

Life Group Notes / A Loving Husband / 1.30.22

Icebreaker

Describe something that you won/accomplished growing up that you're proud of.

Ephesians 5:25-30

What is one thing that stood out to you from our passage and/or Justin's message?

During last week's 'Marriage Midweek', Clayton described culture's definition of love as: "the feeling I get when you make me happy". How does this contradict the definition of love in our passage?

Describe helpful/unhelpful examples of husbands attempting to love their wives.

In marriage, what does it look like for a husband and a wife, both together and individually, to thrive spiritually? / How does a husband loving his wife lead to spiritually thriving?

What are some selfish habits that keep you from sacrificially loving the people in your life?

Read 2 Corinthians 12:9. How might this encourage husbands who are struggling to find strength to love sacrificially?

The first step in cultivating care is becoming a safe person. What does it mean to be a "safe person" in a marriage?

Why is it important to be able to call out someone's strengths/gifts in a marriage?

Jesus didn't wait for us to be beautiful to initiate with us. He initiated with us when we were at our worst. How does this motivate you to initiate with those around you?

—

Men's/Women's Time

Have a time of sharing (i.e. Share highs/lows in this season, needs in your home/community, etc.)

Pray for husbands.

PRAY for one another.