

An open wooden door stands in the center, leading to a bright sunset over the ocean. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a golden glow across the sky and reflecting on the water. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds. The door is set in a dark, shadowed interior, creating a strong contrast with the bright light outside.

Call to Worship

From John 1:10-14

Leader: He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him.

All: Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God - children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

Leader: The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.

All: We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

Jesus What A Friend For Sinners

Offering

Confession of Sin

Almighty God, we are not worthy of your presence, but we look now to the Lamb of God, who takes away our sin. Through him we draw near to you: listening to your voice, trusting in your love, delighting in your word, carried in your arms. Cleanse our minds of all error and our hearts of all idols that we may share who you are with the world. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism #120

Q. Why did Christ command us to call God "our Father"?

A. To awaken in us at the very beginning of our prayer what should be basic to our prayer— a childlike reverence and trust that through Christ God has become our Father, and that just as our parents do not refuse us the things of this life, even less will God our Father refuse to give us what we ask in faith.
