

Read Philippians 1:12-18

Pray again as a group that Philippians 1:6 would be true of your group.

What stood out/challenged you from Alex's sermon or these verses?

What do you think about when you think of the Gospel?

How do we get to a place where we experience the Gospel so deeply for ourselves, that it strengthens the faith of others? Can you think of an example where someone else's faith strengthened you?

Can you remember a hard situation or season of life that you experienced the Gospel more deeply because of it? What did that experience teach you about the Gospel?

Do you believe the Gospel is for every sin, circumstance, and situation that you are in? What sin, circumstance, or situation leads you to have a hard time believing the Gospel applies to it?

What are some examples of good motives and bad motives we can have when communicating the Gospel to others? How can we change those bad motives to good ones?

God used hard situations in Paul's life to advance the G, and He does the same with us,. Why do you think that is:?

Men's/Women's Time

Have a time of sharing. (i.e. Share highs/lows in this season, needs in your home/community, etc.)

PRAY for one another.
