

A Business Woman, a Slave Girl, and a Soldier / 5.12.24 | Key: Question
(Leader's Notes)

Read Acts 16:11-34

In light of Mother's Day, how has your mother influenced your understanding and treasuring of Jesus?

What stood out or challenged you from Justin's sermon or these verses?

Do you have a story about God moving in your life that you tell over and over again? Please share!

The Gospel is for every kind of person and transforms every kind of person. What lies from the enemy keep you from believing the truth of the power of the Gospel?

Think of someone close to you who doesn't know Jesus. What angle of the Gospel message do you believe would be most fruitful for them to hear? (Lydia was religious and needed Gospel truth, the demon-possessed girl needed to know of the power of God, and the jailer needed to know of a more satisfying way of life)(Someone addicted needs to hear of freedom in Christ, someone hurt needs to hear of the nearness and suffering of Christ, etc.)

How does the Gospel unite us as a community of believers?

There is not a person so good that they don't need the gospel, and there is not a person so bad that they are too far gone for the gospel. Which of those two types of people do you relate to today?

Men's/Women's Time
