

Read Romans 13:1-7

What was encouraging or challenging from Justin's message or the passage?

Why do you believe conversations centered around religion and politics have become taboo within families and friendships in our culture?

Would you say that you fall into the "care too much" or "not care at all" camp when it comes to politics?

There is an ultimate authority over our governmental authorities. How should that impact how we view and interact with our governmental authorities?

What does it look like to submit and give honor to our governing authorities?

What is an action step you can take to engage with politics in a more healthy and bible-centered way?
