soul makes its boast in the Lord;

All: let the humble hear and be glad.

Leader: Oh, magnify the Lord with me,

All: and let us exalt his name together!

Confession of Sin

Leader: Heavenly Father, we come before you to confess sins: thoughts not like your thoughts, selfish desires, evil passions, and their corrupt fruit—cruel words and unjust acts.

All: Keep us, Lord, from pride and arrogance and from scornful judgment of others. Keep us from worshiping even the blessings you give us. Keep us from trusting in anything except your grace. Show us mercy, that we may be forgiven, and that we may be strengthened each day by your Holy Spirit, to serve you in the joy of liberty.

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #71

Q. Where does Christ promise that we are washed with his blood and Spirit as surely as we are washed with the water of baptism?

A. In the institution of baptism, where he says: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

"The one who believes and is baptized will be saved; but the one who does not believe will be condemned." This promise is repeated when Scripture calls baptism "the water of rebirth" and the washing away of sins.

Heidelberg Catechism #71

Q. Does this outward washing with water itself wash away sins?

A. No, only Jesus Christ's blood and the Holy Spirit cleanse us from all sins.

Heidelberg Catechism #73

Q. Why then does the Holy Spirit call baptism the water of rebirth and the washing away of sins?

A. God has good reason for these words. To begin with, God wants to teach us that the blood and Spirit of Christ take away our sins just as water removes dirt from the body. But more important, God wants to assure us, by this divine pledge and sign, that we are as truly washed of our sins spiritually as our bodies are washed with water physically.
