The Birth of the Son

MATTHEW 1:18-25

November 26, 2023

Today we are beginning our advent series titled, The Son. We're going to look at the life and ministry of Jesus over the next several weeks. I want to begin with a question. What is the most important event in human history? Charles Spurgeon says "the birth of Jesus is the grandest light of history, the sun in the heavens of all time. It is the pole star of human destiny, the hinge of chronology, the meeting place of the waters of the past and the future."

Call to Worship

From Psalm 9

Leader: We will give thanks to you, O Lord, with our whole heart; we will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

All: We will be glad and exult in you; we will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Leader: Sing praises to the Lord, who sits enthroned in Zion!

All: The Lord's name be praised!

Offering

Confession of Sin

Leader: Holy Lord, we are guilty of pride, of unbelief and of not seeking you in our daily lives.

All: Our guilt presents our conscience with a long list of accusations, but they shall not stand! For we lay them all now on Christ, our sacrifice and advocate.

Leader: Lord, subdue our weakness and selfishness, and grant us grace to live above them. Let us not be mastered by them, but rule over us in liberty and power.

All: We praise you and thank you for your wisdom and infinite love. Deliver us from every evil habit, from everything that dims the brightness of your grace in us, from everything that prevents us from taking our deepest delight in you. Amen.

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #63

Q. How can our good works be said to merit nothing when God promises to reward them in this life and the next?

A. This reward is not earned; it is a gift of grace.

Heidelberg Catechism #64

Q. But doesn't this teaching make people indifferent and wicked?

A. No. It is impossible for those grafted into Christ through true faith not to produce fruits of gratitude.
